BARBERS ARE EXAMINED

State Board Inquires Into Fitness of Applicants for Licenses.

Examinations for barbers' licenses are being conducted in Portland this week by the State Board of Barber Examiners.

The session opened yesterday morning and will conclude tomorrow night. About 48 applicants from Portland and the vicinity are being examined. The tests consist of practical demonstrations in shaving, hair-cutting and razor honing. Much stress is placed upon the question of sanitation. Applicants are expected to be able to answer a series of questions on this subject. The examining board consists of H. G. Myers, R. R. Wallace and T. M. Leabo. Mr. Leabo said yesterday that more attention is to be given to the question of sanitation than heretofore, and that the standard is to be rigidly maintained. Notwithstanding the fact that an applicant proves his
