

NEW CABINET IN POWER IN TURKEY

Tewfik Pasha Is Stop-gap for Kiamil.

YOUNG TURKS ARE WIPED OUT

Religious Party in Control Under Constitution.

SULTAN ISSUES EDICT

Vast Crowd Cheers New Cabinet When Installed—Troops and People Loyal to Sultan—Army Returns to Service.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 14.—After the stirring events of yesterday and the early part of today, the successful work of a Cabinet and the issue of an imperial proclamation ordaining the observance of the Sheri laws and the preservation of the constitution served to bring about a comparatively peaceful situation here tonight. The new Cabinet, of which Tewfik Pasha is the Grand Vizier, has been installed.

The formation of the Cabinet has greatly relieved the tension. Most of the people passed a sleepless night, owing to the continuous discharge of musketry. Tonight the city is quiet, the troops have returned to their barracks and the crowds in the streets have gradually returned to their homes. Confidence is gradually returning, although the military situation will require all the energies of the new government for its successful handling and the promulgation of wise measures, so the army may be placed on a more satisfactory basis. Fortunately, the new Minister of War, Edhem Pasha, is generally respected, and it is believed he will restore order.

Young Turkey Obliterated.

It is noteworthy that, while the revolution of last July was the work of officers, the present movement was carried forward by the soldiers, aided by the religious party. The rising has resulted in the complete obliteration of the committee of union and progress, while many deputies representing the committee have resigned or been expelled from their homes. During the whole thrilling episode, the salient feature of the revolution was the loyalty of the troops and the people to the Sultan, whose name was frequently acclaimed, and the absence of attacks on the lives and property of citizens.

The new Cabinet discussed the situation tonight. The Grand Vizier and the Sheikh-ul-Islam arrived at the Porte in state and were cheered by an immense crowd. The precincts of the Porte where the ministry was installed was packed to overflowing.

Kiamil Will Resign Office.

An imperial order was issued appointing Tewfik Pasha Grand Vizier and confirming Zis Eddin Effendi as Sheikh-ul-Islam. It also ordained the strict observance of the Sheri laws and the preservation of the constitution "for the maintenance of security and progress and for the government and welfare of all my people." The Sultan adds that the observance of the instructions laid down in the order is of the utmost importance and concludes by invoking divine assistance on the efforts of the Grand Vizier and the Cabinet, which is composed of elements outside of the parliamentary parties and which generally is considered as transitory and likely to lead eventually to the return of the exiled and deposed Kiamil Pasha, and the ex-War Minister, Nazim Pasha, two of the most popular men in Turkey.

Ahmed Risa, President of the Chamber, has been replaced by Ismail Kemal, provisional leader of the Liberal Union. The Sultan has ordered the removal from Constantinople of Hussein Jaki, chief editor of the Tanin, and of Rahmi and Javid, deputies from Salonika, the appointment of Zohreh, an influential member of the Liberal Union, to be Vice-President of the Chamber of Deputies, and finally the removal of the officers of the Salonika battalion of Chasseurs.

May Be Civil War.

Much anxiety is felt concerning the attitude of the second and third army corps at Adrianople and Salonika. Should they remain faithful to the Committee of Union and Progress, the result must be civil war.

There was a curious scene in St. Sophia Square on Tuesday afternoon. Along the sides were massed infantrymen in deep blue uniforms, together with many Salonika chasseurs in khaki. In the middle of the square groups of soldiers were seated on the ground, Turkish fashion, in big circles. Moving from group to group were white-turbaned hadjais talking earnestly. Few civilians were visible and no doubtful-looking characters.

At intervals the soldiers lined up and cheered the new arrivals, fresh bands of musicians. The conversation generally was of a general nature. (Concluded on Page 5.)

NORDICA TO TRY MARRIAGE AGAIN

PRIMA DONNA TO WED NEW YORK FINANCIER.

George W. Young Is Happy Man. Date for Wedding Not Set, but Formal Engagement Made.

NEW YORK, April 14.—(Special.)—Mme. Lillian Nordica, of the Metropolitan Opera Company, is to be married to George W. Young, banker and member of many of New York's exclusive clubs. For several months rumor has linked the name of the prima donna and the financier, and reports that they were engaged were met by denials from Mme. Nordica, although many of her intimate friends were aware that it was only a matter of time when the singer would set gossip at rest by a formal announcement. This she did at a dinner party in Hotel Plaza a few nights ago, and both the prima donna and her fiancé were showered with congratulations.

The news was kept secret until today. Mme. Nordica is in Brantford, Canada, where she is to sing in concert. Tonight she authorized the press to confirm the story that she was to be married to Mr. Young.

No date for the wedding has been set.

NEW TRIAL GIVEN TO LOUIS GLASS

Appellate Court Holds Conviction Invalid.

FINDS TWO ERRORS IN TRIAL

Irrelevant Evidence Admitted by Judge.

INSTRUCTIONS NOT RIGHT

Telephone Official Convicted of Bribery to Be Tried Again, but Chief Witness Has Died Since Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—By a decision of the District Court of Appeals, handed down today, the conviction of Louis Glass, ex-vice-president and general manager of the Pacific States Telephone Company, found guilty of having offered a bribe to Supervisor Thomas F. Loneragan to influence his vote on the granting of a franchise to the Home Telephone Company, is reversed and a new trial ordered.

The reversal is based upon two points: First, the admission into evidence of matters pertaining to certain transactions in relation to the Home Telephone Company franchise in Oakland, held by the appellate judges to be irrelevant to the case on trial; and second, that Judge William P. Lawlor refused to instruct the jury, as requested by the defense, not to allow the refusal of E. J. Zimmer, an official of the Pacific States Telephone Company, to testify to influence their minds, nor to view his refusal as an indication that he was withholding evidence which might incriminate the defense.

Indictment Not Model. The decision of the appellate justices sustains the indictment under which Glass was tried, though after an exhaustive discussion of its text, they declare it to be "not a model," while sufficient for its purpose.

The verdict against Glass was brought on August 30, 1907, and on September 5, 1907, he was sentenced by Judge Lawlor to serve five years in the state penitentiary. The health of the prisoner was very poor and he was liberated on bail on that account, pending the result of his appeal. The first case against Glass resulted in a mistrial, and his conviction followed the second presentation of the evidence.

Second Verdict Overruled. Since the inception of the bribery-graft investigation in this city two and a half years ago, four convictions have been obtained—those of Eugene E. Schmitz, ex-Mayor of the city; M. W. Coffey, an ex-supervisor; Abraham

SINGER DEFEATED BY BOSTON BEANS

TETRAZZINI FORCED TO DELAY TRIP BY INDIGESTION.

Great Prima Donna Boasts She Can Eat Anything, but Has Found Her Match.

New York, April 14.—(Special.)—Luina Tetrazzini is the victim of Boston baked beans and Boston brown bread, and is ill in her apartments in the Knickerbocker Hotel. Her digestion, which, she is proud to say, has assimilated every European dish, fell down before Boston beans and Boston brown bread on Sunday morning. Boston brown bread, she had to delay her trip to Europe. She was booked to sail this morning on the Mauretania, to open the opera season at Covent Garden in London in "La Traviata," on April 20. But at the last moment Signor Baselli, her manager, cancelled the passage.

Mme. Tetrazzini, who is as robust as most prima donnas, had often told her friends that she could eat anything, and some of them told her to beware of Boston. She laughed. After a breakfast of beans and brown bread, she ate a box of sardines later in the day. While she might have been able to handle the beans and brown bread, her stomach rebelled when the sardines came along.

DISTILLERY TO BE SEIZED

Uncle Sam to Take Over 8000 Barrels of Whisky for Violations.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Formal instructions were issued today to Collector Goldsborough at Baltimore directing him to seize the plant of the Carroll Springs Distillery Company, one of the largest registered grain distilleries in Maryland. The Government will take possession of nearly 8,000 barrels of whisky.

An investigation has shown, it is alleged, that the law was being violated sufficiently to cause the forfeiture of the plant. It is said the charges involve the discovery of new whisky in old barrels, the substitution of new whisky for older whisky and its removal without the payment of $1.10 a gallon to the Government, and the substitution of gin for whisky.

SUICIDE AFTER FUNERAL

Brewery Employee Goes to Join Man for Whom He Worked.

LOS ANGELES, April 14.—Ludwig Fischback, 45 years old, was so affected by the funeral of his employer, Fred Mayer, president of the Mayer Brewing Company, which he attended yesterday, that he ended his life early today by hanging himself to a tree in the rear of his home at Forty-seventh street and Santa Fe avenue.

INCOME TAX NOW DEMOCRATIC PLAN

But Party in Senate Divides on Tariff.

SOME WILL SEEK PROTECTION

Majority Opposes Stone's Philippine Policy.

ECONOMY, CRIES ALDRICH

Says Bill Will Raise More Revenue Than Estimated and New Committee Will Pare Down Annual Expenses.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—For more than four hours the Democratic members of the Senate conferred today in an effort to agree upon a tariff policy. After the session Culberson, the minority leader, announced that the Democrats had agreed to support an income tax amendment, to stand for substantial reductions and to fight for a decrease in the rates on the necessity of life.

The decision is not binding and the meeting was not entirely harmonious. Some Senators admitted frankly that they would seek protection for the industries of their states.

Not Unit on Philippines.

Stone spoke in favor of his programme of independence for the Philippines after 15 years and absolute free trade with the islands during that period. Foster was opposed to free trade with any of the colonies. Neither of these Senators, it was apparent, could have obtained a majority of the Democrats for his proposition had a vote been taken. Only on one question was the conference agreed and that was the income tax.

The Senate finance committee has had the benefit of the advice of the best experts in the Government service, who declare the bill as amended by the Senate will raise much more money than appears, and Aldrich still insists that no additional internal taxes will be needed.

Cut Down Expenditures.

Great dependence is placed by the Senate lawyers on the work done by ex-Senator Hemenway on behalf of the new Senate committee on public expenditures. Information is being collected by him which will be used in paving down annual appropriations. Senate leaders have taken the position that governmental extravagance must cease and it is reported that Mr. Hemenway will recommend a reduction of about $35,000,000 from the $150,000,000 of permanent funds and that a like sum be pruned from the regular annual appropriations for the various executive departments.

JAPAN DISCERN'S GERMAN MOTIVE

KNOWS DESIRE TO SEVER ALLIANCE WITH BRITAIN.

Discontent Only Exists Among British Residents in Orient Who Dislike Japan.

TOKIO, April 14.—(Special.)—Japanese publicists do not take seriously the German insinuation that Great Britain is dissatisfied with the Anglo-Japanese alliance and wishes to abrogate it. They believe that it does not reflect official views and that it is pure newspaper invention, intended to alienate English sympathy because of existing Anglo-German differences as to Chinese questions, including the Canton-Hankow railway difficulty.

They say that doubtless visitors to the open ports of China get the idea that Englishmen in the Far East have ceased to regard the alliance with friendly eyes. Japan and everything Japanese are in bad odor there at present and, if the alliance depended upon the votes of British subjects in these settlements, its existence would be brief.

Englishmen in China, it is declared, may feel momentary umbrage in the face of Japanese competition, yet it is merely a transitory phenomenon.

Abandons South Sea Cruise—Has Six Books Ready.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—(Special.)—News from Sydney, by way of Honolulu is to the effect that Jack London has offered his vessel, the Snark, for sale. He wants $3000, although the boat cost him $30,000 in San Francisco. London said to a reporter in Sydney:

"Owing to my illness I have been forced to abandon the South Sea cruise, and expect to be back in San Francisco in June. I have six works ready for publication. One is a book dealing with my voyage in the Snark; another is a collection of South Sea stories, the third a collection of Hawaiian stories, and the others are Klondike stories. I am now writing a Solomon Island novel, dealing with plantation work with love and adoration. It will be called 'The Strong Hand.'"

Denver Girl Lured to Ruin on Vessel.

MESSAGE PLACED IN BOTTLE

Rosaline Rockayn Asks That Her Brother Be Notified.

ABDUCTED FROM BAY CITY

Stranger in San Francisco, She Asks Man to Lead Her to Lodgings, Is Drugged and Then Carried Away.

OAKLAND, Cal., April 14.—After drifting for weeks in the Pacific Ocean, the plaything of the winds and waves, a message purporting to tell of the plight of Rosaline Rockayn, a Denver girl, who came to this city last month, strange to its people and its ways, only to be drugged and carried out to sea by a man who had offered her his services as guide to a boarding-house, was washed upon the waterfront today.

The paper was contained in a bottle which the girl threw from the cabin porthole of her prison ship, trusting that her appeal would reach someone who would inform her relatives and bring about her release. The message is headed: "Pacific Ocean, March 13, 1908." It begins:

"I cast this bottle overboard with the hope that it will be found. I arrived from the East Thursday and, being a stranger to San Francisco, did not know where to find the main part of the city. A gentleman, as I supposed at the time, met me on my arrival and asked me if I were looking for someone."

Continuing, the message tells of the kind offer of this man to see the girl safely housed, of his success in persuading her to come aboard a ship to wait
