Expects to Leave Portland.—Rev. H. C. Shaffer, pastor of the First United Brethren Church, East Morrison and East Miffeenth streets, has decided that he will not return to this church for another year, and will place his resignation in the hands of Bishop William Bell at the opening of the annual conference, which meets at Philomath in June. Mr. Shaffer has been pastor of this church for nearly five years and built it up strongly, and the members are almost a unit in asking that he reconsider his decision and return another year, but he says that he expects to leave at the end of the conference year. He appreciates the says that he expects to leave at the end of the conference year. He appreciates the many expressions that have come to him from members of the First Church since it was known he would not return, but he feels that a change will be for the better. Mr. Shaffer may go to California, or the East. He has received flattering offers in the way of churches and fields, but he has not decided on his course.

the opening devotional exercises conducted by Mr. Crosier and a beautiful sole by Mrs. Mollet, the subject "God's Call to Women" was taken up by Mrs.
Mollet. She spoke of woman as called to be good, wise, a seeker after truth, loveliness, development, faith; full of good works, comforting the sick, helping the poor, the queen of her home, sometimes called to public work; the faithful mother showing love to her children and sil with whom she comes in contact. Her talk was much enjoyed. At the conclusion tea and cake were served and a pleasant social hour spent. "Physical Culture" will be the subject next week,

LIFE HISTORY OF COL. W. H. JORDAN, WHO DIED TUESDAY.

Army Officer Who Gained Distinction-Citizen of Portland for Many Years.

Colonel William Henry Jordan, U. S. A., retired, who died in Portland April 13, 1909, was born in Piqua, Ohio, June 22, 1837. He was appointed to West 22, 1837. He was appointed to West Point in 1855 and graduated in 1850. He was assigned to the Second United States Infantry in 1861 and served in Minnesota. Infantry in 1861 and served in Minnesota. His regiment was soon after transferred to the East to take part in the Civil War, and formed part of the Army of the Potomac under General McClellan. Colonel Jordan was then a Second Lieutenant, and while rescuing his company was seriously wounded in the knee, from which he never fully recovered. For this meritorious service he was given the brevet of Captain in June, 1882. He had already been promoted to First Lieutenant and later was made Captain of the Ninth Infantry. When he was able to resume his command he was ap-and painstaking officer and an extive and painstaking officer and an excellent drill master and tactician. He is survived by his wife and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. H. F.

Kendall, wife of Major H. F. Kendall,
U. S. A. retired, of Fortland; Miss Julia Jordan, also of Portland; Captain H. W.
Jordan, Twelth United States Infantry, stationed at Governor's Island, New York; Samuel D. Jordan, residing at Olympia, Wash; Mrs. C. D. Lewis, of Seattle, and David J. Jordan, of Portland.

The funeral will be held at St. Mark's Church at 2 o'clock P. M. today, and a military except will conduct the body from the church to the cemetery, at which private services will be held. Not only during the military life of Colonel Jordan was he esteemed and honored by his friends and associates. but also as a citizen in private life.

Lower Columbia May Be Stocked With Young Fish.

SENATOR BOURNE TO APPLY

F. V. Holman Succeeds in Securing Indorsement for Plan and Suitable Person Is to Be Selected for Work.

Through the efforts of F. V. Holman, The Gordon De Luxe $4.00 of Portland, and United States Senator Bourne, the lower Columbia will probably he stocked with striped bass in the near future.

Senator Bourne, who is chairman of the Senate fisheries committee, has agreed to indorse an aplication for 500 young bass, and it is expected that the application will be granted promptly by the Department of Fisheries, only delay now encountered is in the selection of some suitable person to take charge of the young fish and see hat they are planted in the lower river. Mr. Holman has taken up this parcular question with Mayor A. L. Smith f Astoria, but has not yet received reply to his letter.

It is ceclared that stripped bass, unlike the black bass, are not objectionable to the salmon interests, because he striped variety does not see out at able to the saimon interests, because the striped variety does not go out of sait or brackish water. Once planted, the striped bass would be caught in the vicinity of Astoria, probably during the entire year, near Cathlamet during eight or nine months and farther up the river only where the sea water mingles with the fresh water of the Columbia.

The striped bass is now caught in large numbers in the Sacramento River where but a few years ago 160 were rlaced by the United States Fisheries Department.

The bass is not so prolific as some other species of fish, but it protects its young and the percentage that survives to a self-protecting age is much greater. With a stock of 500 striped bass it is believed that bass fishing would become a profitable industry in the lower river within a few years.

The striped bass grows to a weight of 15 to 20 pounce, is gamy and highly prized in California and in the East as a food fish. It is now shipped to Portland markets in considerable quantities from the Sacramento River.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Charlotte Stanburrough, Pioneer of 1851, Passes Away.

Mrs. Charlotte Cornella Stanburrough, of 541 Bast Fifteenth street South, was found dead in bed yesterday morning by members of her family. Mrs. Stanburrough was a pioneer resident of Portland, and was a daughter of William Kern, who was known to all the pioneers of this city. She came to Portland with her parents in 1831 and became the wife of Edward Stanburrough 30 odd years ago. Mrs. Stanburrough was 68 years of age.

Mrs. Stanburrough had been in ill health for a long period, but Tuesday was not feeling worse than usual and was not confined to her bed. In the night she complained of illness, but about midnight became better and the family retired leaving her cheerful and apparently in no danger. Death from heart disease came at Mrs. Charlotte Cornella Stanburrough.

ger. Death from heart disease came at some time before morning.

A son, Charles A. Stanburrough, of Prineville, Or., and two daughters. Mrs. Frederick C. Forbes and Mrs. Nathan Mark Montgomery, of Portland, and Mr. Stanburrough are surviving members of the family. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

THE POWER

The reputation of many an otherwise good piano has been wrecked by a poor action. The keys of a piano create motion which the action conveys to the waiting strings. If the stroke is not clean and strong, and the release immediate, so as to give the tone a clear, ringing quality; if there is not a firm, but springy touch upon the keys, the piano, even if it is constructed so as to be capable of producing a fine, musical tone, can only bring forth a very unsatisfactory, uncertain, dragging one.

We would like to call your attention to the actions found in all Hobart M. Cable pianos. They are wonderfully perfect in all respects. An examination of them will go further toward convincing you of the staunch, reliable character of this piano than any amount of talking that we can do.

Hobart M. Cable pianos throughout are as worthly made as are their actions and as a result they have the indersement of the best qualified judges. Prices on these pianos are only moderate and payments exceedingly reasonable. For sale only at Ellers Piano House, 353 Washington street, corner Park.

Alvin W. Baird performed an autopsy on the dead man in the presence of Dr. C. F. Candiani, the Italian Consul, and arterio-scierosis, or a hardening of the walls of the arteries leading from the heart, was found to have been the cause of the sudden death. No marks of violence of any kind were found.
