Pool at Hillsboro Will Be Sold Next

Mohair is coming in freely. Most of the dealers are quoting 24 cents, but some lots have lately been bought at 2316 cents. There will be a pool sale of mohair at Hillsboro next Monday. A. J. Ray & Son purchased the Sodaville pool, and not the o pool, as reported. The Scio pool is to be sold Saturday.

While good prices are being paid for mohair in this state, the Eastern market continues lifeless. The Boston Commercial Bulletin says of trade there:

The local market is without a ripple of activity as far as new business is con-cerned, for consumers are still apparently sufficiently stocked with raw material for immediate and near-by wants. Prices are holding nominally steady at quotations. Foreign-Tarkey, extras. 52@58c; Turkey,

PACKERS BUY EGGS TO STORE. Getting All They Can in the Country at Full Prices.

The large packers are in the egg market strong at the present time. They are buying freely in the country for storage purposes on the basis of 22 cents Portland, and the result is that a comparatively small quantity of eggs are coming into Front street. Receipts, on the whole, are showing a de-crease, and as chickens are becoming somewhat more plentiful it is evident that the heaviest faying season has passed. There was no change in the jobbing quotation yesterday, but the market was very firm.
