Property of Oregon Millionaire Is Placed in Court's Hands by Agreement of Attorneys to Prevent Decision.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15,-(Special.) Judge Murasky today made an order that, in accordance with a stipulation between attorneys, Frank Thompson is to pay his wife, Ella Gertrisle, $495 for her hotel bill and the expenses of her daughter at school. Of this amount $370 is for hotel expenses,

The R. R. Thompson estate, in which The R. R. Thompson estate, in which the defendant has a one-eighth interest, is about to be distributed. In order to remove the injunction which has tied up all action in regard to that estate Judge Murasky ordered also as a result of stipulation that all but fifty of the defendant's 1428 shares in the R. R. Thompson Estate Company be placed in his hands for safekeeping until the divorce suit is determined.

Thompson must also turn over to the Judge all but $25,000 of the property already in his hands to be distributed. It is expected that the case will go to trial within two weeks. Judge Murasky will thus come into possessesion of property worth about $375,000 and will have to hire a safe deposit vault to take care of Ten Armenians Killed.

The first news from Mersina was exaggerated. Early advices stated that a massacre of Armenians was in progress at that place, which is a Mediterranean seaport of Asia Minor. The disturbseaport of Asia Minor. The disturb-ance in reality occurred at Adana, which is about 35 miles from Mersina. Only ten Armenians were killed. Martial law has been proclaimed there and re-inforcements are being dispatched from Belrut.

The report that Mahmoud Mukhtar Pasha has fled to Salonika has been confirmed. It is stated that Ahmed Riza, the ex-President of the Chamber, has taken refuge in the French Embassy, and that Hussein Jahid, editorin-chief of the Tanin, has fled abroad.

Parliament Afraid of Army.

A strange but significant session of the Chamber of Deputies was held. Dejection sat upon the face of almost every Deputy. The members anxiously constituted the programment of the contract o sulted the newspaper correspondents to learn the opinions held abroad. new president, Ismael Kami proposed that the Chamber Bey, proposed that the Chamber hold a short secret session. This was stormy, and it was finally decided that a proclamation be published throughout the empire that the House considers the claims of the Ottoman soldiers, accepts the resignation of the Cabinet and grants amnesty. In addition, the changes agreed to issue assurances to the various onstituencies that order will be restored

Hadjis Dominate Chamber.

The whole attitude of the Chamber today indicated its sense of defeat and lack of information. Those more and lack of information. Those more courageous were interrupted by the timid, who apparently were fearful that the next attack might be directed against them. The Hadjis dominated the situation, and spoke imperatively. When the sitting became public, several ministers took part. The Minister of Instruction declared that the new ministers have sworn to uphold the constitution and would rather die than violate their oaths. He assured the chamlate their oaths. He assured the chamber that nothing threatened the con-stitution and there was no need for alarm. This last phrase produced a storm of cries, demanding to know who was causing the fear. The air was greatly perturbed and the minister said he was speaking unofficially in cried he was speaking unofficially in order to calm the public, but he would with-draw the words if the members so

It becomes increasingly evident that sent five months. the appeal made to religious feeling was simply with a view to reconciling the people to the downfall of the government instituted by the Committee of Union and Progress.

Significant is the flattering tone adopted toward the troops in the proclamation issued by the Chamber. This frankly declares that the soldiers' attitude represented public discontent with the activity of the late Cabinet and that the Ministry should be remodeled to meet the army's wish

The number of casualties during the disturbances of the last few days has not been definitely ascertained, but it is believed to be comparatively small. It is alleged that many officers, disguised as privates, participated. This tends to confirm the assertion that the mutiny was directed against army officers who were members of the Committee of Union and Progress. Nazim Pasha Rules Army.

Nazim Pasha, in addition to being ap-pointed commander of the first army corps, has been made assistant minister while Omar Rachdi Pasha and Memduh Pasha have been appointed commanders of the first and second divisions of the imperial guard.

Nazim Pasha has liberated all the officers imprisoned Tuesday and has issued strict orders that they be not molested. Parliament Fears to Act and Young Turks Seem Crushed.

LONDON, April 15.—Turkey still has a Parllament, but it appears to be dead. Many of its members are fearful of entering the doors; they are bold only in confirming the acts and wishes of the reactionary party, which has obtained control of the state.

Constantinople remains quiet, but any public man who incurs the odium of the soldiers or reactionary politicians seems to be in danger of being lynched, and the days succeeding the first rioting have done hothing to relieve the anxiety. It is reported that the Committee of Union and Progress is being reassembled by the leaders of Salonika, where their forces will be reorganized. Up to the present, however, there is no sign of any real military movement in their favor, and their downfall appears to be complete.

A dispatch from Constantinople says

A dispatch from Constantinople says the Sultan is in complete mastery. He controls the army and has ordered the troops to return to their barracks round the Palace. He has reappointed Shevket as commander of the Imperial Guard. He has ordered all the troops that were banished to the provinces by the Committee of Union and Progress to return to the capital.

SCHIVELY INQUISITORS HEAR VANVORIS TODAY.

If Spokane Grand Jury Returns Indictment, Committee Can Do No More.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 15 .- (Special.) -After meeting behind closed doors practically all day, the special legislative committee named to investigate state offices announced at the close of tonight's session that in the close of tonight's session that in the morning at 9 o'clock W. S. Vanvoris, formerly connected with the defunct Guarantee Fund Life Insurance Company, of Tacoma, would be placed upon the stand. The committee intended to hold a meeting at 10 o'clock in the morning, but when it was found that only one of the three volunteer witnesses could be here, it was concluded to put the first man on at 9 o'clock, so that Senator Fishback will be able to leave on the noon train for his home in Lewis County. At the close of the Lewis County. At the close of the morning session the committee will ad-journ until Wednesday morning at 10 clock, April 21.

A subpena for his appearance before the grand jury at Spokane has been served upon State Insurance Commis-sioner Schively, who is now being investigated. He is to report in Spokane

Monday.

The feeling is general here that the investigation of Mr. Schively will event-ually fall through, so far as the legis-lative committee is concerned. If the grand jury at Spokane returns a true bill against him for his connection with the defunct Pacific Livestock Associa-tion, this committee can do no more, for the grand jury is believed to be in pos-session of all facts that the committee can obtain. If the grand jury frees him then the committee will, in all probabil-ity do the same thing. The committee, it is believed, can only report to the Governor any facts it may find, which, while they may be unbecoming a state officer, are not criminal offenses, should the grand jury fail to indict. If the grand jury does indict, there will be little else for the committee to do, as the Pacific Livestock Association muddle is regarded as the most serious charge preferred against Mr. Schively.
