ALDRICH OFFERS HIS TARIFF BILL

Says It Will Create Surplus if Expenses Reduced to Fit Revenue.

IMPORTS NOW INCREASING

Senate Leader Says Tariff Bill Is Enough Without New Taxes, but Daniel Declares Bill Does Not Benefit All.

WASHINGTON, April 19 .- Debate on the tariff bill began in the Senate to day with the opening speeches of the leader on each side in the finance comleader on each side in the finance committee. Aldrich and Daniel. The Republican leader presented the estimates of revenue and expenditures, showing that under the bill, which omits any new forms of taxation, and with a reduction in expenses to be effected by economy, the Government will have a surplus of $30,000,000 in the fiscal year 1911. He declared that appropriations in the last few years had been extravagant and that no new taxes were necessary. Daniel criticised the majority of the committee for not admitting the Democrats to the sessions at which the bills was drafted. He at which the bills was drafted. He practically conceded the soundness of the protection theory, by admitting that the tariff should equal the difference in the cost of production at home and abroad, but said the bill did not accountly safeguard all interests. equally safeguard all interests.

Aldrich Estimates Revenue.

Aldrich Establishment Aldrich said in part:

"The practical question to which I ask your attention today is, "Will the bill as reported from the committee on finance produce sufficient revenue, when taken in produce sufficient revenue with the internal revenue with the internal revenue. produce sufficient revenue, when taken in connection with the internal revenue taxes, to meet the Government expenditures without additional taxes? I answer unbesitatingly that it will."

Addrich submitted statements show-ing the receipts, disbursements, surpluses and deficits, actual and estimated, of the Treasury for the fiscal years 1900 to 1911, inclusive. His estimates for the fiscal years 1908 to 1911, inclusive, were as fol-

Receipts Disbursements Deficit. $605.047.230 $074.300.000 $60.422.300 605.000,000 700,000,000 605.000,000 865.600,000 430.000,000

In these statements, both the receipts and disbursements for the Panama Canal have been eliminated for obvious reasons, said Aldrich. It is the policy of Congress, which has, he said, universal approval, that payments for the canal and its construction should not be made from current revenues, but met by the sale of bonds.

How He Arrives at Figures.

These figures include all receipts and disbursements except those of the Post-office Department and the Panama Canal. office Department and the Panama Canal, but the postal deficits are included in all cases in the disbursements. The statement consists of the actual official figures of receipts and disbursements for the years 1900 to 1908, inclusive, and shows that in these years the act of 1897 (existing law) produced a surplus of $425,656,221, an average yearly surplus of $47,628,469.

Aldrich explained that he arrived at his estimates from data secured in conestimates from data secured in consultation with Treasury experts. He con-'If the pending bill should become a law before June 30 next, the customs revenues for the entire fiscal year of 1910 would be collected under its provis-ions, and the probable results constitute ions, and the probable results constitute the crucial point in our investigations. "For the purpose of ascertaining the relative revenue-producing qualities of the Senate bill and the act of 1897, the the Senate bill and the act of 1897, the committee on finance has had prepared a statement which is laid before the Senate today. It applies the rates of the Senate bill to the importations of 1907. We have selected 1907 for the comparison, as this was the last year in which the finances and business of the country were in a normal condition. normal condition

Will Yield More Revenue.

"The statement shows that if the Sen-"The statement shows that if the Senate bill had been in force in 1967, the customs revenue produced by it would have been $8,000,000 greater than those collected under the Dingley act, the total being $332,800,000 under the set of 1897 and $340,000,000 under the Senate bill.

"This increase of revenue is due to advances in rates on a few articles of luxury, such as wines, spirits, etc. It is also due to the substitution made in the bill, in all cases where it was possible, of specific for ad valorem duties. This will prevent undervaluation and consewill prevent undervaluation and consequently increased revenues.

"The changes we propose to make in the administrative act include:

"I. New definitions of dutiable value, and new methods in its proper ascertain-

More efficient collection machinery.
A provision for the creation of a stons in customs cases "The extent of undervaluation under existing law is variously estimated at from 10 to 25 per cent of the revenue collection. If any considerable portion of this practice is corrected by the provisions I have alluded to, we can safely add five millions to the estimate in 1910, making a total estimate of revenue for 1910 based upon the importation of 1907, $345.000,000. I have assumed that the importation of 1907 is the proper basis for extent of undervaluation unportation of 1907 is the proper basis for comparison. We should not lose sight of the fact that there will be approximately four millions of people more in the United States to be provided for in 1910 than in 1907, and if other conditions remain the same, there will be a natural increase from this cause. The committee believes that the extent of importations and resulting revenue will be greater in 1910 than in 1907 because of improved business conditions.

Surplus for 1911.

"For 1911 I have estimated an increase of revenue of $40,000,000 and a reduction of expenditures of $35,000,000, a consequent surplus of $30,000,000.
"If the statements I have submitted are approximately correct the submitted are approximately correct, the independent question arises: In what way is the treasury to take care of the deficits indicated for the present and the following fiscal year?"

"The treasury has today, including the 174,681,275.85, which it is entitled to receive for reimbursement of canal expenditures, practically $100,000,000 of available surplus for a working balance. This surplus is likely to be reduced $5,000,000 by June 20, by additions to the deficiency for the current fiscal year, leaving on that date an available surplus of $24,000,000. If my estimates for 1910 are accurate, the estimated deficiency of $45,000,000 in that year would still leave a surplus of $40,000,000 which would be increased in the subsequent years.

"I have assumed that canal bonds "I have assumed that canal bonds an be sold to an amount which will reimburse the treasury for all payments on account of the canal. Further legislation will, however, be necessary if this bill is to secure that result.

'The Controller of the Treasury has held that $60,000,000 of the amount paid is not reimbursable under the provisions of the avisting law Existing legis. is not reimbursable under the provi-sions of the existing law. Existing legis-lation only authorizes the issue of 2 per cent bonds, which must be sold at not less than par. These could only be purchased by or for National banks. It will therefore be necessary to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to sell bonds of a different class.

"Bonds redecmable at the pleasure of the Government after a few years could undoubtedly be sold at a rate not exceeding 3 per cent."

Daniels Attacks Bill.

At the conclusion of Aldrich's state-ment Daniel, the ranking minority leader of the finance committee, arraigned the Republican members of the committee for their exclusion of the Democratic members during the consideration of the bill.

At the conclusion of Danlel's re-marks, Aldrich sent to the clerk's desk a copy of a newspaper dated April 21, 1894, in which Senator Vorhees and Senator Vest had defended the Democentury vest had defended the Demo-cratic procedure in framing the Wil-son bill to be reported to the Senate without participation of the Republi-can minority.

Upon motion of Aldrich the bill was been made the unfinished business of

OVER SIXTY NEW NAMES PRO-POSED FOR MEMBERSHIP.

New Officers Elected and Plans for Race Meeting Discussed at Annual Meeting.

Plans for the annual automobile aces were discussed last night, when the Portland Automobile Club met in the convention hall of the Portland Commercial Club and elected officers for the coming year, besides proposing for membership over 60 names. E Henry Wemme was elected president to succeed R. D. Inman; J. M. Dickenson, of the Hotel Oregon, vice-president; W. F. Lipman was re-elected secretary, and Dr. C. B. Brown was elected treasurer urer.

A lively discussion occurred over the plans for the annual automobile races, some favoring holding the events during the Rose Festival in June, while others advocated postponing the meet until Fall. The road situation was brought up, a number of members being in favor of having an assessment levied on the club for the purpose of oiling the roads upon the proposed race route.

Amusements

Lillian Russell at Heilig Tonight. The attraction at the Heilig Tonight.

The attraction at the Heilig Theater.
Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight and tomorrow (Wednesday) nights, will be the famous American beauty and charming connedienne, Lillian Russell, and her spiendid supporting company. In her latest comedy success, "Wildfire." This is undoubtedly the best offering this brilliant artist has yet brought to the Pacific Coast. Seats are now selling.

Black Pattl at the Baker. Tim Owsley, one of the funniest colored comedians who ever made an sudience fairly howl with laughter, accompanies Black Patti at the Baker this week, and there are also many other chocolate colored singers, dencers and talkers with the organization that is creating all kinds of merriment at the Baker this week.

"The First Born" at Bungalow. One of the most unusual theatrical of-ferings of the present season is the Baker Stock Company's production of the cele-brated Chinese drama. The First Born," this week at the Bungalow. It deals with the strife between the Highblinder societies and the scenes are laid in old San Fran-ciaco's Chinatown. A terrific war sketch, "Sheridan's Ride," follows.

Good Production of "Sapho," Every one who saw Sunday's performances of "Sasho" by the Lyric Stock Company pronounced it one of the best pieces of work this season. The first act scene is a beautiful ballroom in which the ladies of the company wear some very beautiful sowns.

Laughter at Star Theater. In addition to a number of excellent features there is seen at each show this week at the Star Theater a comedy film called "A Policeman in Action." The lazy copper is caricatured famously and his ludicrous mishaps graphically set forth. While the picture is on the entire audience indulges in continuous merriment.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS. Classy Sketch at Orpheum. One of the classiest sketches seen in many a day is the one being presented at the Orpheum by Miss Angeles Dolores and company this week. It is a story of the wife that is wrapped up in her clubs to such an extent that she forgets her husband, child and home, but through a joke her husband plays on her, the home instinct is awakened.

Pantages New Bill. Rafayette's Acrobatic Dogs opened for a week's engagement at Pantages Theater yesterday to capacity business at all three performances. All the canines in the troup are uncommonly clever acrobats. There is a naturalness of manner about the animals' work which excites admiration as well as laughter.

Dresden Doll Girls. Girls who look like dresden dolls have the call at the Grand this week. This is a big girl act presented by May Ward, with Jesale Morris as the comedienne. Singing and dancing and dainty costumes make this one of the best feature acts. "Twixt Dawn and Daylight" is a playlet in three scenes, presented by V. L. Granville.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Seats Now Selling at Heilig. Seats are now selling at the Heilig Thea-ter, Fourteenth and Washington streats, for "The Mills of The Goda." ### OF TEXAS FOREVER And Other Acute Diseases a Tonic Is Often Needed to Tonic Is Often Needed to Restore Normal Health.

The evil effects that follow many diseases-particularly the grip, pneumonia and the wasting fevers, such as typhoid and malaria, are caused by the bad condition in which these diseases leave the blood. As a result the flesh continues to fall away, the sufferer grows nervous and irritable, and even slight exertion causes shortness of breath. These are dangerous symptoms and indicate that the system is in a state that invites bronchitis or even consumption. What is needed is a new supply of rich, red blood to carry health and strength to every part of the body. Such a specific has been found and in hundreds of cases has been found and in hundreds of cases it has been proved that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have accomplished this result. Mrs. L. Leisewring, of No. 610 Sixth avenue, Williamsport, Pa., says:

"When I was thirteen years old I had an attack of typhoid fever. I was sick for over three months and was left in a very weak condition. I continued with the doctor's medicine, which helped me the doctor's medicine, which helped me for a time, but it never made me entirely well. When I reached my eighteenth or nineteenth year, my health was very poor. My blood was so thin that my lips had no color and my ears were nearly transparent. I could not go all the way up stairs without sitting down and resting. My heart palpitated, I was chilly most of the time and wanted to be where it was warm. There was an annoying ringing sensation in my head. I was nervous, irritable, had no strength or ambition and was so weak that I was out of school for one whole term. The doctor and my friends thought I would go into consumption read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the papers and decided to try them. I had taken only a few boxes when I began to improve wonderfully. My color came back, the ringing sensa-tion stopped and I became stronger in every way. After a further trial I was entirely cured and was stronger and healthier than I had ever been. That I have never been in a run-down condition since, is due, I think, to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

These pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
