of Courts and International Arbitration. Particular reference was made to the Drago doctrine. Mr. Root contending that the submission to international tribunals implies no impeachment of sovereignty.

Mr. Root admitted that where there has been a denial of justice in National courts their decisions are not to be held conclusive and arbitration and other further action may be called for.

This was followed by a discussion of the topic, "Arbitration as a Judicial Remedy," among those taking part in the discussion being ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster, who dealt with English and American cases of arbitration, as did also Prof. E. W. Amar of the New York University Law School.

Wayne MacVeagh spoke on the hotel at the Hotel in matters of arbitration, while Senor Luis Anderson, late special envoy from Costa Rica to the United States, covered Latin-American cases.

President Taft, who is one of the vice-presidents of the society, will receive the members at the White House tomorrow afternoon and the conference will close with a banquet tomorrow night.

Mr. Foster declared there never was a good war or a bad peace. In conclusion he cited the immense cost of arbitration proceedings, indicating that the Bering Sea case had cost $200,000 and the Alaska boundary dispute $100,000. These indicated to his mind the difficulties which the smaller powers were confronted with in the submission of any case to arbitration.

HAINS MAY BE "EXHIBIT"

LAWYERS FOR DEFENSE THINK CAPTAIN WILL PROVE CASE.

Prisoner's Demeanor Believed by Them to Be Conclusive Evidence of Insanity.

FLUSHING, N. Y., April 23.—After five days' grinding work, resulting in securing only seven men in the jury box, the trial of Captain Hains, charged with the murder of William E. Annis, was adjourned until Monday.

Thus far 348 talesmen have been examined and a new panel of 150 has been drawn for Monday. The indications are that the trial will be finished without the appointment of a lunacy commission.

So convinced is John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for the defense, of his client's insanity that he announced to the jury that he would place Captain Hains on the stand to let the jurors judge for themselves the mental condition of the accused.

Notwithstanding the fact that Captain Hains has maintained a stolid indifference to the proceedings throughout the week, and has spoken to no one in court, not even his brother or other relatives, this opened their eyes to the fact that the new appointees must come from the existing civil service lists.

To get out of this dilemma, unofficial efforts were made with members of the Civil Service Commission to induce them to agree to orders for re-examination for every position in the gift of the administration under classification. But the Commission declined to do this, and the only other weapon at hand was an intimation to the members that, if they do not resign, they will be removed.

RECALL AGAIN THREATENED.

To remove the Commission would require the consent of five members of the Council, and threats of recall were made for Councilmen into line.

But if the removal of the administration recall of Mayor Alexander is threatened, the administration has made no appointment for the vacant positions and has declined to receive the resignation of Kerr, the only eligible for restaurant inspector, while waiting for the Mayor to reorganize the Civil Service Commission.

PROHIBITION GAIN IN FLORIDA

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 23.—Florida took a long step today toward state-wide prohibition, when the House, by a vote of 52 to 16, adopted the McMillen joint resolution providing for submission to a vote of the people of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture, sale, exchange or barter of all intoxicating liquors.

WOODMEN HONOR HEAD CONSUL.

Over 1000 members of the Woodmen of the World gathered in the hall of the Grand National Camp, No. 77, East Sixth and East Washington streets, to meet the head consul for the Pacific Coast jurisdiction who is visiting Portland.

While the reception given the head consul was under the direct charge of the National Camp practically 2000 members in the city and the surrounding were present. J. M. Woodworth, chairman of the committee of arrangements, presided.

Mr. Boak said that although the order had been in existence only 352 years it now embraces an army of 500,000 men devoted to its principles, and in the Pacific jurisdiction it numbers over 100,000.

He said that the order had paid to the widows of members over $11,000,000, besides many millions for relief.

Mr. Boak held the attention of the audience to the close of his fine address and received enthusiastic applause. Other short talks were made by local members.

LABOR UNIONS KEEP OUT OF PRIMARY.

Representatives of union labor, through their central body, the Central Labor Council, have resolved to refrain from committing themselves as the support of any of the candidates suggested for municipal offices until after the primary election has been held.

STROKE PLANNED BY RECALL MAYOR

Alexander Threatens Removal of Civil Service Commission.

IT BLOCKS POLITICAL PLANS

Unable to Appoint Henchmen to Office Under Commission's Rules, Los Angeles Mayor Tries to Drive Out Members.

RECALL AGAIN THREATENED.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 23.—(Special.)—The recall administration has undertaken the most daring political coup that ever tempted the bravest machine politician since the adoption of civil service by the city.

If the Mayor can do so, he will procure the resignations of or remove the entire Civil Service Commission. In the past 48 hours he has sent for members of that commission and made it plain to them that he wants the entire membership to resign.

Commission Fought Recall. D. H. Lauberheimer, one of the members, visited the Mayor Wednesday afternoon. Yesterday morning Dr. D. W. Edelman was closeted with him.

Milton J. Young, president of the commission, called today. The other members, W. O. Morton and George I. Cochran, declined to call.

It is admitted by the Mayor and his friends that the trouble is due to the active fight the Civil Service Board members made on the recall election by which Alexander was seated in the Mayor's chair.

The recall fight has been unable to pay political obligations to the supporters of the movement. The Civil Service Commission stands as a block against removals for political cause, and it is the plan of the recall bosses to get a new commission, that new appointees may be made.

BLOCKS PAYING POLITICAL DEBTS.

Fear of the commission has been the nightmare of the recall administration. Finding no places to give to the workers, the administrator sought to make removals, particularly of those who had offended the recall factor.

This opened their eyes to the fact that the new appointees must come from the existing civil service lists. To get out of this dilemma, unofficial efforts were made with members of the Civil Service Commission to induce them to agree to orders for re-examination for every position in the gift of the administration under classification.

But the Commission declined to do this, and the only other weapon at hand was an intimation to the members that, if they do not resign, they will be removed.
