ROOSEVELT BAGS HIS FIRST GAME

First Hunt in Africa Brings Success to Colonel and Kermit.

WILL VISIT OLD FRIEND

Sir Alfred Pease, Old Hunting Comrade, Will Entertain ex-President on Ranch-Can Keep in Touch

With World at All Times.

NAIROBI, British Africa, April 25.— After a brief hunting expedition isst evening at Khapita Plains Theodore Rooseveit and his party broke up and started for the ranch of Sir Alfred Pease on the Athi River today. Colonel Roosevelt spent part of Saturday sorting his kit, while Kermit and several of the men went to try their luck with their rifles. An old settler, who seemed to take a liking to Kermit, offered to show him a likely place for good sport. They succeeded in bringing down one buck.

First Hunt Success.

nel Roosevelt's first hunt was favored with fine weather and he enloyed the experience immensely. He bagged two wildebeestes and a Thompson's gazelle. Mr. Roosevelt was somesun's gazelle, as he had been saxious to secure a Grant's gazelle, the massive horns of which are much sought for trophies. The hunt lasted several hours.

Smallpox is prevalent in Nairobi, and Smallpox is prevalent in Nairebi, and two cases have developed among the porters at Khapita. These have been quarantined and the strictest precautions are being observed to prevent a spread of the disease among those attached to the Roosevelt party. The danger of this is now considered slight. Police Still Active.

The police still maintain their measures for protecting the Americans from annoyance. They will not permit any person except those designated by Colonel Roosevelt to go with the expedition.

The Roosevelt party will go to the home of Sir Alfred Fease, an old friend of Colonel Roosevelt with friend of Colonel Roosevelle, with whom he has hunted in America. Colonel Pease has a new house that is just finished on his ranch near Muchakos. 200 miles up the railway from Mombasa, and expects to entertain Colonel Roosevelt for several days before he leaves for the wilds of the interior.

Telegraph Wires Follow.

Mr. Roosevelt will have no difficulty in keeping in touch with the outer world anywhere in British East Africa, for telegraph wires cover the district in all directions and where the station is at some distance native runners are employed to take messages. At night the natives have a semaphore signal system by means of torches waved from hill-tops, which has been in use in the orient for thousands of years and is still reli-

It is Mr. Roosevelt's Intention of reach ing the source of the Nile about January 1, and then working downstream, with side trips after animals and birds, so as to come out at the mouth of the river by the first of next March, which will give him ten months in Africa. Mrs. Hoosevelt expects to meet her busband at Khartoum on the Nile and finish the journey with him.

Will Visit W. N. McMillan.

W. N. McMillan, who will entertain the members of the expedition at his ranch, after they leave Sir Aifred Pease's place, is, in virtue of his enterprise and his almost unlimited wealth, the most prominent and influential American in Affica, where he has lived for eight or nine years. His sister was married in 1997, at Manchester, Mass., to Sir John L. Harringion, British minister to the court of King Menelik of Abyssinia. Mr. Mc-Mills. Millan has accomplished important results in the domestication of native animals he domestication of native animals he has removed the hump from the native cattle by interbreeding them with Durham bulls from England. He has Durham bulls from England. He has also imported swine and mules from

His ranch has all the modern con veniences and all the comforts of home There are electric lights, telephones, an artificial lee plant, automobiles, planes, artificial ice plant, automobiles, planos, phonographs and all the other appurtenances of civilization. His hospitable house is a sort of hotel on the road to the great game fields. Situated more than a mile above sea level, the ranch enjoys an agreeable temperature throughout the year, although the equator is only a short distance away. The Spring rains, lasting six weeks, leave the air damp, but at other seasons the heat is dry, like that McMillan has traversed a great deal of the region which Mr. Roosevelt will visit. Four years ago he went through the country north of Uganda.

Mr. Roosevelt and his party will have the benefits of Mr. McMillan's experience, both in exploration and in hunting.

VISIT MANY COAST CITIES

Official Welcome of Government Will Be Given When Fleet Reaches San Francisco-Admiral Ijichi Expresses Friendly Sentiments.

LOS ANGELES, April 25.-For the first ime in ten years warships of Japan entered a Pacific Coast port of the United States when the cruisers Saya and Aso, comprising the Japanese training squadcommanded by Rear-Admiral H. ron, commanded by Rear-Admiral H. Ijichi, steamed into San Pedro at noon today. Not since the training ships entered the Bay of San Francisco a half-score years ago have war vessels flying the flag of the Rising Sun been sighted on the western shores of this country. The Aso and Soya dropped anchor at San Pedro, the harbor of Los Angeles, on a peaceful visit of some weeks' duration, which will take them to all of the principal ports of the Pacific Coast. The two ships comprising Admiral Ijichi's squadron are prizes of the Russo-Japanese War, The Aso is the former Russian cruiser Bayan, found in the harbor of Port Arthur after General Stoessel surrendered that fortress into the hands of the victorious Japanese.

The Soya was formerly the cruiser Variag, which was caught in the harbor of Chemuipo, 'Korea, just before the breaking out of the war, and sunk by the Japanese fleet.

Today these craft are comparatively modern warships, carrying heavy batteries and equipped with high-speed engines. Each has a single forward and afterturet, six-inch gun, a broadside battery of eight six-inch guns and 16 of three-inch caliber. They carry crews of 600 men, including 67 officers and 185 cadets of the Japanese navy.

The Aso is the flagship of Admiral Ijichi. He is a veteran of the war with Rusela, and commanded the battleship Mikasa, the flagship of Admiral Togo, which participated in all the principal battles of that war, and on which Admiral Rojestvensky was taken prisoner of war battles of that war, and on which Admiral Rojestvensky was taken prisoner of war after his defeat in the Sea of Japan. Going to All Coast Cities.

"We shall visit Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle and Victoria and possibly other ports," said the Admiral. "We must return to Japan by August 1, and our stay on the shores of the United States will be brief. We shall remain at San Pedro until Wednesday, and then go to San Francisco for a week or more, and then proceed north. We expect to be at Seattle at the opening of the Exposition. Personally, I can only express pleasure at the increased evidence of friendliness between the United States and my country. I have no doubt our visit here will be one of lasting pleasant remembrance for us. of lasting pleasant remembrance for us. We of Japan have great admiration for America, and I am glad of this oppor-tunity to return here for even so short a

The Admiral was not prepared to make any formal statement regarding the occa-sion of the visit of his ships, further than that it was a part of their regular cruise. He intimated when he had conferred with the Japanese officials of the Coast, who met him on board today, he might make a more extended statement. Welcome Reserved for San Francisco Although San Pedro was the first Amer

A feature of the arrival of the squadron was its reception by representatives of the 20,000 Japanese who live in Southern California. Hundreds of Japanese jour-neyed to San Pedro. Four steamers were chartered by them and laden with pas-sengers, both nations flags flying. A committee boarded the Aso and present-ed to Admirai Ijichi a printed address of welcome and congratulation used to welcome and congratulation upon his strawberries and other fruits were pre-sented to the officers and men.
