MAYOR HEYLMAN CALLED TO COURT

Estacada's Executive and Members of Council Summoned by McBride.

RECORDER'S SQUABBLE UP

City Authorities Must Explain Why Official Was Ousted From Office-Actions of Corporate

Body Are Stayed.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 26 .- (Special.)-Judge McBride, in the Circuit Court for Clackamas County, today issued a writ of review directed against Mayor Heylman and the five Councilmen of Estacada, ordering them to appear in Oregon City, Saturday, May 8. and explain their action in regard to their removal from office of A. N. Johnson, Recorder of the City of Estacada. The writ of review restrains the Mayor and Council from any further actions as a corporate body, and particularly in regard to expending the city's runds until the whole subject matter of the controversy can be reviewed by the Circuit Court.

Row of Long Standing.

In the little town of Estacada, in Eastern Clackamas County, there are two factions, one of them championed W. Reed, formerly Mayor, and the other by W. A. Heylman, who is now the executive head of the town, which is probably the smallest place in the country having two banking insti-tutions. At every election, and between times, too, each side has struggled for supremacy. When Reed was Mayor he supremacy. When Reed was Mayor he supremacy. When Reed was Mayor he was convicted of assisting to swear in tilegal voters at Sellwood and fined $1000. This did his cause no good. Last June the town went dry, largely through the instrumentality of the

At the city election in June, 1907, Heylman was elected Mayor and his ticket of candidates for Councilmen was success, ful. The Aldermen of Estacada are B. O. Boswell, C. F. Howe, J. F. Lovelace, William Dale and A. Havens. But A. N. Johnson, a Reed man, was chosen Recorder, and H. Cooper, another anti-N. Johnson, a Reed man, was chosen Recorder, and H. Cooper, another anti-Heylmanite, was elected Treasurer. Naturally, the municipality did not operate smoothly, and last Tuesday Johnson was requested to allow E. W. Bartlett, a lawyer of Estacada to take Bartlett, a lawyer of Estacada, to take the books and records of the office and check them over. Hardly were the books in the bands of Bartlett, so Johnson says, when he was served with a notice ordering him to appear at a Johnson says, when he was served with a notice ordering him to appear at a special meeting of the Council to be held the following day to answer to a number of charges.

Recorder Accused of Neglect.

It is stated that he failed to keep his It is stated that he falled to keep his records of the Council meetings in such a state of forwardness as is required; that he neglected to keep a correct, account of his receipts and took no receipts for moneys paid to the Treasurer; that he did not keep the records of the city's finances correctly, and that he failed in making proper reports to the Council, as required by the charter. It is also charged that Johncharter. It is also charged that John-son has kept the accounts of the books of the Treasurer, and that the condition of these records are also incom-plete and unsatisfactory.

Upon receipt of this thunderbolt, Johnson asked Bartlett for his books, Johnson asked Bartlett for his books, but, instead of granting his request, Mr. Bartlett turned over the records to Mayor Heylman, and at the Council meeting last Wednesday night Johnson's office was declared vacant, and Ed Bates was elected as his successor. Johnson and his attorney Alex Sweek Johnson and his attorney, Alex Sweek, of Portland, were at the meeting, but were denied a hearing, according to Johnson's statement.

Councilmen Called Into Court.

This afternoon Johnson filed in the Circuit Court a petition for a writ of review of the proceedings of the Council at last Wednesday's meeting, and upon the statements made in the petition Judge McBride ordered Mayor Heylman and the five Councilmen to appear in court on Saturday Meeting. appear in court on Saturday, May 8, with a full transcript of the work of the meeting. Johnson maintains that the city officials acted without jurisdiction, and that their proceedings are

HOSPITAL PLANS APPROVED

Sisters of Charity at Vancouver to Erect $70,000 Structure.

VANCOUVER, Wash., April 26.-(Sp cial.)—Plans for the new St. Joseph's Hos-pltal which is to be built by the Sisters of Charity of the House of Providence, in this city, have been accepted and approved and sent to Montreal. Canada, for the approval there of the mother provincial. The successful architects are Burndt & Tegen, of Portland. Specifications are now being drawn up.

The hospital will be erected on a double block bounded by Thirteenth, Reserve, Twelfth and E streets. It will face the south, so that at some time during the day each room in the building will get the benefit of the sunshine. The main structure will be five stories high and the wing will be four stories.

Construction work will begin about June 1, and it is expected to have the building ready for occupancy by the first of next year. The building will cost $70,000.

The first of today's three fires occurred at 2 A. M., in an old machine shop. It was extinguished without doing much damage. The second caused a $3000 loss by gutting the millinery store of Mrs. C. F. Chattin, recently of Portland, while the third destroyed a small barn.

DORA SAUVAGEOT RETURNS

Remains in Spokane, However, Until Klein Is Deported.

TACOMA, Wash., April 26.—(Special.)

Not until she had been informed that unless she returned to her home in Tacoma and dropped the fanatical belief given her by Joshua Klein, that Klein would be released from custody in the County Jail, did Miss Dora Sauvageot leave Klein's "radio-active" colony in the Swiss Alps. She has not returned to Tacoma, but is held by her mother and friends in Spokane until the Federal authorities have deported Klein.

Together with Rose Karasek, also a pretty young Tacoma girl whe was studying music in Vienna, Dora Sauvageot was lured to the colony at Amden, Switzerland, where Klein saturated the girls with his fanatical belief. Miss Karasek returned to Tacoma with her hrother following Klein's arrest, while Dora refused to return until Klein had written her he would be held prisoner until she returned.

Mother and daughter are now in Spokers.

Mother and daughter are now in Spo-kane with friends. Klein will be de-ported after Superior Judge Easterday has suspended sentence under an agree-ment with the immigration officials for his assault with a deadly weapon on the person of Miss Dora Culbertson, aunt of Miss Sauvageot.
