

CHANGE WELCOME IN WASHINGTON

Government Will Recognize New Sultan as Soon as Given Notice.

GOOD RELATIONS ASSURED

Mehmed Free From Suspicion of Corruption—Young Turkish Ad- ministration More Liberal With Americans.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Prompt recognition will be given to the new government of Turkey by the administration when official news of the new order of things reaches Washington. The officials depend entirely on the Associated Press dispatches today, as Ambassador Leishman is evidently awaiting the formal announcement of the selection of the new Sultan by the Turkish Foreign Office.

Speculation is rife as to what will happen under the reorganized government, it being recognized that in the present condition nobody can safely predict the outcome. The universal opinion is that, if the Young Turk party is equal to the trust imposed, a new era with bright prospects is in store for Turkey.

The opinion is expressed that with the new Sultan on the throne and with the Young Turks in full power, there will be a rehabilitation of the relations with the countries of the world, and opportunity offered for a more satisfactory treatment of the missionary question, which has been a troublesome one, due to the fanaticism of the followers of Islam, and on many occasions led to diplomatic representations to Turkey.

In many little things, which in the aggregate are considerable, the administration of the Young Turks has been satisfactory to the State Department. Annoyances affecting travelers in Turkey, irritating questions touching the Armenians and those of naturalization have disappeared and in other ways a more liberal application of the local and general laws has prevailed.

To American missionary interests in Turkey a new government there based on liberal constitutional lines is considered important and those of the newer element are men of modern views, educated in the universities of Europe and America and imbued with ideas far in advance of those held by Sultan Abdul Hamid.

ABDUL HAMID IS DEPOSED

the Bosphorus to Stamboul. He landed near the Sublime Porte and thence proceeded to Seraskerat in a closed carriage. A large detachment of cavalry acted as an escort, and carriages carrying his sons and sisters and suite followed.

New Sultan Takes Oath.

Ahmed Riza, the ex-president of the Chamber of Deputies, and General Sherket and his officers received Mehmed Rechan at the palace of the Young Turks. All kissed the Prince's hand. He was plainly dressed and appeared happy and radiant. He was ushered by the en-suite into the great hall, where he had assembled the representatives of the nation and state dignitaries, civil, military and ecclesiastical. The Prince expressed a wish to perform ablutions and say prayers.

The Prince solemnly subscribed to the oath, which was administered by the Sheikh-ul-Islam. A mollah prayed for the welfare of the new Sultan and the prosperity of the nation, and the assemblage responded "Amen."

The batteries boomed an announcement that a new ruler had been sworn into office, and all present congratulated Mehmed V, who immediately proceeded to the Top-Kapou Palace to receive the relics.

Returning to Dolma Bagtsche Palace, where he will take up his residence, the new Sultan was enthusiastically cheered by great crowds. Enver Bey, one of the prominent leaders of the Young Turks, who followed the procession, was recognized and received a tremendous ovation.

Mehmed's First Speech.

In receiving a deputation from the National Assembly subsequently, Mehmed said:

"I am pleased to become the first constitutional sovereign. Doubtless my successor will improve upon me, but you may rely upon my doing my best. I also have suffered oppression, and therefore enter into the feelings of my fellow-sufferers. Let us endeavor to work together for the welfare of the country."

When the Assembly deputation arrived at the Yildiz the fetva of the Sheikh-ul-Islam was handed to Enver Bey, first secretary, for communication to Abdul Hamid, who, in an inner apartment, was guarded by 15 men. Djevad Bey tried to gain admittance by knocking and, after this was continued for 15 minutes, the door was opened and Abdul Hamid appeared. He accepted the fetva without comment.

The deputation was then ushered into his presence and the spokesman said: "You no longer reign over us."

Abdul Hamid gave a deep sigh of relief on being informed that no designs were entertained against his life.

SULTAN MEETS FATE CALMLY

Though Reported as Being Terrorized, Confirmation is Lacking.

LONDON, April 27.—Dispatches from Constantinople give sensational accounts of the methods employed in the deposition of Abdul Hamid, who is represented as being in a state of abject terror. Some reports even say he is dead. None of these accounts has been confirmed, and it seems to be a fact that Abdul Hamid met his fate with courage and resignation.

A Belgrade dispatch to the Telegraph says that according to news from Macedonia the ominous movement among the Albanians is being confined to the district around Monastir. The demand for the enforcement of the Sheri laws.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Chronicle was received by Mehmed Rechan at the moment the National Assembly was meeting the fate of Abdul Hamid, and describes him as not unprepossessing, although his face has a haggard appearance.

The new Sultan bears a remarkable resemblance to his dethroned brother. His lips are thick and slightly protruding, he has the same curve and his hair is untouched with gray, but otherwise he shows signs of time's ravages. He wore a heavy frock coat and trousers of the cut fashionable 15 years ago. His physician acted as interpreter.

Protesting that it was premature to address him as "Your Majesty," the Prince said:

"I am glad to see you. You English have always been my friends. This moment is portentous to the whole Turkish nation. My enemies have slandered me. They said I was a madman, bordering on imbecility, and they shut me up for years. But Allah so willed it. Now in his merciful bounty that he has been pleased to call me to fulfill my destiny and rise over Islam, I wish to send a message to Europe and the entire world. I have ever been an ardent supporter of the cause of enlightenment, liberty and progress."

"Although shut up here for 32 years I have contrived, feebly perhaps, to keep in touch with the march of progress in the outside world. While faithful to the teaching of the Koran, I have been an advocate of constitutional charter and Parliamentary institutions. I am a firm supporter of the policy of Young Turkey. With the full enjoyment of political freedom, I see nothing incompatible with the Mohammedan sacred law."

SHEFKET PASHA SEEKS ORDER

Will Not Quarter Soldiers in Capital, He Declares.

BERLIN, April 27.—The correspondent at Constantinople of the Berliner Tageblatt telegraphs the following interview with Shekret Pasha, of the Constitutional army that entered Constantinople last Saturday:

"No soldiers will be left in the capital; only 500 Salonica guards remain there. Sixteen battalions of the Second and Third Army Corps will be quartered in the vicinity of Constantinople. Soldiers do not belong in the great city. The Taach Kisehia, Taxim and other large barracks will be razed and the ground sold for villa sites."

"My chief task is the restoration of order."

TROOPS CAPTURE OFFICERS

First Outbreak of Revolt Against Young Turkish Rule.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 27.—Fifty Turkish officers have been arrested at Erzeroum by their troops and dispatched under escort to Trebizond. The actual significance of this action is not clear, but it is feared it means the beginning of a revolt of the provincial troops against the Young Turk officers.

MONEY FOR TAFT TOUR

TAWNEY PROMISES TAFT THAT HE WILL GET FUNDS.

California Congressman Thinks No
Difficulty Will Be Met in Procuring Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Representative Tawney, chairman of the House committee on appropriations, talked with President Taft today on the latter's proposed trip to the West this Summer, and at the conclusion of the interview said he would produce a bill before the House appropriating $25,000 for the President's traveling expenses during the coming fiscal year.

Mr. Tawney said a false impression had gone abroad that he was opposed to such a measure. He said he did not know until today definitely that President Taft desired to go West in the Summer, and to take a run up to Alaska—one portion of the United States territory upon which Mr. Taft has not yet set foot. No President of the United States has ever visited Alaska in fact, and Mr. Taft is anxious to learn at first hand just what conditions are in that far northern territory.

Mr. Tawney said today he had no doubt that the measure he prepared would pass the House without objection. If unanimous consent could not be secured, however, the bill might be called up under a special rule. Already in the Senate several propositions to set aside $25,000 for the President's traveling expenses are pending, and no trouble is expected in getting the appropriation through that body.

FORTUNE IN OLD STOCK

man. "I once bought stock in an organization called the Bell Telephone company, and I have never been able to sell the stock."

Bought for $1500.

The information acquired in this manner was at length communicated to Mr. Harding, who promptly realized its value. He ascertained that the woman had purchased the stock at a total outlay of $25 per share, or $150 for the 60 shares, and later made her an offer to divide with her all profits arising through the sale of the stock.

Since this agreement, which is said to have been consummated six weeks ago, the stock certificates are believed to have been entrusted to the Crocker National Bank, to the First National Bank, both of this city, and to a financial institution of Boston, which is awaiting an order that will recompense Harding and his client to the extent of a fortune.
