Will Purify Capital.

The huge square inside the rallings of the War Office presented an unusual scene this afternoon. Thousands of soldiers of the late garrison were seated. soldiers of the late garrison were seated, cross-legged, in companies in a great memi-circle, while officers made the rounds and picked out those suspected of active compilety in the mutiny. The men, however, were cheerful. They chatted and smoked and appeared to bear their disgrace lightly.

ted and smoked and appeared to bear their disgrace lightly.

Mahmoud Scherket Pasha, commanding the forces, in an interview today intimated his intention to purify the capital of all subversive elements. He said he would have no halfway measures, but would thoroughly clear up the situation. For this purpose, the state of slege would be prolonged for about a month, but it would be relaxed in the European quarter very soon.

referring to the deportation of Abdul Hamid, General Schefket said this was necessary in the interest of future peace. Aliading to the report that the Albanians might attempt to rescue the ex-Sultan, the General said he was convinced that the Albanians would remain quiet.

New Sultan Accessible.

Mehemmed V was attending to his court duties today, receiving various officials Access to the palace is easy and the Sultan's conversation is familiar, the whole thing being in striking contrast n a plain and uncere conditions that prevailed at the Yildiz Palace. The absence of troops at the palace is marked and only a few picked men are on duty at the entrance.

Abdul Hamid Starved Out.

When the deputation arrived at the palace, the scene was one of desolation. The investing army had cut off the water, gas and electric supplies and had stopped the ingress of food, so that all the palace officials were suffering from hunger. fficials were suffering from hunger.
While waiting for the Sultan, the mem bers of the deputation carefully examined their hoisters and pistols and, according to Carassa, had Abdul Hamid shown an armed hand, he would have been shot instantly. After much delay the unwelcome visitors, surrounded by 20 black eunuchs. were ushered into the Sultan's apart-ment, where stood the Sultan's son, Prince Abdur Rahim.

Pleads for Life and Weeps.

Presently the Sultan entered in a bewildered manner. He was dressed some-what negligently, as though his clothes had been hastily donned, in civilian at-tire. His arms hung at his sides and his hands trembled. After a stient sa-lute, Essad Pasha pronounced in slow tones the decree of deposition, at which the Suitan shuddered.

Elaborate Church Wedding Will Be Held Thursday-Bride Is Given Many Costly and Beautiful Presents.

PARIS, April 28.-Dressed in a simple gown of blue voile and wearing a large black hat, Miss Muriel White, daughter of the American Ambassador to France, was married at noon today to Count Honmann Seherr-Thoss, an officer of the Royal Prussian Cuirassiers.

Royal Prussian Cuirassiers.

The simple civil ceremony was performed in person by Röger Alton, the Mayor. Only a few of the immediate members of the families of the bride and groom were present. Countess Seherr-Thoss, the groom's mother, was not present on account of ill health. The ceremony consisted of a recitation of the laws of the French government defining the the French government defining the of the French government defining the obligations of husband and wife and the subscription of the couple thereto. The Mayor then delivered a brief address, in which he expressed his good wishes for the pair, and referred to the distinguished career of the bride's father and the ties uniting France and the United States.

l'akes Advantage of China's Difficulties to Maintain Foothold and Threatens Her If She Insists on Rights.

VICTORIA, B. C. April 28.—News was brought by the Shinano Maru that Japan is preparing to enforce her hold on Manchuria. An agitation is under way for a c'stronger policy toward China." The Japanese Herald of Yokohama says the impression is gaining ground that Japan, taking advantage of the difficulties, diplomatic and domestic, confronting China's executive, is trying deliberately, but none domestic, confronting China's executive, is trying deliberately, but none the less reientlessly to force that country into a diplomatic quandary.
Japan, appreciating China's weakness in military, naval and financial matters, is prodding her into acquiescence in compacts derogatory to China's future welfare, and the present concessions will but whet Japan's appetite for more.

Will Not Withdraw Garrisons.

In the meantime China is reported to have demanded the withdrawal of Japan's garrisons and policemen along the Antung-Mukden Railway. Consul-General Kolke in Mukden refuses to entertain that demand, in view of article 6 of the Pekin convention, on the ground that the Antung-Mukden Railroad is a branch line of the South Manchurian branch line of the South Manchurian Railway. China does not acquiesce in the Consul-General's contention. This new difficulty may delay the construction of the Antung-Mukden line.

Commenting on the situation, a Japanese newspaper says:

Will Maintain Footbold.

Japan will maintain the footholds "Japan will maintain the footholds which she legitimately acquired in Manchuria. Japan will not necessarily feel aggrieved if the Manchuria question remains unsettled, but it will be extremely inadvisable for China. If China falls to resume the negotiations, Japan will pro-ceed with her enterprises in Manchurla according to her own control."
