BY W. J. PETRAIN Roy Willett, recently of the Colorado School of Mines, whom McCredie signed ast Winter, was given his first chance to twirl for the Portland team yesterday and he made good in splendid fashion. allowing the Oaklanders only four hits and beating them by an 8 to 1 score.

Besides pitching good ball, the young Collegian proved the undoing of the Oakland twirler. Maire, for his batting had considerable to do with the scoring of the first two clusters, of runs acquired by

"Chubby" Maire was the original easy mark for the McCredie swatters, and whenever one of the home guard failed to bang out a safety, the Oakland twirler contributed a burn heave or did the falling down stunt, so that runs resulted anyway. After the fourth inning it was only a question of how many runs Port-land would make all told, or how soon the home guard would get tired running the bases. With Maire in the box and "Midget" Breyette totally oblivious of his surroundings, as he was yesterday, Portland could win every game if those worthles were to be in the lineup each day. Both are good layers, but seem to have lost heart and are practically worthless to a team that is otherwise on edge all of the time.

First Runs in Second.

Portland hooked two runs, the first Portland hooked two runs, the first scores of the game, by chasing Speas and Johnson over in the second inning. The sirst named opened the inning with a rap to the right of Breyette, who knocked it down, but that is all. Johnson rapped a fast one to left, and Breen's sacrifice advanced both runners. Kennedy pelted a rafe one to right held, scoring Speas and sending Johnson to third. Kennedy stole second and Amphresia proceed. sending Johnson to third. with the only score the Commuters have secured in two games. In the fourth, the Portland bunch piled up four aces, cinching the game, and taking what little ginger was left out of the visitins players. Dick Breen opened by working Maire for a pass. Kennedy was out attempting to sacrifice, for his seffort was a pop fly to D. Lewis. Breen stole second and Armbruster was passed to first. Willett dumped one, which he beat to first and the sacks were loaded. Maire then contributed a wild heave, which scored Breen, the other two runners advancing. Ryan hit to Maire, who which scored Breen, the other two run-ners advancing. Ryan hit to Maire, who sat upon the grass in his effort to field the ball, and "Buster" scored. Willett was tossed out at the plate on Olson's tap was tossed out at the plate on Olson's tap to Brevette, but Ort beat out a bunt, and filled the bases. Speas likewise tapped to the infield, Ryan scoring and the others being safe. Johnson rapped a sharp single to right field, on which Olson registered, but Ort, who hesitated at third, was caught at the plate on Murphy's fine throw to Carl Lewis. This inning added four runs to the other two, swelling Portland's total to a half dozen.

Maire Makes Bum Leave.

Willett disposed of the visitors in order the fifth and sixth, but in Portland's Willett disposed of the visitors in order in the fifth and sixth, but in Portland's half of the latter chapter, one more run resulted. Byan's drive went through Duffy Lewis' legs and Olson singled to left. Both men advanced on Ort's sacrifice, and Maire handed out another run for Ryan with his second wild pitch. A pass to Lewis and Murphy's infield tap put two Oaklanders on in the seventh, and only one man was iced away, which made things look shaky for Willett, but the youngster railled spendidly and Mc-Cay and Van Haltren, both dangerous batemen, popped flies to Willett and batsmen, popped flies to Willett and pass to Ryan, Olson's sacrifice, Ort's out and another error gave Buddy a chance to score his third run of the game. This was the last run, although Willett passed Carl Lewis as the first man up in the ninth, and Christian, who man up in the ninth, and Christian, who batted for Maire, sacrificed neatly. Murphy's rap to Willett caught Lewis between second and third, and McCay's out tween second and third, and McCay's out ended the game. Manager McCredie announces he will

Garibaldi holds the distinction of lift-ing the ball over the far boards by eight feet, a terrific drive. Cooney, at short, was the fielding feature. He killed al-most certain runs by sensational pick-ups and line throws and made a seem-ingly impossible double play. But Spo-kane was entitled to win on base-running alone. After having the game practically won and then to lose out by a score of 7 to 5 was the misfortune of the Lincoln High and then to lose out by a score of 7 to 5 was the misfortune of the Lincoln High School yesterday afternoon in a game played with Portland Academy on the Multnomah Athletic field. Through the errors of the Portland Academy boys and by their own good batting the Lincoln High School had the game won up to the last half of the eighth inning by the score of 5 to 1. It looked like a clinch, and the crowd began to climb down and out of the grand stand to go home. They had started to the entrance when, Crack! and a ball went out into the field for a hit. The leaving spectators paused. The next man up was given free transportation and then the next. The next batter up sent a little hit to center field and two runs were scored. The P. A. nine began to find every ball after that, that went over the plate and the rooters for the side began to swarm on the field and went wild with Joy. Thompson's strength was gone and he was replaced. Before the slaughter was stopped Portland Academy had run up six tailies. Lincoln had another chance to get even, but the first three men were out before they reached first base. The kane was entitled to win on base-running alone.

Fired with ambition by the exhibition Portland gave yesterday, the Indians purloined second, made double steals and tied the score by Brown's steal of the plate in the eighth inning. They were boosted along by the generosity of Frary, whose decisions were against Portland at critical points and did not appear at all fair, viewed from the stand.

Portland's runners, when they got on, seemed to be tied to the bases, possibly because Jensen, who relieved Brinker in the fourth, watched the sacks like a hawk Brinker did not like the cold weather and simply could not get going. He filled the bases by walking two and hitting one in the second and got himself in a hole in the third. Guyn, pitching for Portland, was none too steady and gave his teammates unnecessary and gave his teammates unnecessary work because of that weakness.

The weather was bitterly cold, a feafhery snow falling at intervals. The score:

UNEVEN SCORE BUT GOOD GAME

Seattle Beats Tacoma in Close Contest, 6 to 2.

At a meeting of the Alumni Association of the Christian Brothers' College, to be held Friday night, plans for the entertainment of the crack baseball team of St. Mary's College on its coming visit will be discussed.

The famous team of the Christian Brothers' College, at Oakland, is coming North to play a series of games at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, and while en route will play several games in Portland, one of which will be an exhibition game in June. It will also play the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club and Columbia University, while it is probable a game with the University of Oregon will be arranged for Eugene or some Valley town. This college has turned out many of the star baseball players of the country and the team representing it this year has several crack players who are likely to go into fast company next year. SEATTLE, April 28.—Although Seattle won from Tacoma by a score of 6 to 2, the figures do not give any idea of the real closeness of the battle or the brilliant playing. Seattle was not safe until hits by Shea. Raymond and Bennett put over three in the eighth. Rush did not allow a hit or run for four innings, and held Tacoma to three singles for the entire game. Seattle hit Butler steadily, but had much difficulty getting runs over. Score: SEATTLE, April 28.-Although Se-SEATTLE
