HALL CASE IS UP

Motion for New Trial Taken Under Advisement.

SENTENCES ARE IMPOSED

Clarence B. Zachary and H. H. Hendricks Dealt Out Fines and Jail Sentence, W. W. Stelwer Escapes With Fine.

Motion for a new trial in the case of John H. Hall, ex-United States District Attorney, convicted of conspiracy, was heard by United States Judge Hunt in the, Federal Court yesterday, and was taken under advisement. Judge Hunt is ex-pected to pass on the motion some time today before he leaves for San Francisco. Three of the convicted land-fraud de-fendants who either had been convicted or had pleaded guilty to indictments re-turned under Heney were yesterday sen-tenced by June Hunt. They were: W. W.

Zachary Pays His Fines.

Under an Indictment returned April 8 1906. Zachary had been convicted August 17, 1906, on a charge of perjury. With Hendricks and Steiwer, he pleaded guilty Hendricks and Stelwer, he pleaded guilty to a subsequent indictment, in which he was charged, jointly with Hall et al., with conspiracy. On the perjury charge, Zachary was sentenced to serve 30 days in the Multnomah County Jail and to pay a fine of $100. On the conspiracy charge he received a fine of $50. During the afternoon he paid into the United States Court the aggregate of the two fines, $150, and began serving his sentence.

Ex-Senator Stelwer escaped with a fine of $3500 for the alleged conspiracy with which he was associated with Hall and to which he pleaded guilty and became a witness for the Government. He paid the amount of his fine to Circuit Court Clerk Marsh during the afternoon.

Marsh during the afternoon.

Announcing that be had conferred with Heney. Mr. Becker moved a postponement in pronouncing sentences against George Sorenson, who was convicted with

F. P. Mays and Willard N Jones, on an celebrated "11-7" case. It is presumed that Sorenson and Tarpley will be used as witnesses for the Government in the trial of Binger Hermann, which is sched-uled to be taken up this Fall.

Mays Indictment Dismissed.

A formal motion also was entered dismissing the conspiracy indictment as to F. P. Mays, who had been indicted together with Hail, Stelwer et al., on the conspiracy charge. At the trial of the Hall case, Hency promised to have this indictment dismissed as to Mays, in order that the latter might testify for the constant of the constant of

Board of Trade Will Probably Be Abandoned.

DIRECTORS SEE NO HOPE

After Debts Are Paid, New Commercial Exchange May Be Organized in Which Many Lines of Business Will Unite.

Preliminary steps toward finally closing up the affairs of the Portland Board of Trade were taken at a meeting of the directors last night.

While the board will continue to do business for the next few days, it is now assured that it will be abandoned so soon as the debts are liquiduted so that the members may be free to enter into the new commercials ex-change, the formation of which is now senced by June Hunt. They were: W. W. Stelwer, ex-State Senator and president of the Butte Creek Land, Livestock & Lumber Company; H. H. Hendricks, ex-United States Commissioner and secretary of the Butte Creek Company, and Clarence B. Zachary, manager for the same company.

On a perjury charge, Hendricks received a sentence of E months' imprisonment al McNelll's Island and was fined $600. In the conspiracy case, a fine of how was imposed. Hendricks furnished a hond for his appearance on the order of the court, pending the time that he can consult with his counsel, Judge A. S.

Hall case, Hency promised to have this indictment dismissed as to Mays, in order the fluctment dismissed as to that there had been errors of judgment in the management of the Board there was no disposition shown to criticise anyone connected therewith.

Connected therewith.

The work of raising the $2000 necessary to pay the debts will be begun at once and the amount will be promated among those who have been associated in the enterprise. The payment of the indebtedness is considered essential before the Board is abandoned as an active institution.

Several of the directors and Secretary Several of the directors and Secretary Fred Muller presented their resignations last night, but the Board declined to accept any of them until the indebtedness has been liquidated. Mr. Muller desires to withdraw from that line of work to engage in other business and it was agreed that his resignation would be accepted as soon as the affairs of the Board are adjusted.

President F. E. Beach and Director W. R. Bagot, after the adjournment of the meeting, which was executive in character, expressed the conviction that a strong new organization would be the outcome of the present difficulties. The new exchange, it is planned, will embrace all lines of business, the most active part being taken by representa-tives of the grain interests, shipping, lum-bering, banks, insurance, creameries and general produce.

Firm Will Repair Bridge.

The City Executive Board, yesterday afternoon, adopted a committee report, accepting a proposition from the Northwest Bridge Woras to repair defects in the East Twenty-eighth street reinforced concrete bridge across Sullivan's Gulch. The span had been rejected because of faulty workmanship and omissions from the specifications, but these matters will all be made good under the latest action of the Board.
