ARMORY (Tenth and Couch streets—Second Annual Musical Festival. Chicago Symphony Orchestra-Portland Festival Chorus. This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, "Sanctus." Tonight, 8:30, "The Golden Legend."

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Sunday school convention of the Portland district of the Free Methodist Church was held yesterday in the First Free Methodist Church, East Ninth and East Mill streets. Exercises for the day were opened at 10 A. M., in charge of Rev. D. M. Cathey, conference Sunday school secretary. The following was the general programme: "The Importance of Co-operative Effort in Sunday School Work," F. S. Schultz, five-minute talks—"The Place the Sunday School Fills in the Moral Training of the Child," Mrs. Minnie Hyde; "Duty of the Sunday School Teacher to the Child," William Randall; "Necessity of the Child Committing the Scripture," W. J. Johnson; "At What Age Should a Child Be Brought Into the Sunday School; At What Age Barred?" J. F. Lewis; "How to Use the Sunday School Helps," S. G. Roper; "Necessity of the Cradle Roll," D. M. Cathey. Sunday workers were present at the convention from all portions of the district.

HOLD LAST DISTRICT CONFERENCE.—The last district quarterly conference for the present year will be held today at the First Free Methodist Church, East Ninth and East Mill streets, beginning at 10 A. M. Rev. W. N. Coffee, district elder, will be in charge. In the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Women's Foreign Missionary Society will hold its meeting. Mrs. Hattie Wrange, president, will preside. Tomorrow at 10:30 o'clock quarterly conference services will be held and at 3:30 o'clock the Women's Foreign Missionary Society will hold services. These services are preliminary to the annual Oregon conference which will meet in this church May 26. Bishop Walter A. Sellow will preside at the conference.

WALLACE MCCAMENT TO SPEAK.—Arrangements have been completed for the union meeting of the three East Side parishes, St. Francis, St. Stephen's and Sacred Heart, next Tuesday night, May 4, in the hall of St. Stephen's Parish, on East Taylor and East Forty-fourth streets, for the lecture by Wallace McCamant on "Irish Land Reform." Hennessy Murphy will preside and introduce the speaker. Some of the prominent Irishmen of the city will be on the platform. St. Stephen's Orchestra, the Oregon Quartet and the Sacred Heart Chorister Society will give a number of selections. Mr. McCamant has given the subject much study. The address will begin at 8 o'clock.

PORTLAND WOMAN SAFE.—Portland friends of Miss Emily Richter were relieved to hear that the disorders in and around the city of Hadjin, in Adana Province, Turkey, have been suppressed and that the safety of the missionaries in that district has been assured. Miss Richter formerly lived in Chicago and with other women was sent to Turkey last September by the American Board of Foreign Missions. Several thousand Armenian refugees gathered at Hadjin when the Moslem hordes began their work of slaughter and devastation and the lives of Miss Richter and the other missionaries were thus endangered.

MAY ARRANGE CLEAN-UP DAY.—The United East Side Push Clubs yesterday received an invitation to hold a meeting in Central East Portland about the middle of May, from C. A. Bigelow, president of the East Side Business Men's Club. Time and place of meeting will be fixed later. Addresses will be delivered on the new charter to be voted on at the June election, the Rose Festival and other topics. One of the objects of this meeting will be to fix a day for a general cleaning-up all over the East Side. All civic clubs are invited to come to this meeting.

W. C. BRISTOL TO SPEAK.—"Government as It Is and as It Ought to Be," is the subject of an address to be delivered by W. C. Bristol, ex-United States District Attorney, at the People's Forum tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Mr. Bristol is a deep student of social economics and his address will be very interesting. The meeting will be at the Selling-Hirsch building. Everybody invited.

EASTERN STAR PLANS PROGRAMME.—The members of Corinthian Chapter, No. 54, Oregon Eastern Star, are arranging for a literary and musical entertainment to be given at Masonic Temple, next Tuesday evening, May 4. All members of the Oregon Eastern Star and their friends are cordially invited to attend. Refreshments will be sold.

"THEY THAT GO DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS," sermon by William Hiram Foulkes, pastor First Presbyterian Church, corner Alder and Twelfth, at 7:30 P. M. Sunday, in a special sailors' service, with appropriate music by a seaman's trio; 10:30 A. M., "Into the Highways and Hedges." *

COMPLETING PASSENGER DEPOT.—The passenger depot for the Southern Pacific on East First, between East Morrison and East Alder streets, is being completed. It will probably be ready for use of the public by the middle of May. The walls are of concrete blocks.

SAVE THE DISCOUNT.—Send check or pay at office on or before the 10th to save the discount on May bills for the Automatic Telephone. Home phone your long-distance calls to Tacoma, Seattle and way points. Home Telephone Company, corner of Park and Burnside streets. *

WILL HOLD ALL-DAY MEETING.—Evening Star Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, will hold an all-day meeting today in its hall on the Section Line road, in South Mount Tabor. It will be the last meeting of the Grange before the State Grange meets.

GRACE CHURCH, Twelfth and Taylor—Dr. Cudlipp will speak on "The Young Man and His Chum," in the evening. Quartet choir morning and evening, and male chorus of 50 voices in evening. Professor Wilder, organist and choirmaster. *

DISOBEYS AND IS WHIPPED.—Failure of M. M. Clemenger, a real estate agent, to take advantage of three minutes allowed him by Felix Fruhof in which to leave the latter's office in the Abington building, resulted in a severe drubbing for Clemenger yesterday forenoon and later in the arrest of Fruhof. Clemenger went into Fruhof's office to call for a letter he had been informed was awaiting him there, as he formerly worked for Fruhof. Fruhof ordered him out. Clemenger paid no attention and Fruhof gave him three minutes in which to leave and at the end of that time attacked him. Clemenger came out second best in the encounter but he told the police, later, that Fruhof utilized a chair as well as both hands and both feet. His assailant was held for trial under $100 bail.

RILEY BECOMES SERGEANT

Promoted When Sergeant Baty Is Made Captain.

Policeman Harry Riley was promoted to the position of sergeant yesterday afternoon by the City Executive Board, to fill a vacancy made by advancing Harry Riley, Who Becomes Sergeant in Police Department.

Detective Sergeant Baty to captain. These appointments have been expected for some time.

Captain Baty has been a member of the police department for more than six years, serving as patrolman, patrol-sergeant and detective-sergeant. He has been in charge of the secret service branch for nearly two years.

Sergeant Riley has been in the police service of the city for four years, as a patrolman. He is a popular and well-known officer, and has had similar experience in San Francisco and other places. He has been crossing officer at Third and Morrison streets for a long time, and has also served as sergeant-at-arms in the Council chamber for the past 18 months, always with perfect satisfaction to his superior officers.

ELMAN IS VIOLIN MARVEL

Greatest Masterpieces Easily Played by Famous Russian Boy.

Mischa Elman, the Russian artist, works miracles of violin art, and when he was the soloist recently, for the Thomas Orchestra in Chicago he played the Tschaikowski concerto with so little trouble over its stupendous difficulties that it was almost staggering to his audience of musical enthusiasts. The Evening Post said of him:

"Elman is a violinist by the gift of the gods. He has learned in this, his youth, things which veterans are battling for in vain. He has acquired a mastery over the mechanical difficulties of the instrument that is, in its completeness, almost unbelievable. But Elman has gone further than the pyrotechny of his art. Such ravishing tone as he puts forth has not been heard in many years from others of his craft. That art so amazing should have evoked the maddest enthusiasm from his hearers was only natural."

Elman plays at the Heilig Theater on Monday eening, May 10, under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman, who will fill mail orders if sent with check to 308 Columbia building.

MRS. JACOBS SELLS SHARE

Interest in Valuable Marquam Corner Changes Hands.

The interest of Mrs. Adolph Jacobs in the deal for the southwest corner of Sixth and Alder streets, negotiated with the Ladd Estate Company by Ben Selling, has been acquired by other investors. C. S. Moore, ex-Treasurer of Oregon, and M. Blum, of San Francisco, have taken over the Jacobs interest.

Mr. Selling said yesterday that, from preliminary estimates furnished, the building is to cost the associates between $300,000 and $350,000, but that nothing definitely has been decided as to the height of the structure. It has been decided, however, to build a steel interior building and make it a strictly Class A building.

PRINCE RUPERT, B. C.

The first auction sale of Prince Rupert lots has been announced, and will take place in Vancouver, B. C., on May 25 to 29.

Prince Rupert is a wonderful city. It is the terminus of a great railway, and will be laid out from the start as a real metropolis—solid and substantial. There can be no doubt of the enormous fortunes to be made there, but reliable information as to lots and values is very essential to the prospective purchaser.

Mr. Murdoff, of the well-known Vancouver real estate firm of Williams & Murdoff, Ltd., is at present in Prince Rupert. This firm has been appointed official appraiser of lots in the townsite by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Co., and as Mr. Murdoff will personally inspect every lot in the new city, he is quite competent to give full information to interested investors, or to act as agent for outside parties in making purchases. For maps and full particulars, write Williams & Murdoff, Ltd., 508 Hastings St. W., Vancouver, B. C.

ROCKPILE TO SAVE LIFE

NEW PRESCRIPTION BY CITY PHYSICIAN ZEIGLER.

Fresh Air and Exercise Expected to Cure Would-be Suicide's Determination.

Morris Schmitz, of 205 Grant street, will be sent to the Multnomah County rockpile to save his life. Schmitz is determined to kill himself. He drank chloroform Wednesday night and was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital, where his life was saved. He is convalescing, but he declares his purpose to commit suicide is unshaken and that he is determined to take his life as soon as discharged from the hospital.

City Physician Ziegler is equally determined that Schmitz shall continue living. After a talk with the fellow yesterday, he found that Schmitz could not be dissuaded from his intention and so proceeded to arrange to have Schmitz restrained from committing suicide until his present morbidness shall pass away. Believing that fresh air, plenty of exercise and wholesome living would accomplish that end, Dr. Ziegler called on Municipal Judge Van Zante during the day and made arrangements for Schmitz' removal to the rockpile. Schmitz is but 25 years old, in vigorous physical condition and has no good reason for wanting to die, except the melancholy viewpoint he has cultivated. His stomach is yet badly ulcerated from the poison he drank Wednesday night.

"You needn't think I can be kept from dying," he told Dr. Ziegler. "I will find a way. Life, it means nothing. I do not want to live, and so I will not. What is there in living, anyway. It's nothing but sorrow and disappointment, and in death I can forget all and find rest. It was not my fault I failed the other time. The next time I will succeed."

Schmitz will be taken to the rockpile this week and will be kept at work there under surveillance until he sees the folly and weakness of his conduct. Beside getting the advantage of wholesome living and hard work there, the authorities argue that he will be so overjoyed at regaining his liberty as to view life as something worth living, after all. In order to make his commitment regular, a charge of attempting suicide will be lodged against him.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gill and Miss Elsa Gill returned to Portland Wednesday after a three months' trip to the Hawaiian Islands.

J. C. Bracher left yesterday on a business trip East. He will stop in Chicago, Pittsburg and New York, and will be gone about two months.

Ellery Sedgwick, editor of the Atlantic Monthly, is in Portland for the purpose of familiarizing himself with conditions in the Northwest. Mr. Sedgwick registered at the Portland and expressed himself as being well pleased with the city.

R. Caughey, of 382 East Couch street, has received word that his brother, Dr. John Lyon Caughey, pastor of the Harlem Presbyterian Church, New York City, will visit Portland during the Rose Festival. Dr. Caughey has many friends in Portland and it is possible that he may fill the pulpit in one of the local churches while here.

Rev. W. O. Forbes, of this city, who for nearly eight years has been doing missionary work for the Presbyterian Church in Central Washington and Idaho, has been called to superintend the home and Sunday school missionary work of the city and Presbytery of Seattle. Dr. Forbes was in the city yesterday en route to Lewiston, Idaho, and thence to Vollmer, Idaho, in the Nez Perces Indian Reservation, where he will organize a church next Sunday.
