

WHEAT UP SHARPLY

July Closes at $1.16 and May at $1.28.

BULL CAMPAIGN NOT DEAD

Patten's Firm Sells May Moderately and Buys July Heavily—Market Has Been Advancing Steadily During the Past Week.

CHICAGO, May 4.—July wheat, on the Board of Trade today, made a sensational bullish showing, advancing from $1.12, the low price of the day, to $1.16, at which the market closed. This marked a net advance of 5/8c. May closed at $1.28.

The market has been advancing steadily for the last week, following the spectacular decline which set off reports that James A. Patten had dropped out of the market. Today's high prices were but 1/4 under the best price of the bull campaign for May, and only 2 1/2 below the July record.

Earliest, Patten & Co., of which Bull Leader James A. Patten is member, were credited today with selling May on a moderate scale, but with making heavy purchases of July.

Today's advance, on top of the gradual gains of last week, are said to indicate clearly that the bull campaign, which was alleged in many quarters to be dead, was only sleeping.

The closing figures today were 10 cents higher than the bottom reached on April 27 last. Mr. Patten is still absent on his partner's New Mexico ranch.

DOG SHOW OPENS TODAY

ANNUAL EVENT WILL BE HELD AT FIRST AND WASHINGTON.

Portland Kennel Club Has Splendid Lot of Animals for Four-Day Exhibit.

BY W. J. PETRAIN. Today marks the opening of the Spring season, when the boys and girls come into their own, and canines of all descriptions, sizes, colors and dispositions will hold forth for four days at the northeast corner of First and Washington streets.

The Portland Kennel Club has prepared elaborately for this, the 10th annual dog show, and the handsome catalogue issued by the club contains the name and pedigree of over 250 specimens to be displayed before the judges.

Portland dog fanciers have waxed enthusiastic over kennel shows of the past, and many of these shows have lived up to expectations, but a glance through the exhibition room for the new show, over the Portland public market, yesterday, indicates that this year's show is to beat all previous ones by a large margin.

The many splendid dogs on hand, a large number of them coming from all parts of the Pacific Coast, should bring credit to the Portland fanciers who have worked hard for the success of the exhibit.

The Portland breeders who have made their kennels known in the past are about to have their desire for keener competition gratified, for the number of out-of-town entries is expected to be greater this year than ever before.

G. S. Halliwell, of San Francisco, one of the best-known breeders and handlers on the Pacific Coast, has a number of his own dogs here, and is acting in the capacity of handler for several other prominent breeders. Mr. Halliwell takes especial pride in boasting of his Irish terrier, Champion Endcliffe Curate, which has beaten every other dog on the Coast and has taken many prizes at Eastern competitions.

Champion Endcliffe Curate won at Vancouver, B. C., and also at Tacoma, and the owner expects a similar result at Portland. In addition to his own string, Mr. Halliwell is handling several other high-class entries.

A Balfour's famous field spaniel, Inckler Billy and Inckler Boss, two handsome animals which have won repeatedly, are being handled by Mr. Halliwell. This handler also has Miss Alice Wilson's Russian wolfhound Tybo, Miss Wilson resides at San Francisco and Mr. Halliwell has shown the dog at the Northwestern shows, where he has taken several prizes.

Robert A. M. Yachter, of Rutherford, is the owner of the prize bull terrier, Trebor's Reuben, which won the prize for being the best in the Vancouver show and will be a formidable competitor here. This dog, as well as a wire-haired fox terrier, Leading Chance, belonging to H. Burns, of Vancouver, is being handled by G. S. Halliwell.

Thomas S. Griffith, the owner of the Glen Tana kennels, near Spokane, will not attend the Portland show this year, but his famous breed of collies will be represented by a pair of these handsome dogs. Mr. Griffith has arranged with Halliwell to show his Glen Tana Mountain Minstrel and Glen Tana Little Vera at the Portland show, and also at the coming California benching.

The bull terriers of Frank E. Watkins will be represented by several entries of his dogs and their get. This handsome breed is to have competition from several points this year, but Mr. Watkins is confident his kennels will be represented in the winning classes.

Major J. M. Yachter, of Rutherford, N. J., and John Bradshaw, of San Francisco, are the judges of the Portland show, and they will commence the work of picking out the best dogs and passing out the different colored ribbons this afternoon. The large list of entries means that the judges will have to work fast in order to complete their task in the time limit, and all owners of dogs entered are requested to have the dogs in their kennels promptly on time today.

Mount Angel College Games.

Mount Angel College baseball team defeated the Oregon City High School in a one-sided game played at Mount Angel Saturday. The score was Mount Angel College 11, Oregon City 1. The features of the game were the pitching of Burns, of Mount Angel, who allowed but two hits and struck out eight men; and the batting of Devereaux, of the college team, who landed five hits out of six times at bat. It was announced by reporters that the college boys were victorious over the first team in the last game of their series. The fact was that the senior team won the game and the series.

Sunday, Mount Angel college second team won a game from the Silverton High School team by a score of 6 to 3. The game went to the college boys on
