When I approached she arose and began switching me in the face with vegetables that she carried in her apron. To say I was astonished is putting it mildly. I had some nothing to invite the strack, and escaped as quickly as I could, without offering to "retaliate I think my neighbors in Montavilla will testify to the mildness of my disposition. ### FRANCHISE TO BE SCANNED

Voters of Peninsula Will Meet on Monday Night.

Until a late hour Monday night, the street railway franchise recently passed by the Council, was under discussion by the North Albina Pusii Club, and at the end no definite conclusion was reached, although the sentiment of the meeting seemed favorable to the franchise and against the proposed referendum. It was decided to call a mass meeting of the citizens of the Peninsula next Monday night, May 10, when there will be full discussion. Councilman W. T. Vaughn will undertake to show that the franchise is a fair one and that the interests of the city are amply protected by its provisions. Promoters of the referendum on the franchise are invited to be represented at this mass meeting. A band has ed at this mars meeting. A band has been engaged to provide music.

At the meeting Monday night Councilman Vaughn was present and defended his vote in favor of the franchise. In the course of his talk he declared that if anycourse of his talk he declared that if anyone could convince him that he voted wrong he would admit his mistake, but he said he was convinced, after careful examination of the terms of the franchise, that on the whole the interests of the city were reasonably protected. H. G. Parrons and Mr. Junker represented the referendum and combatted the position of Councilman Vaughn and insisted the rights of the city are not properly protected under the terms of the franchise. protected under the terms of the fran-

J. H. Noita declared that to hold up the franchise and prevent the construction of the line to the Swift packing plant and Monarch iumber mill would cause irreparable damage to the city, and possibly drive the Swifts away from Portland. As the franchise question is uppermost in interest on the Peninsula, a big meeting will likely be held next Monday night and some hot speeches made. A committee on hall and other necessary arrangements was appointed. However, it may be decided to hold an open-air meeting on Killingsworth avenue if the weather will permit, as there is no large hall in that part of the city.

A committee from the Peninsula Development League, headed by J. H. Noita, held a conference with the Union Labor leaders and tried to persuade them to drop the referendum, but they did not succeed. J. H. Nolta declared that to hold up

Police Believe Circus Follower Is a Clever Swindler.

Harry Wallace, a young man who ravels around behind the circus and lives by demonstrating that old gambling adage, "the hand is quicker than the eye," came to grief yesterday afternoon while attempting to do Peter Kirkes out of $10. Wallace likely will solourn in Portland indefinitely as a result of his materials.

Wallace entered Kirkes' place at 4515 Sixth street North and asked for change for a 10 gold piece. Kirkes dealt it out. Wallace laid down the gold coin, picked Will. He didn't see how Wallace got it, but he did see it was gone. He hurried after the quick-handed man and later pointed him out to Detectives Coleman and Price. Wallace was seen to have long, pliable fingers, remarkably adapted to such work. He is believed to be a clever swindler and circus follower. Incidentally he is a morphine fiend. James Farley, a young man who joined him soon after the Kirkes touch, was also arrested, both men being charged with vagrancy. with vagrancy.

SEEK TO PARDON MELDRUM

Clackamas County Officials Ask for His Release.

Nearly all the officals of Clackamas County, former residence of Henry Mel-drum, now incarcerated in the United States Penitentiary at McNell's Island, have signed a petition for his pardon which has been transmitted to District Attorney John McCourt by the Depart-ment of Justice.

ment of Justice.

Meldrum was convicted of forging false applications for the zurvey of public lands in Harney County, while he was Surveyor General of Oregon. He was sentenced in 190s to serve 1089 days in prison and to pay a fine of $5250 but as the result of appeals and applications for a new trial did not begin to serve his sentence until May 18, 190. He has therefore served about 725 days of his sentence. is sentence.

In the petition for pardon it is asserted that the sentence imposed is excessive in comparison with the sentences imposed on other persons convicted of land frauds in Oregon and it is also pointed out that Meidrum is the only one indicted for such an offense who has actually suffered imprisonment. His former neighbors tentify to having had business relations with him preceding his conviction and to having found him honest in them all.
