

ABBOTT'S STORY OF BRIBE MONEY

United Railroads Attorney Witness Against Calhoun His Chief.

CALHOUN ORDERED DRAFT

Honey and Moore Call Each Other Scoundrels and Wilson Makes Spirited Reply When Lawyer Charges Falsehood.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—The prosecution advanced another step today in presenting its case against Patrick Calhoun, charged with bribery of Supervisors in connection with the streetcar trolley franchise, by placing William M. Abbott, general attorney of the United Railroads, on the stand to tell of having taken from the mint in May, 1909, $50,000 in currency, the money which the prosecution expects to show was presented to the Supervisors.

Tracing Bribe Money. Abbott went over the ground he had covered in previous trials, saying that he went to the mint, then the general banking place of the city, in company with Tully L. Ford, then general counsel for the company. On the presentation of telegraphic orders from Mr. Calhoun, sent from Cleveland, Ohio, the money was done up in two packages and the two attorneys bore it to the United Railroads office, where it was placed on a table. Abbott said he had no knowledge of what became of the money after it was taken in July, 1906, he went with Ford to the mint and helped carry away $100,000 in the same way. Of the final disposal of this sum he was ignorant.

Moore at It Again. An outbreak of personalities between F. J. Honey and A. A. Moore occurred when the latter objected to the form of a question addressed to Andrew M. Wilson by Assistant District Attorney O'Garra.

"I do not believe the court should permit this witness to put a different interpretation on his testimony under the guise of an explanation," said Mr. Moore. "It puts a premium on scoundrelism."

"The court should put a stop to this," said Mr. Honey, rising from his seat. "It is not proper for the witness to make such references. It is done for the purpose of influencing the jury, and it has occurred before. The American Bar Association calls this practice by a name that would not sound very well."

"I would probably fit you, however," retorted Mr. Moore. "I resent any imputation that I have been guilty of pettifoggery or chicanery or anything of that kind."

"That is exactly what you are doing," declared Mr. Honey, angrily, "and any attorney who puts a witness on the stand and then engages in such tactics is a scoundrel."

"That applies to no one on this side," remarked Mr. Moore. "We have put no witness on the stand in any of these cases. Otherwise my meaning would be more clear."

Judge Lawlor expressed his displeasure at the conduct of the attorneys and later, when re-direct examination of Wilson was resumed, he ordered Stanley Moore, for the defense, to interrupt him in rendering a decision.

Promised All Equal Share. Wilson had told of the renting of a house in Golden Gate avenue, where the Schmitts Board of Supervisors held caucuses and discussed informally the features of municipal legislation.

"Was the trolley ever discussed there?" asked Mr. Moore.

"I think the trolley was the basis for a conversation when Ruff was present. Supervisor Nicholas told Ruff he had heard that I was getting up an inside combination in the board and asked Ruff if the members were not to be treated alike. Ruff told Nicholas that there would be no inside combinations and that we would all be treated alike."

"This, as was subsequently established, was the first time Wilson had ever described such a meeting to the interrogator continued to ask why witness had never told of it before, until Mr. Honey assured the defense that he had never heard of the matter until he had any of his colleagues in the prosecution.

"Is it not a fact that you made this story out of whole cloth in order to curry favor with the prosecution and secure punishment on the indictments pending against you?" asked Mr. Moore.

"Displaying more impudence than had previously characterized his replies, and shaking his finger at his questioner, Wilson said:

possibly may recover, although her advanced age makes this doubtful. Rome.—A report has been circulated here to the effect that the Duke of Abruzzi has met with a serious accident while climbing the ascent of the Himalaya range in India, the highest mountains in the world. No particulars have been obtainable. New Orleans.—Tizore Ferrara, an Italian contractor and inventor and said to be a member of the Italian secret society, the Pope at Rome, was arrested here Tuesday night in his home on telegraphic orders from the Chief of Police at Rome, Va. He is charged with being an ambassador to the extent of $10,000. San Francisco.—The United States Army transport Sheridan sailed Wednesday for the Philippines with 1,200 men, including their families, the Seventh Infantry Regiment, 140 soldiers, company of engineers, corps, and 100 marines. The Seventh Regiment will relieve the Twenty-sixth Infantry, now stationed at Manila. Detroit.—Robert Barrows, a painter, is dead. Michael Burkhart is under arrest charged with murder and Mrs. Barrows is under detention as a witness, as a result of the sensational shooting which occurred on Sunday night in the rear of 143 Lafayette avenue, where Mrs. Barrows was employed as housekeeper. Burkhart, when arrested, at home later in the night, admitted, according to the police, that he had shot Barrows. New York.—On learning that her 7-year-old son, Arthur Carpenter, had been run down by an automobile Tuesday night, Margaret Carpenter returned to her home in Sixth avenue, where she was waiting for a suicide by hanging herself from a chandelier, when her aged mother intervened. A few minutes later she was seen sobbing frantically, rushed from her apartment and disappeared. Arthur, an athletic player, Mrs. Carpenter was found at the home of a neighbor Wednesday.

HAVE 12 DAYS TO PLEAD

LOTAN, REINSTEIN AND BRESLAUER ARE ARRAIGNED.

Alleged Mutilators of Excise Petition Stand Up to Listen to Long Indictment.

"You gentlemen will stand up, please. I guess you can stand up if I can." These words were addressed to Sam Lotan, M. Reinstein and Samuel Breslau by Deputy District Attorney Page yesterday afternoon while they were being arraigned before Presiding Judge Bronaugh in connection with the charge of forgery, for having, it is alleged, mutilated the petition calling for an excise board, on file at the City Hall. Attorney Harrison Allen, representing Mr. Lotan, had informed the court that he would waive the reading of the indictment, and the attorneys for the brewery men had made like statements, mentioning the length of the document and the time that would be consumed in reading it. But the court ordered it read, notwithstanding their statements. Then the three, who had been standing, took their seats to hear it, along with the small audience. The deputy read the first two or three pages, but wearying of the long list of names and addresses, omitted a large number of them and read the closing paragraph, which he handed each attorney a copy of the indictment. The court was then requested to allow the defendants 12 days in which to enter their pleas because the indictment was such a bulky affair. They will plead May 17.

POLICE CHIEF HOLDS JAIL

Deposed Official Barricades Self in Prison.

CHICAGO, May 5.—With doors and windows barricaded and with large stores of food and water in preparation to withstand a long siege, Captain A. K. Walker, alleged deposed chief of police, holds possession of the city jail of Zion City. Chief Walker asserts he was reappointed marshal by W. Hurd Clendinning, the Volva Mayor. John F. Jany, a former policeman, was appointed by the Independent Mayor, E. N. Richey. Both Mayors claim to have been elected at the recent municipal election, and that the appointments made by them are legal. Consequently there are now two chiefs of police and two city jails and two police stations. The Volva faction holds possession of the city hall and the city jail, while the Independents hold the administration building, where a temporary city hall has been established besides holding the cash of the city and all Council and other records and the votes cast in the recent election. So far no arrests have been made by either chief of police. Each declares that should his rival make an arrest, he will demand the prisoner's release.

GRAFTERS ARE SENTENCED

PITTSBURG, May 5.—Sentences were imposed today on seven persons convicted within the last few weeks in the municipal graft cases, as follows: W. W. Ramsey, former National Bank president, convicted of bribery, one year and six months' imprisonment and a fine of $1,000. Captain John F. Klein, Councilman, two years and a fine of $1,000 on bribery conviction and one year and six months on the conspiracy conviction. Joseph C. Wasson and William Brand, former Councilmen, each one year and six months and a fine of $500, for conspiracy. H. Bolger, hotelkeeper, two years and a fine of $500 for bribery. Charles Colbert and John Colbert, convicted of attempting to bribe a jury in the Ramsey case, two years and a fine of $500 each. Former Bank Cashier A. A. Vitsack was not sentenced today.

RENO, TOO, IS REFORMED

Gambling and Saloon Interests Lose in City Election.

RENO, Nev., May 5.—The Municipal or Clean Government League won a great victory over the gambling and saloon interests at the city election here yesterday by electing three out of four councilmen, and thus securing control of the City Council for the coming two years. The Independents elected a City Clerk and Police Judge, while the Liberal ticket elected a Mayor and one Councilman. The fight was extremely close and exciting. A. M. Britt, the brewer, being elected Mayor over Walter Harris, the Municipal League candidate, by a scant 113 votes. One Councilman was elected by but six votes. No party fight was manifest, but rather the election was a contest of the factions, who will try to elect George H. Kilburn over George S. Nixon, the incumbent, United States Senator from Nevada in 1910.

Suffrage Bickering Forces Her Out.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 5.—Mrs. E. M. Rindger, wife of a Seattle physician and an ardent suffrage advocate, has resigned from a committee of the Washington Equal Suffrage Association which had to do with arrangements for the state convention to be held here during the exposition. Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils. The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a faint finder. A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness. Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY. It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle. The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound.
