

RUSHLIGHT PLAYS AT DOUBLE GAME

Problem Is to Carry Reform Vote and Keep Saloon Support, Always His in Past.

NORTH END HIS TERRITORY

When Running for Assessor, Present Majority Aspirant Was Strong in Liquor Precincts, but Weak in Home Districts.

If Mr. Rushlight, candidate for Mayor, can hold his big saloon vote which he received last year for County Assessor, and add to it a large reform, anti-liquor vote, he thinks he may be nominated at the Republican primaries tomorrow. But as a friend of saloons, nominated and elected by them to the Council on their "red" ticket, and as their defender against box ordinances and "women in saloons" ordinances, Mr. Rushlight finds the double game rather difficult.

Last year Mr. Rushlight was the North End's candidate for Assessor. He carried the First Ward in that part of the city against Sigler by 65 votes in the nominating primaries. The big saloon precincts in the Second Ward were his also, precinct 5, with 38 saloons, precinct 6, with five saloons, and precinct 7 with seven saloons. Precincts in that ward containing no saloons, returned big majorities against him. Only one saloon precinct in that ward failed him—number 4, by a narrow margin of seven votes. All over the city, strong saloon precincts were either carried by Mr. Rushlight or lost by him by small majorities. The biggest saloon precinct, number 11, in the Third Ward, containing 42 saloons, he lost by only one vote. Precinct 16, 34 saloons, in the same ward, he failed to carry by 12 votes. Precinct 24, 18 saloons, in the Fourth Ward, he lost by 11 votes.

In Albina Mr. Rushlight received the same liquor support. Precinct 74, containing 12 saloons, was his and the neighboring precinct 72, with two saloons. In his own ward, the seventh, the biggest saloon precinct, returned him his heaviest majority, precinct 45, with seven saloons.

Contrasted with this strength in liquor territory, was Mr. Rushlight's weakness in residence and dry areas. The records show that he carried only one residence precinct on the West Side, precinct 28 in the Fourth Ward. Of the eight city precincts which Mr. Rushlight carried on the East Side, only three were free from saloons, numbers 45 and 48, in his own ward. Residence precincts, alongside the saloon precincts, which cast a majority of their votes for him, returned majorities against him on both sides of the river.

Mr. Rushlight reciprocated the saloon men's favor six months later in the Council when he strove to defeat the ordinance which shuts women out of bars. He reciprocated again, when he strove to amend that ordinance, so as to admit women into "eating places" saloons. Still, again, he reciprocated when he helped defeat the Wills ordinance, which would have forbidden breweries to own and run saloons in the names of dummies. Fully one-third of the 426 saloons in Portland today are owned by the breweries and managed by figureheads.

The problem with Mr. Rushlight is how to corral the reform vote and the liquor vote together in tomorrow's primaries. In private business he is a saloon landlord and a brewery plumber. He has been steadfastly true in politics to his liquor friends, and they are expected to give him their votes tomorrow.

Washington Insurance Commissioner, However, Will Leave All to His Attorney.

While the legislative investigating committee of Washington is waiting according to press dispatches either for a definite decision from J. H. Schively, Insurance Commissioner of that state, whether he will resign or appear before the committee for further examination, Mr. Schively is in Portland for the purpose of conferring with his attorney, George C. Israel.

Mr. Schively last night declined to discuss his affairs except in the presence of his attorney, and the two were to have held a further conference last night but Mr. Israel was detained by other business and the matter went over until today.

"I shall be guided wholly by the advice of Mr. Israel in my future course of action," said Mr. Schively last night, "although it is my own inclination to stay in the fight. There has been a thing crooked in the administration of the office of Insurance Commissioner. One of the last things Mr. Israel said to me was that he had not yet given the matter of my resignation due consideration."

"I have not been notified to appear again before the investigating committee, but nevertheless informed them that I was called out of town by business. I received a telegram in Seattle yesterday to meet Mr. Israel in Portland and arrived here this morning."

Mr. Schively's attorney, George C. Israel, has several English buildings in the Portland Bench Show and is here looking after them. Mr. Schively and Mr. Israel expect to leave for Olympia today.

OFFICIAL PROBE IS DELAYED

Legislative Committee May Make Visit to Medical Lake.

OLYMPIA, Wash., May 6.—(Special.)—Owing to the illness of J. H. Schively, who was reported to be in Portland, and to the doubt when he will return, the Legislative investigation committee adjourned today without taking testimony. It will resume sessions here Wednesday next.

It is announced that the committee will send some of its members to Medical Lake to investigate charges made by Senator Hutchinson of Spokane, during the last session that the Board of Control was lax in the construction of one of the new buildings at the Eastern Washington Hospital for the Insane at that place.

BREAKS ANKLE BY FALL

Merl Winters Drops From Second-Story Window of Home.

Merl Winters, the 17-year-old daughter of S. Winters, leader of the orchestra at the Grand Theater, who lives at 144 Porter street, is in the hospital with a broken ankle as the result of a serious accident last night. The girl fell out of a second-story window, a distance of about 12 feet and was unable to walk into the house.

At the time Miss Winters fell she was leaning out the window and became giddy, losing her balance. Friends assisted her into the house and she was later conveyed to the hospital in the Red Cross ambulance where Dr. Erickson placed the injured ankle under the X-rays and set the broken bones.

RAILROADS TO FIGHT BILL

Object to Borah's Demand for Full Crews on All Freight Trains.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 2.—Senator Borah's bill to compel railroad companies properly to man their trains introduced a few days ago, will not receive consideration during the special session, but it has been referred to the committee on education and labor, and it will therefore be reported early in the regular session next December.

The probabilities are that this committee will favorably report the bill, but indications are that a demand will be made

BUYERS ARE KNOWN

Fred A. Jacobs One of Purchasers of Big Orchard.

COMPANY WILL BE FORMED

Dr. W. F. Howe, of Seattle, and F. W. Powers, of Salem, Also Interested in Deal for Lowsdale Apple Acreage.

When the announcement was made a few days ago that the Lowsdale orchard in Yamhill County had been sold the names of the purchasers were not made public. It is now known that three of these are Dr. W. F. Howe, of Seattle, a director in the Seattle Trustee Company, F. W. Powers, of Salem, and Fred A. Jacobs, of the Jacobs-Stein Company. Two other local business men are interested in the transaction but their names are withheld for the present.

At a meeting to be held in a few days a corporation to be known as the Lowsdale Orchard Company will be organized. Mr. Lowsdale has been named as president of the new company and has consented to serve. The orchard will therefore be managed as heretofore. Under this arrangement it is stipulated that Mr. Lowsdale is to have all the assistance he requires in managing the enterprise.

At the next meeting of the purchasers details regarding the issue of bonds will be considered. It is the intention to put these on sale as soon as possible. The bondholders will receive six per cent and 75 per cent of the surplus, the other 25 per cent to be devoted to the operation and maintenance of the orchard.

LOT SELLS FOR $26,000

Louis Gerlinger Closes Deal on Second Between Yamhill and Taylor.

Louis Gerlinger yesterday consummated the purchase of a lot on the west side of Second street, between Yamhill and Taylor, at a consideration of about $26,000. The lot is 33 1/2x100 feet and was owned by W. L. Starr, M. L. Pipes and others. Mr. Gerlinger said last night that the two-story brick building now on the lot may be remodeled or, after plans are submitted, he may build a more modern structure, the dimensions of which will depend upon offers to lease the premises. The lot is platted as part of lot 3, block 22, city.

George Quinn Arrested After Beating Waiters in Restaurant.

George Quinn, a workman employed on the annex to the Hotel Oregon, was arrested last night in the Pekin Restaurant, Sixth and Stark streets, for refusing to pay his bill and assaulting the attendants of the place. Quinn accompanied by a friend ate a late supper there and when the waiter presented his bill which amounted to $1.50 Quinn became infuriated and refused to pay but 50 cents.

Frank Okey and Edward Chin, employees of the place, endeavored to pacify him and they received blows in the face. Patrolman Small and Jailer Burke were

OPERATION

HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from a female weakness and disease, and I could not stand more than a minute at a time. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. One day I was reading how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it. Before I had taken one bottle I was better, and now I am completely cured."—LENA V. HENRY, Route No. 8, Adrian, Ga.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.

RIVERWOOD MOVES RAPIDLY

Country Home Sites Are Being Taken Up South of Portland.

Riverwood, the extension of Riverdale drive beyond South Portland, is rapidly becoming one of the attractive tracts for country homes of the wealthier residents of Portland. Chapin & Herlow report recent sales to W. A. T. Bushong, C. C. Smith, Bishop Scadding, George Wentworth, Jr., L. A. Kline and Wells Gilbert. The pieces range from one to one and one-tenth acres, at prices ranging from $6000 to $7500. There are only four pieces left of the platted tract, H. J. Corbett retaining quite a large piece for his own residence site.

The same realty firm reports the sale of the southeast corner of East Second and East Taylor from W. T. Muir to Missy Simons at a consideration of $16,000.

SUSPECT HELD FOR ROBBERY

William A. Smith, who lives on a spot at the foot of Everett street, was arrested by the police last night and is suspected of having robbed some Portland grocery store. In Smith's possession when arrested was a large sack filled with assorted canned goods. This sack was seen by employees of the gas plant as he was passing and they notified the police. Smith was also found to be well provided with morphine and cocaine and held on a charge of having these drugs in his possession.

Costs More to Make Than Other Whiskies

W. H. McBrayer's 1847 Cedar Brook 1909 Bottled in Bond

The annual whiskey production of Kentucky is about 30,000,000 gallons, consisting of good, bad and indifferent whiskies—principally indifferent. By indifferent, we mean whiskies used for making so-called "blends" and concoctions, and usually sold by unscrupulous dealers as "fine Kentucky whiskies." The cost of raw materials in using the original formula of 62 years ago, prohibits the dealer from handling it for cheapening purposes. Cedar Brook is allowed to remain 8 years in wood before being bottled in bond, which makes it renowned as the best whiskey Kentucky produces. The Cedar Brook Distillery is in Anderson County—heart of the Blue Grass region—home of fine whiskey. Cedar Brook is sold wherever good liquor is sold.

It is much warmer in Southern Idaho, Northern Nevada, and Northern Utah, while elsewhere on the Pacific Slope the changes in temperature have been small and unimportant. The indications are for fair weather in this district Friday, with higher temperatures in Western Oregon and in Western and Northwestern Washington.
