

MRS. BOYLE LIVES UNMARRIED JURORS

Takes Prominent Part in Selecting Men Who Are to Try Her Case.

JAMES BOYLE CONVICTED

Offers No Defense and Jury Is Out Only Few Minutes—Whittia Picks Out Kidnapers, Tells Story of His Abduction.

MERCER, Pa., May 6.—James Boyle, charged with having kidnaped "Billy" Whittia, was convicted today after a trial lasting a few hours. No defense was made and the jury was out only a few minutes.

Mrs. Boyle was placed immediately on trial, charged with having aided in the kidnaping. Hardly had the jury been sworn in the woman's case when the lawyers became engaged in an arguing contest regarding the admission of certain testimony, and the case was adjourned until tomorrow.

Mrs. Boyle took a prominent part in the selection of her jury, prompting her attorneys in numerous cases and showing a preference for young, unmarried jurors. The penalty awaiting Boyle is from one year to a life sentence in the penitentiary.

Boy Picks Out Kidnaper.

"Billy" Whittia, as the witness stand today in the trial of his alleged abductor. He pointed his finger at the defendant as the latter sat in a prisoner's box, and said, with a positiveness that could not be doubted:

"That is the man." Hundreds crowded the trial building, serving for a temporary courtroom, when court convened this morning, and the doors were besieged to get into the possible disaster from overcrowding. James Boyle entered a formal plea of not guilty, the jury was sworn and the opening address to the jury was made by T. C. Cookran, in charge of the prosecution.

"Billy" Whittia was the first witness, and before he sworn, caused a ripple of laughter when he answered the question as to where boys go who do not tell the truth, by saying:

"They go to hell," he was told. "In his boyish way he told the story of the man who said his name was Mr. Jones, calling for him with a buggy at the school, and telling him he had been sent to take him away, on account of smallpox, that he was to take others, also, and that 'Billy' would meet his friends on the train."

Tells Story of His Abduction.

"Billy" said "Mr. Jones" gave him a letter and asked him to write his mother's name and address on it, that he did so, with a pencil, and the man mailed it in a box. When asked to describe the difference in the man's appearance then and now, "Billy" said that when he first saw the man "his whiskers were long, and he pointed to his upper lip. He said the man took the whiskers off after awhile. He told of the drive to Warren, the subsequent trip to Warren, the arrival of a visiting car at Ashabula and standing beside a cannon. Then he said he was taken to Cleveland, where he had been in a hospital. It contained, he said, two rooms and a bath. He told of hiding in the bottom of the buggy and in the box under the wheels, and in the hospital, lest the doctors would see him and put him in a pesthouse. He said Mr. and Mrs. Jones directed him to do so.

Boy's Father Testifies.

Numerous witnesses at the morning session testified to having seen Boyle and the kidnaped boy in each other's company. Mr. Whittia, the father, told of the abduction, and the three letters he received demanding ransom, which he complied with on all the conditions imposed.

Mrs. B. A. Hendrickson, with whom the package containing $10,000 was left in the Cleveland store, identified Boyle as the man who secured the package from her.

paring for a general strike to "destroy capitalism." The suppression of this organization has frequently been contemplated by the French government.

Fortunately, a considerable proportion of the postal employees have had their eyes opened to the revolutionary venture on which the militants propose to embark and have broken away. There are enough loyal servants to form a nucleus to fight a general strike, which is tonight considered a matter of hours.

Whirlwind Will Be Loose.

The government, which claims to be prepared for any eventuality, it is conceded, must now act vigorously or abdicate. The leaders of the movement have no option but to declare a strike at the minute the government makes a hostile turn. The entire country is tremendously excited by the violent agitation to which it has been subjected for months, and fears are entertained that a whirlwind will be unleashed.

There are even intimations that the monarchists and other reactionaries are furnishing funds to stir up a revolution in the hope of imposing a new regime. No level-headed observer, however, seriously thinks the republic is in danger.

Employees of the Central postoffice voted in favor of the principle of a general strike at a meeting tonight, at which the speakers were for the most part suspended or dismissed postal employees.

Will Never Recognize Union.

M. Sinyan, under secretary of postal and telegraphs, made the following statement tonight:

"I declare in my own name and the name of the government that, were the syndicate formed today a thousand times as powerful as it will ever be, we will never recognize its existence, never recognize its delegates or members at present connected with it."

He said the law was very clear and that the new syndicate did not comply with its conditions. The Attorney-General, therefore, would obey a decree before the Seine tribunal dissolving the syndicate. If it persisted in holding meetings, its officers would be prosecuted under the law of association of 1861.

The government's preparations for the strike were completed ten days ago, when 20 confidential messengers were dispatched with secret instructions to the prefect of every department in France.

building plunged head foremost to the floor below, a distance of over 15 feet. So far were the people leaning out over the balcony that when the railing gave way practically every one in the balcony in that vicinity was swept overboard. Both city police patrols and every available ambulance in the city, together with scores of private automobiles and scores of physicians, hurried to the scene. A squad of police clubbed their way into the crowd and made way for people to assist the injured to the waiting ambulances and automobiles, which hurried them to the hospitals.

Mayor Seeks Culpability.

Mayor John F. Miller, prosecuting Attorney Vandever and Postmaster George F. Russell and many other city, county and Federal officials were present when the accident occurred. Mayor Miller declared that someone will be held responsible for the accident. He declared that the city administration will not let an unheeded accident in a public building that will be used as a great deal.

Adjutant-General Lamping, in a statement tonight, declared that the Armory, although occupied by militia, has not been formally accepted. The contractors stated that the building was constructed in accordance with the specifications and should be considered sufficiently strong to withstand all strain. F. W. Grant, Superintendent of Buildings, stated that the building was constructed in accordance with the city building ordinance.

Portland Runner Hurt.

E. R. Crabbe, of Portland, who won second place in the Marathon race, was slightly injured on the head, and a mere cut, and he was able, after recovering from the severe strain and the accident to help others in more serious condition.

TRACING CALHOUN

Good Progress With Bribery Trial in Showing Payment of Bribes.

MAY IDENTIFY CURRENCY

Argument May Be Reached Before Week Ends—Henyey Tries to Show Plot to Drive Away Oregon as Witness.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Good progress was made today in the trial of Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, nine witnesses for the prosecution having undergone examination. It is the expectation of those familiar with the trial that arguments will be presented that argue will be reached before the end of next week.

The evidence presented today related to the money alleged to have been paid to Ruef by T. H. Ford, general counsel for the railroad company, acting as the agent for Calhoun.

Tracing Money to Grifters.

From the testimony of William M. Abbott, general attorney for the company, who went with Ford to the mint in 1906 and helped to carry $50,000 in small currency, drawn by telegraphic order of Calhoun, to Ford's office, to that of L. A. Rea, ex-supervisor and a member of the board alleged to have received the money for its votes, the prosecution worked its way step by step.

Rea, one of the four members of that board who have not been accused of selling their votes and over whom no indictment or immunity contract is held, told of having received $500 from Ruef's steward, Sittenfeld, in connection with a business deal entirely outside the graft cases. This payment was made June 2, 1906, and according to the statement of Assistant District Attorney Henyey, the people expect to prove that the bills given Rea were part of the $50,000 drawn from the mint by Ford.

Cannot Fix Date of Bribery.

Toward the close of the day three employees of Ford's office were called in and Ford's office by Ruef in 1907, it being the statement of the prosecution that it was on this occasion that the money was paid to him. None of the three could fix the date of the visit within several months, nor say whether or not Ruef had been Ford on that occasion.

Another wrangle between the lawyers occurred when Mr. Henyey, in examining Abbott, asked whether he ever paid a bribe to either Brown or Rogers, obtained for Calhoun by detectives. Being unable to state the purpose of this line of inquiry, Mr. Henyey stated that the prosecution hoped to show that a conspiracy had been entered into by certain of Mr. Calhoun's attorneys, including Sam Simon, of Fleischner, Mayer & Co., who has been spending the winter in New York, has returned to Portland.

Adolph K. Jacobs, of 373 West Park street, who has been indicted for bribery by falling from his horse, is much improved and will be able to be about in a few days.

Mrs. George B. Collins, wife of the Councilman, was taken yesterday to the Good Samaritan Hospital for an operation. While Mrs. Collins' condition is not thought to be serious, friends are very anxious.

Mrs. Phil Mettschan returned to Portland yesterday after an absence of nearly two years. Accompanied by Mr. Mettschan, she returned about the first of the year from an 18 months' tour of Europe. Mrs. Mettschan has been charged with adultery with her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Lorentzen, at Winnemucca, Nev., and with other relatives at San Rafael, Cal. Temporarily Mr. and Mrs. Mettschan will reside at the Imperial Hotel.

Captain James H. McMillan, a pioneer of the Indian War veterans, arrived in Portland yesterday morning from Coehoon and is visiting at the home of Rev. C. G. Love, 127 Millard avenue, on the Mount Scott campus. Captain McMillan is 86 years old and is so badly crippled with rheumatism he is able to walk only a short distance, and with great difficulty. He would be pleased to see any friends who may call on him. He resided at the Imperial Hotel on the East Side, near the Steel bridge.

PROSECUTION TELLS STORY OF KIDNAPING OF FREMONT OLDER.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—A jury having been secured yesterday, the actual trial of Attorney Luther Brown, charged with kidnaping Fremont Older, managing editor of the Bulletin, began today before Judge Mahon, sitting in Judge Brown's department of the Superior Court. The opening statement for the prosecution was made by Assistant District Attorney William Cook, who outlined the story of the alleged crime on September 25, 1908.

In answer to a message stating that he was wanted on business, Older went to the Hotel Savoy, but was placed under arrest on the sidewalk by Constable Cohen and Deputy Constable Cochrane, of Los Angeles, who said he wanted for the kidnaping of Older. Older entered an automobile with these men and a third person, not identified, on their promise to take him before Judge Cochrane, who gave him a pistol. Instead of this, a pistol was pressed against his side and he was taken to Redwood City and placed on a train bound for San Francisco. At San Francisco he secured his release on a writ of habeas corpus.

The Assistant District Attorney closed by indicating the testimony by which he expected to prove that Brown was a party to the kidnaping of the editor, whom it was desired of getting to Los Angeles without giving him an opportunity to procure bail.

Attorney Schlessinger said the defense would make no opening statement, but briefly indicated that it would be contented that Older was simply arrested in a legitimate manner.

"It is against the interests of both nations that unrestricted immigration or settlement on massed should be allowed as regarded either nation. NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A Disease of the Nerves Not of the Stomach—Correct Home Treatment.

Nervous dyspepsia, unlike other forms of indigestion, is a disease of the nerves and it must be treated by strengthening the nerves and the use of a good tonic, such as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, together with a generous and nourishing diet, is the correct treatment.

After suffering with nervous indigestion for over two years Mrs. George P. Martin, of No. 16 Admiral street, New Haven, Conn., tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She tells of the great benefit she received as follows:

"Following a severe run-down condition I began to suffer with nervous indigestion. Food distressed me so much that it was with difficulty I could drink water and I had to live on milk almost entirely. I lost in weight and strength. I was so nervous that I could not bear to have any one visit me. I could not sleep nights or if I did I would wake up suddenly with a startled feeling. Whenever I ate much my stomach would bloat and there would be gas on it. Often times I had to vomit to get relief. On going up stairs or in over-working I was certain to have palpitation of the heart. I had dull, sick headaches which lasted for two or three days. During these attacks I was unable to do my household work. I felt all over and wanted to be undisturbed."

"The doctor's medicine failed to help me after a trial of over three months. I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a newspaper and began using them. I noticed a difference after I had taken only a few boxes and was cured when I had given the pills a good trial. My cure has been permanent but I keep Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on hand to use as a tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful in cases of acid stomach and in the treatment of over-sensitive stomachs in which the slightest irritation causes painful gnawing or burning sensations. This condition is common among growing girls.

Sufferers from dyspepsia in any form, who have found their condition unrelieved or actually growing worse, while using ordinary remedies, would do well to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are sold by all druggists or direct by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50c per box; six boxes, $2.50. A diet book will be sent free on application to Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

always, by any means, far-sighted. If our honor or interest was menaced by a foreign power, this Nation would fight who else would fight for us? Our Navy is efficient. In the event of a crisis arising, the peace advocates who object to our building up the Navy will be absolutely powerless to prevent this country going to war.

A strong Navy is the surest guaranty of peace that America can have, and the cheapest insurance against war that Uncle Sam can possibly pay."
