Hotel Mitchell instead of in jail, Sheriff Gaston says that the matter rests with him. However, he has notified Hamilton's attorney that unless the $10,000 hail is furnished by tomorrow evening, the prisoner will go to jail.

It is understood that Boyd Hamilton, Mayor of Coeur d'Alene, brother of Ortis Hamilton, will furnish the $10,000 hond in the morning. The bonding company that was on Hamilton's hond has been notified of the predicament that faces Hamilton. Records show that while in office Hamilton had $27,925 paid to him. Attorney-General Bell declares that the shortage will reach $33,000; Adjutant-General George B. Lamping, who experted the books, says that $20,000 will cover the peculations, while Hamilton told Governor Hay that $3000 would more than make up the deficiency.

MRS. MOORE PACKS TRUNKS Adventuress Given Short Orders to Quit Prominent Hotel.

SEATTLE, Wash, May 6.—(Special.)—
Mrs. Hazel Moore, upon whom former Adjutant-General Hamilton lavished funds stolen from the state, has packed her things at the fashionable hotel where she has been stopping, and it is believed she will soon make her departure from this state and the scenes of her conquests. Today she was notified by the hotel that she was an undesirable person and was given short time in which to leave. She declined to say where she is going, stating that it is nobody's business.

Mrs. Moore today is as much of a mystery as she ever was, and while admitting that her name might not be Florence Moore, that it is no one's affair. Mrs. Moore has a 2-year-old daughupon whom she lavishes unfeigned

"Why should I drag my parents into this notoriety?" she asked. "Where they reside is no one's business. Who I am is no one's business. Let these people who have started this thing find out if they can. I know, and at the proper time they—to their sorrow—will also know."

SHOT IN HEAD, FIGHTS

Wounded Man Wrenches Away Revolver and Beats Assailant.

EUREKA, Cal., May 6.—With blood pouring from a bullet wound in his temple, George J. Sousa, an electrician and aerona at of this place, wrenched the weapon with which he had just been shot from the hands of his assailant, Charles Lawrence, foreman of a lumber mill, and before officers could intercent best. before officers could intervene, beat Law-rence until he was in nearly as bad con-dition as Sousa himself. Lawrence had accused Sousa of having wrecked his home. As the electrician sat in front of his ledging place tonight, Lawrence and his wife came down the street. When six feet distant, Lawrence drew a revolver and pressed the trigger three times, two cartridges missing fire.

The one bullet discharged from the weapon hit Sousa in the temple, breaking through the skin and ranging around the back of his head. His condition is serious but not alarming.

Lawrence was so badly cut and bruised from the beating he received that a doctor's services were necessary.

ENGINEER'S ERROR COSTLY

Shafts in Tacoma Tunnel Fail to Meet by Eight Feet.

TACOMA. Wash., May 6-(Special.)—Considerable delay and large additional expenditure will be involved in the construction of the Union Pacific tunnel into Tacoma, as the result of an engineering error which causes two shafts at the curve near the middle of the tunnel to miss meeting by eight feet. The tunnel is now in over 2000 feet.

Two snafts were sunk to a depth of 60 feet at the immediate approach to the line of the underground curve in the big bore. The shafts are about 300 feet apart. Forces of workmen excavating in oppo-

Must Face Court-Martial, Charged With Frauds Amounting to Hundreds of Thousands.

EL PASO, Tex., May 5.—A special dispatca from Washington to the El Paso Morning Times says:

Captain Thomas Franklin, U. S. A., has been ordered to report to Major-General Leonard Wood at Governor's Island, New York, to face court-mar tial on charges growing out of affairs in the quartermaster's and commissary departments at West Point from 1902 to 19as. The nature of the charges and specifications, it is said, will make the most important Army court-martial since Oberlin M. Carter was tried. since Oberlin M. Carter was tried.

Captain Franklin was treasurer of the United States Military Academy at West Point from 1902 to 1908, and during that period $2,000,000 in Government funds passed through his hands. He was known as the "Army's best business man," and until recently was at work perfecting plans for the Army and Navy Club at Manila.

The exact amount which it is alleged Captain Franklin is short is unknown.

CHELAN FACTORY BURNS

Loss Is $25,000.

SPOKANE, Wash., May 6.—(Special.)—
The worst fire in the history of Chelan, Wash., began at noon today in the lumber yards of the Lake Chelan Box Factory, and spread rapidly. Low pressure in the water mains handicapped the firemen. The entire mill plant, box factory, 2,000,000 feet of lumber, a large amount of shingles, doors, windows, building materials and three small barns near the mill were consumed.

A high wind blew and for a while the town was endangered. The fire leaped several hundred yards and burned the residence owned by S. M. Brown with its contents, and the large livery barn of M. M. Foote.

Citizens saved many of the residences.

M. M. Foote.
Citizens saved many of the residences, and the planing mill of N. T. Higgins. Burning cinders several times started small fires across the river in East Chelan. The total loss is about $25,000 the heaviest loser being the box factory. The Chelsn country is now without adquate box and lumber supplies which will greatly hamper building operations this
