SHEET MUSIC

Something New in Sheet Music

Jungle Moon, by the composer of Rainbow—hear it demonstrated in our Music Department, Main Floor, in Balcony at rear of store. Jungle Moon, a worthy successor to Rainbow. Hear it at the dances, at the theaters and all places of amusement. We are making a special effort to introduce "Jungle Moon" to the music-loving public. "Jungle Moon" is worthy of the plaudits of the most exacting critics, inasmuch as it is a wonderful melody—breezy and catchy and "different." "Jungle Moon" is different from the general run of popular music—you don't have to hear it but once, and you are impressed with its originality, beautiful harmony and swaying rhythm; introductory price, copy. 14c Come and look over our three-for-50c specials, in the balcony.

PUBLIC BATHS IN PARKS

MAYOR SAYS THEY SHOULD BE PROVIDED.

Wreck of Former Swimming Tanks and Sewage in River Renders New Provisions Necessary.

Mayor Lane wants the City Council to appropriate funds for public baths in one or more of the parks throughout the city for the benefit of the children. This, he states, has become necessary because the former free public bathing establishment donated to the city by Edward Holman, William Jaensen, L. Saunel and other citizens is a wreck. It was worn out, it is said, and but little of it was left. The fragments were sold, but it is not the intention to abandon the institution. On the contrary, according to the Mayor, it is his intention to enlarge the feature and to have several swimming-places in various sections.

ACCUSED OF SMUGGLING

J. WILLIAMS MUST FACE TRIAL HERE NEXT WEEK.

Federal Court Jury Will Have Many Government Cases to Dispose Of During Present Term.

On a charge of smuggling committed more than two years ago, J. Williams, alias J. Raulence, will be placed on trial in the United States Court next Tuesday. His case is the first on the calendar for the next jury term.

Thirteen Not Unlucky for McDonell

Hoodoo Number Has Figured Prominently in Life of Mayor's Aspirant, Who Has That Place on Ballot.

F. C. E. McDonell, candidate for the Republican nomination for Mayor, were the least bit superstitious he never would have entered the contest for this office. However, the word superstition does not occur in Mr. McDonell's personal or political vocabulary.

Partner Wanted.

Mr. McAllen, of the dry goods firm of McAllen & McDonnell, for 25 years on the corner of Third and Morrison, Portland, Or., wants a partner. The entire strain and management of the business is too much for one man. Here is a fine opportunity for a young man seeking investment to walk into a well established business.
