FAVOR OTHER PARTY

Democrats Nominate Men on Republican Ticket.

PROBABLY FOUR HONORED

Barbur and Werlein Complimented, and City Attorney Kavanaugh and J. J. Jennings Thought to Be Nominated.

Complete unofficial returns of the Democratic vote in Saturday's primary election from all but nine precincts indicate the nomination by that party of three and probably four Republicans. These figures show that City Auditor Barbur and City Treasurer Werlein undoubtedly have been nominated by the Democrats, while it appears probable that City Attorney Kavanaugh has profited by the scattering vote of the opposition party and has received its endorsement for reelection to that office.

Democrats Lay Their Plans.

COMES TO DEFENSE

Rev. W. G. Eliot, Jr., Stands Up for City Charter Revision.

SAYS COMMITTEE IS FAIR

In First of Series of Four Sermons on Subject, Pastor Declares Charge Against 15 Men Having Matter in Hand is False.

The charge that the work of the committee appointed to revise the proposed new charter of the City of Portland is tainted, or in any way treacherous to the city, is unqualifiedly false, said Rev. William G. Eliot, Jr., in an address last night at the Church of Our Father (Unitarian). It was the first of a series of four sermons on the charter, the other three to be given the next three Sunday nights. Speakers who are not members of the committee are invited to attend.

Councilmen Are Nominated.

The returns indicate the nomination of the following Democrats for Ward Councilmen: Second Ward, Thomas Sweeney; Third, F. T. Berry; Fifth, Dr. C. A. Proudfoot; Ninth, E. E. Versteeg; Tenth, W. T. Vaughn. In the Second Ward, W. W. Banks and H. W. Wallace, the rival Republican candidates, each received Democratic votes. With the exception of three votes for G. D. Dunning, Republican, F. T. Berry received practically all of the Democratic votes in the Third.

YOUR BEST BUY.

If you buy one of our 115 suits you receive more for your money than you ever did before. J. I. Bowman & Co., Fifth and Alder.

Amusements

What the Press Agents Say.

"Merely Mary Ann."

Hundreds were turned away at the Regalway yesterday and again last night and this week's offering bids fair to be packed houses, just as did last week's. This is a highly attractive and well-acted play, which will be given in full on Saturday night. It is Eleanor Robson's greatest success, and Isotta Jewel has made up the title role, as is Sydney Ayres as Lancelot.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS.

Another Big Bill at Orpheum.

The annual matinee today will open the new bill at the Orpheum for the week. There seems to be the necessary variety to make it especially attractive and pleasing to the followers of vaudeville. There is a high class burlesque offering of "The Grand Old Man" which is a story of a man's life, written by the author of "The Grand Old Man" with ten people, Combs, Stone, Wells, and Quader, and the title role, as is Sydney Ayres as Lancelot.

"Scenes From Dickens"—Pantagosa.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards' latest well-known English artists in "Scenes From Dickens" are the headline attraction at the Pantagosa. There will be plenty of other good acts ranging from burlesque operas to burlesque comedies. The Pantagosa is always good.

New Grand Bill.

Today there is a new vaudeville programme at the Grand and it promises to be one of the best yet. Mr. and Mrs. Forbes, well-known vaudeville stars, head the bill in their playlet, "A Wild Rose." An acrobatic dancing specialty will be given by Miller and Tempest and Grover and Richards will appear in a refined specialty.

STAR'S NEW SHOW DRAWS BIG CROWD

Six New Varied Pictures, New Songs and Gypsy Violinist on Bill.

Three nations contributed yesterday to the new programme at the popular Star theater. First, there was China, where in the great city of Hongkong, hundreds of pictures were photographed in a series of pictures that made up a completely new show, "A Chinese Wedding." Evidently the contracting parties were very high caste for the ceremony and presents were most elaborate and many hundreds took part in the festivities. England played its part, with the story of an English lad who wanted to marry an actress. This story rather oddly enough, the young lady disguised herself as a modest waitress and by playing to the whims of the old father, completely won him. Paris, France, was the scene of two very amusing comedies, "Puss and Feathers" and a satire on the monstrous lady's habit, the other. The special added feature, "Puss and Feathers," is a comedy, which shows a lot of freak occurrences that make people stop and wonder. The other picture is a comedy, which is a young artist was compelled to respond to an actress who was making a fortune throughout the entire day. Signor Defrel promises to change his selections daily.

Not Commercialism Only.

Philadelphia Record.

It is common to stigmatize the present as the age of commercialism, and America as distinctively the land of the dollar. But there never was a period in history when so many people were working for religious, philanthropic and scientific ends, irrespective of pecuniary returns, as there are today, and we very much doubt if these high ends of life are drawing as many persons in the Old World as in the New.

Frank L. Smith Meat Company

"FIGHTING THE BEEF TRUST"

GENUINE Spring Lamb and the choicest young Mutton, all prime selected Oregon stock, strictly fresh—are the same price at all of Smith's markets. Take your choice of the two—it's up to you, but remember, you must come to a Smith market. Avoid the markets of the Beef Trust on both sides of us on Alder street. Smith gives you better, cheaper meat than they—and besides that, the more business Smith can do, the cheaper he can make the price of meat throughout the city.

Some people like freckles; other people don't.

Those who don't like them and want to get rid of them should try this recipe:

Shave down a cake of Ivory Soap. Add just enough water to dissolve it. Set on back of stove. When thoroughly melted, remove from the fire. Add the juice of one lemon. Beat hard for a few moments and pour into moulds to harden. Use just as you would use a cake of toilet soap.

Ivory Soap 99 1/100 Per Cent. Pure.
