NORWAY'S BIRTHDAY KEPT

Norway's 96th anniversary as an independent nation was celebrated last night by native Norwegians at a concert held in Arion Hall, under the auspices of the Norwegian Singing Society. A programme of characteristic songs and recitations was rendered. The principal address was delivered by Professor E. O. Kassa. The Norwegian Singing Society gave a "God Save Norway," "Karl as Mart," a folk-song, and in response to an encore sang the Norwegian national anthem. The other musical numbers were as follows: "The Great White Multitude," (Grieg) Mrs. Rose Robinson; "Humor-Lette Sangs," J. E. Staples; "Konkvedet," N. Evanson; "Landkjending," H. Saether; Dr. Emil Enns acted as accompanist. The concert was largely attended and much enthusiasm manifested.

CURE MAY BE FATAL

Man Keeps Woman Drunk in Hayloft of Barn.

TRIES TO STOP HER HABIT

D. D. Ferbrache May Be Prosecuted for Treatment Given Young Woman—Leaves Husband in Minneapolis, Goes Asiray.

In the last stages of intoxication, a young woman 28 years of age was brought to the police station Sunday night from a haymow in the barn of the Portland Flouring Mills at East Second and Oak streets, and placed in a cell under the care of Matron Shumtons. As soon as she was able to converse she gave her name as Mrs. D. D. Ferbrache, and said her husband was D. D. Ferbrache, an employe of the barn in which she was found. That the woman's demoralization was due to the maliciousness of the man she said was her husband was the statement of Officer Blackman, who made the arrest. It was stated that Ferbrache piled her with liquor in order to keep her drunk, with the intention of effecting a cure of the drink habit. When found in the hay loft she had had nothing to eat for several days, and was in such a state of collapse it was necessary to carry her to a cell. Last night she was still in a critical condition and restoratives had to be given her every two hours. Once when she had recovered enough strength to talk she expressed the fear that she was going to die and told the matron her real name and the circumstances in regard to her condition. She gave her name as Mrs. Helen W. Wheeler, and said she was the wife of Milton M. Wheeler, of Minneapolis. Nearly a year ago she had trouble with her

BOARD FEARS TRUST

Does Not Like Looks of Glencoe School Plumbing Bids.

THREE ARE NEARLY ALIKE

Contracts Let for Building, Painting and Glass, but Plumbing is Held Up for Investigation—Sunny-side Fire Escapes Good.

Strong evidence of a plumber's trust or combine was discovered by the Board of Education yesterday afternoon when bids were opened for construction of the Glencoe school building, to be located at East Forty-ninth and Belmont streets. Award of contract for the building was made to W. H. Grimm, for $28,000, the painting to Doyle & Neal for $1800 and the glass to W. P. Fuller & Co. for $2800, but the plumbing was held up and referred to the building committee for an investigation, because the bids for that item disclosed what the members of the Board say is a combination, so close were the three bids. For the plumbing, Reedy Bros. bid $28,000, William Mulrhead $2000 and Robert Gillan $1000—indicating to the members of the Board of education at least that something is radically wrong. Chairman Wittenberg and other members remarked about this item, and without much party the bids were referred to the building committee, of which H. C. Campbell is chairman, for checking up and an investigation and report.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Borles and children, of San Francisco, are guests at the Nootka Hotel. At home Wednesday.
Rev. William Ingalls, who has been pastor of the Lentz and Gilberts Methodist churches for several years, has resigned and will leave the ministry to engage in other business. He is succeeded by Rev. Mr. Moore.
L. H. Wells, of Nevada City, Cal., is visiting his son, T. S. Wells, in Portland. The latter is Deputy County Clerk in the Circuit Court department. His father, who is 74 years old, has been in the dairy business, but has now leased his ranch.

Grocers and Shirtmakers' Sugar.

In a seven-league game played between the Allen & Lewis baseball team and the Bosses of the Road nine, the grocers' team won from the shirtmakers by the score of 15 to 2. The star twirling of R. Olgren, who allowed only two hits, and the bonhomie of Zentner, both for Allen & Lewis, were the features of the game.
