EUGENE ROBBER DODGES BULLETS

Jumps From Train Under Sheriffs' Noses and Escapes Under Hot Fire.

PURSUIT CONTINUES

Assallant of Mrs. Renshaw Now Hiding Between Oakland and Roseburg-Suspect in Jail Is Awaiting Identification.

ROSEBURG, Or., May 17 .- (Special.)-The desperado who last Thursday attempted to hold up Mrs. W. M. Renshaw at Eugene and killed her horse, has again slipped through the fingers of the pursuing officers, after having had three rifle shots fired at him at Oakland.

shots fired at him at Oakland.

A man supposed to be the highwaymun leaped from the kender of the Southern Pacific train at Oakland, 17 miles north of here, at 5 o'clock this morning, when three officers were within 50 feet of him. They all fired on him as he ran for shelter behind a warehouse, but escaped into the brush. Whether he was hit no one knows.

The man is supposed to be hiding between this city and Oakland and is being hunted diligently by Sheriffs Brown, of Eugene, and Fenton, of Roseburg, and their deputies. Although he has repeatedly evaded capture, the officers are confident that they have closed every means of escape this time. They expect soon to close in on their man and look forward to a fight, for he is known to be well armed.

WRONG MEN WERE CAPTURED

Two Suspects Released, Third Man in Juil at Roseburg.

DRAIN, Or., May 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. W. M. Benshaw, who was held up near Eugene Thursday and whose driving horse was shot and killed, came down to Drain this evening to identify either one of two suspects held here in Jall as the guilty man, but neither one answered the description and they were turned loose. Sheriff Brown, of Eugene, who is how in Roseburg on the lunt for the robber, telephoned Mrs. Renshaw to come on to that city, as he thought he had the right party in jail there. She left here on the 4 o'clock train for Roseburg.

CHARGE SHIPMENTS HELD

Californians Accuse Harriman Lines of Trying to Coerce Trade.

SALEM. Or., May 17.—(Special.)—Alleging that the O. R. & N. discriminates against California commission merchants who do not use the Harriman line boats in shipping fruit to Portland, the Garcia & Maginni Company, of San Francisco, today complained to the State Railroad today complained to the State Railroad Commission, saking for relief. They allege that the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, by high rates, is attempting to force the commission merchants to discontinue the use of competitive steamship lines by charging high tariff over the passenger lines; and that the Harriman people discriminate in favor of merchants who use the Harriman beats.

They further allege that in many instances the Harriman people have deliberately held back shipments in Portland for fully two weeks, so as to give consignees the impression that only by shipping over their lines can the proper service be secured.
