

MOTHER HERE FOR BODY OF HER DEAD

Mrs. Dombrower Arranges for Cremation of Body of Murdered Woman.

SHORT TALK WITH SLAYER

Rosehair Asks to See Mother of Victim, but Their Conversation Avails Little—Prisoner Said to Be Breaking Down.

HILLSBORO, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Mrs. Rosalia Dombrower, of Los Angeles, arrived here today to claim the body of her 23-year-old daughter, Mrs. John D. Rosehair, who was brutally murdered by her husband last Saturday morning.

Mrs. Dombrower viewed the body in the undertaking parlors and then visited the Sheriff's office. When the prisoner was notified she was to claim the body, she went to see her. The woman saw Rosehair in the jail corridor, but had no conversation with the prisoner, other than to ask him why he murdered the girl.

Rosehair lost his normal composure, and mumbled something about Lizeta "getting her dander up." Mrs. Dombrower then left the jail without any further questioning of the prisoner. She is a large and rather prepossessing woman. She lives in a suburb of Los Angeles.

Marie Pearson, daughter by Rosehair's first wife, was here today, and while talking to an Oregonian representative said that she did not come to Hillsboro out of sympathy for her father, as she had none for him, but that she was here to see if Rosehair in any way desired to make atonement for his crime.

When questioned by a newspaper representative, Mrs. Dombrower refused absolutely to be quoted. While in Hillsboro, Mrs. Dombrower was a guest at the home of ex-Sheriff John W. Sewell. She came here with Mrs. R. K. Simpson, who had just returned from a visit to California, and who met the mother on the train.

No date has been set for the arraignment of Rosehair, but it is thought that the case at the July term of court, rather than wait until the November term.

Rosehair has turned down two offers from attorneys to defend him, one from John A. Jeffries, of Portland, and another from Attorney McLean, also of Portland. McCann came here at the solicitation of Mrs. Isabelle Potter, of 202 1/2 Morrison street, the mother of whom Miss Dombrower worked before her marriage to Rosehair.

It is believed by the authorities here that Rosehair, who is losing his customary composure, will yet break down and make a full confession of the crime and admit that the murder was premeditated. Mrs. Dombrower arranged tonight to have the remains of her daughter shipped to Portland tomorrow for cremation.

Railway, an important portion of the Chicago & Northwestern system and constituting 1700 miles of its trackage, have been looking over Montana, Idaho and Washington. The visitors reached here today and are headed by A. W. Teschmohr, general manager, E. Paul, H. M. Pearce, traffic manager, E. Paul and F. D. Stout, of Chicago, said to be the personal representative of Marvin Huggitt, chairman of the executive board of the Chicago & Northwestern. They were accompanied here by E. W. Parker, general agent of the system in Seattle. They will return south tonight, having already visited Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane.

It is understood to be the intention of the Northwestern to reach Puget Sound by an extension of the Chicago-Omaha line, whose western terminus is at Land-O-Wyo., less than 50 miles from the eastern boundary of Idaho. The building of about 500 miles of railway would give the system access to the Pacific seaboard. UREN LOSES OUT

Denied Right to File Referendum Petition.

COURT DECISION BLOCKS

Multnomah Judgeship Already Decided, Hence Beyond Action of People's Vote, Is Opinion of Attorney-General Crawford.

SALEM, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Acting upon the written opinion of Attorney-General Crawford, Secretary of State Benson this afternoon wrote W. S. Uren that the referendum petition against chapter 48, laws of 1909, for an additional judgeship in the fourth judicial district would not be filed. In his opinion Attorney-General Crawford takes the position that the Secretary has no authority to pass on the validity of the emergency clause, which has been held by W. S. Brunsaw, judge of the seventh judicial district, to be sufficient. The opinion continues:

"First—If you file the petition, it in effect nullifies the decision. "Second—Your petition, and you can use your discretion only to the extent of determining whether the facts exist under certain acts which have been done, which the law provides in the nature of conditions precedent to filing a petition. One of these duties is to examine the bill and see if it is one which is subject to the referendum, and it is unless it contains an emergency clause. The bill under consideration contains the emergency clause, and in my opinion you are not clothed with judicial powers to the extent of determining whether the emergency is sufficient to put the act into immediate effect. "The emergency clause in the body of the bill, if valid, takes the same effect as the act in which the referendum may be invoked. You are in doubt as to its validity. Your duty, in my opinion, is to treat it as valid until the court of competent jurisdiction decides it to be otherwise."

The Attorney-General then calls attention to chapter 228 of the laws of 1907, which provide for bringing mandamus proceedings and having the validity of the law immediately passed on by the supreme court, which the Attorney-General thinks should be done. Friday night at 12 o'clock is the last opportunity to file referendum petitions under the laws passed by the last regular session of the Legislature. The Secretary's office will remain open until midnight Friday night to give large corners an opportunity to file petitions up to the last minute allowed by law. C. K. Bentley today filed the referendum petition to submit to the people chapter 25, an act to fix the salary of the judge of the Circuit Court of the fourth judicial district, in this state, and to provide for the manner of its payment. There are 240 signatures affixed to the petition.

THIRD OPERATION PREVENTED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it and after the third bottle was cured."—Mrs. ALYONA SPYRLLINO, 11 Langdon Street, Chicago, Ill.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

H. Frank, wanted in Baker City for proceedings and having the validity of the law immediately passed on by the supreme court, which the Attorney-General thinks should be done.

The Leading Lard Packer Says:

"Leaf is the cream of lards. There is not enough of it to supply one-tenth of the people."

Here is a frank admission from the leading lard packer that nine-tenths of the people are using other than leaf-lard—the only lard that is even safe. So you see what a chance you have of getting purity when you buy lard. You are simply taking chances on a hog-fat product of disreputable ancestors and doubtful cleanliness.

On the other hand when you buy Cottolene you get a pure vegetable product. It is better and healthier than lard because its source is clean—its process of manufacture is clean, and it is marketed in clean, air-tight cans that shut out all odors and contamination.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an airtight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.
