

Notwithstanding the fact that such a person as Jack McCarty exists has been discredited at St. Helens, the local police have a picture of the man in the rogues' gallery, with his past criminal record. Ex-Detective Joe Day, who was on the force at the time of the daring robberies perpetrated in Portland when the G. P. G. P. Rumelin & Scene the store

McCarty made his first appearance in riminal records in 1886, when, with an accompiles named "Deafy" Collins, and another pal, he blew open a safe in Seattle, securing several hundred dollars. The trio was captured. McCarty turned state's evidence and was released, while Collins.

He was brought back to Los Angeles He was brought back to Los Angeles, where he confessed and told the whole story, naming the men in the burgiary scene. McCarty, the leader of the gang, was subsequently arrested in San Fran-cisco in a streetcar after a desperate fight with the officers and a number of citizens who took part in the capture. He was then taken back to Los Angeles, convicted and sentenced to 10 years in San Quentin.

After his release from prison he went to Seattle and attempted to rob the Se-attle postoffice, but was discovered in the act. He escaped, and while doing so was shot in the shoulder, but not seri-was shot in the shoulder, but not seri-ously hurt. Then he invented a burgiar's tool, with which he attempted to open a safe, but the instrument broke while in operation. Later a tool of identical con-struction was found in his possession, which proved he was it he crook attempt ing the jobs. While in Beattle his allas was George Sayer. In 1204 he was arrested in Portland by Joe Day for the robbery of the G. F. Rummelin & Sons fur store on Second street. After he was caught with at accomplice named Coleman the two pleaded guilty and wore sent to the State Penitentiary for a year. From here, after he had served his time, he and Coleman want to San Francisco and managed a short-change scheme. They were caught and sentenced to a year his the County Jail. After merving his time here he was arrested in Vancouver, B. C. for some crime and sentenced to a year his come commerce with this country." are he was arrested in Vancouver, B. for some crime and sentenced for

Since that time his whereabouts have been unown to the detective department,

Been unown to the detective depariment, but since the indictment by the grand-jury at St. Helens it appears he has been attending bar in a saloon there. Yesterday afternoon a young man whose name could not be learned, upon hearing of the blackmail scheme, re-marked he knew the man who had been tending bar at St. Helens, and he was taken to the police station by Detective. Day, where he identified McCarty's photo as that of the same person. as that of the same person.

MRS. ADA STEIWER DEAD

Pneumonia Fatal to Well-Liked Sa-

Iem Woman.

EALEM. Or., May 26.-Mrs. Ada May Steiwer, wife of John F. Steiwer, died at the family realdence in this city today, after a brief attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Steiwer was born in Salem June 20. 1867. and the greater part of her life was spent in Marion County. She was a daughter of the late Samuel E. May, at one time Sec-relary of State.

RICH FARMER IS KILLED Battered Body Dragged From River

With Money All Gone.

SPÓKANEL Wash., May 28-(Special.)-Battered and decayed almost beyond rec-

AIMS TO PROMOTE TRADE Jap Commissioner to Scattle Fair Talks of Pacific Commerce.

SEATTLE, May 25-Hajime Ota, commissioner-general to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition from Japan, arrived here today. He was met at the station by representatives of the exposition management and leaders of the local Japaness colony

SHOPS ARE TO BE REBUILT

Lowenberg, Going & Co. to Resume Prison Foundry.

SALEM, Or, May E.-The Board of Trustees of the State Insane Asylum to-day reached an agreement with Lowen-berg, Going & Company, in regard to re-berg, Going & Company, in regard to re-berg, Going & Company, in regard to re-berg with robuild the shops, replace the function of the shops, replace the meshafting and three of the machines needed for general use. The exclusive foundry machinery, which the stove com-any tried to induce the State to buy, with the shoard of Appraisers reported the loss to the State in the recent fire was about 1500, but the State does not expect to pend nearly as much as that in replacing the sound nearly as much as that in replacing the sound by the State will not be re-placed at present.

Aberdeen Laborers Strike.

ABERDEEN, Wash, May 18 -- Labor-ers in the large mill plant of the Shade Lumber Company struck today for an advance of from $1.15 to $2 a day. In consequence 300 men employed in the mill are out of work until the matter is settled. There is a scarcity of this kind of labor, which is said to account for the strike at this time. matter.

Ellers store planos and take good cars of them.

curred a few years since when he left home for some cause or other and re-mained away for many months. How-ever, he returned later and matters went along with apparent smoothness. Up to last night Mrs. Corp and her family had been on the best of terms with the Wares, and the Corp children with the Wares, and the Corp children called Mr. Wars by the familiar title of Uncle Joe. Mrs. Corp said if help were ever meeded at her home in sick-ness or trouble she always would have gone directly to the Wares on account gone directly to the Wares on account of the kindly feeling that had existed. The coroner's jury, in the case of J. M.

Corp. concluded its hearing tonight. The verdict was in effect that J. M. Corp commis-to his death from a gunshot wound in-flicted by Joseph Ware, with felonious intent. S. R. Jackson, William Hivin, W. W. Funk, Andrew Nelson, J. El Keller and F. Eynuck were jurors

DEATH MAY BE SUICIDE

Aberdeen Business Man Takes Polson, but May Be Accidentally.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 26 .- (Special.)-Hen Dean, aged M, a groceryman and tea merchant, died very suddenly last night under circumstances which lead to the impression he may have contmitted suicide.

mitted suicide. Dean called at the house of a family, and while conversing suddenly fell from his chair in convulsions. Dr. Watkins, who was called before Dean died, pro-nounced it a case of arminical poisoning, though Dean told him before he died that he must have taken something in mis-take for a medicine he had been in the habit of taking for relief from stomach trouble.

trouble. An inquest developed that poison of some sort was taken, and a chemical analysis of the contents of the stomach will be made. Dean was unmarried and heaves a sister in Nebraska and a cousin in Tacoma. It is the presumption of Dean's friends that the death was acci-dental. He was a member of the Meth-odist Church. odist Church

ALLEGE ELECTION ILLEGAL

Legal Difficulties May Attend Issue of Bonds at Hoquiam.

HOQUIAM, Wash, May 18. -- (Spe-field)--Hoquiam voted yesterday to is-sue improvement bonds for 185,000. Some of those who voted against the issue are now threatening to enjoin the city, alleging the polls were held out to the bour longer than the time state one hour longer than the selec-ter to the bour longer than the selec-ter to the bour longer than the star-base of the selection of the bound of the selec-ter to the bour longer than the selec-ter to the bour longer than the stars but to the bour longer that the selec-ter to the selection of the bour selection of the selection of the bour selection of the selec-ter to the selection of the selection of the selec-ter to the selection of the selection of La Rose Begins Sentence.

Not nearly enough rain has yet fallen, however, to provide as much moisture as is needed, but it has partially relieved the dangerously dry con-dition of the soil.

GREAT HELP TO SPRING GRAIN

Hops in French Prairie Country, Though, Will Be Almost Failure.

GERVAIS, Or., May M.-(Special.)-A wholesome rain fell the greater part of last night. It is worth much to the Spring grain that had already begun to show the need of ministure, although, as a matter of fact, the grain crop was not suffering, nor was there any immediate darger. Fall-sown wheat and oats look well, but Soring-sown crain was abort

Fall-sown wheat and oats look well, but Spring-sown grain was short. The prospects are that there will be an immonse acreage of wheat, cats and hay, especially the former. Hops are aimset a failure in this part of the valley and it is doubtful if there will be one-fourth of a crop in the French Prairie country, or an acreage of 300, against 1000 in former years and that estimated at a trifle over two balms per acre.

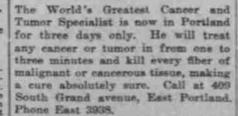

VALUED HIGHLY IN UMATILLA

Rain Breaks Dry Spell and Assures

Big Crops. PENDLETON. Or., May 24-(Special)-Rain valued at thousands of dollars began failing about 4 o'clock this afternoon, and is confinuing at a late hour tonight. It was greatly needed in many sections, and if it continues for 24 hours longer a humper wheat yield is assured for practi-cally the entire county.

cally the entire county. The stand of wheat was good, but it was

CANCER Dr. J. L. Bohannon

Dr. Bohannon will leave Portland Sunday, the 30th, on his tour. Stop two days at The Dalles, two days in Walla Walla, then to Spokane, one week; then return to Oakland, Cal., 140 Claremont avenue, where he has the largest and best equipped Cancer and Tumor Sanitarium west of New BALEEM, Or., May 25-Jack La Bose was brought from Portland today to begin serving a life sentence for murder.

Why you always find a leader in every line of business and you will always find MERIT backed by conscientious effort. That is the reason that

WEINHARD'S BOTTLED KEG BEER

Stands pre-eminent in the affections of the people of the Pacific Coast. It is manufactured with the greatest care, properly aged, and combines purity and quality seldom attained in the United States. and never excelled.

OUR BOTTLED BEER

COLUMBIA EXPORT KAISERBLUME

The three celebrated brands that are unequaled on the Pacific Coast. Send your order today.

We deliver every day to all parts of the city on the west side of the river. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday north of East Burnside street. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday south of East Burnside. North Albina, Wednesday; Sellwood, Thursday.

PRICE:

dozen, $1.90.

Columbia and Export, large size, $1.75 per case of 1 dozen, less 40c when bottles are returned.

Small size, $1.90 per case of two dozen, less 40c when bottles are returned.

Henry Weinhard Brewery Phone A 1172, Main 72

Portland, Oregon

Small size, per case of two dozen, $2.10.

Kaiserblume, large size, per case of one