BY W. J. PETRAIN. "Speed Marvel" Jack Killilay, one of

Bob Brown's promising youngsters, was on the mound for Spokane yesterday, and between the five hits he allowed and his 12 strike-outs, coated the Portland team with whitewash. The Indians, by batting Chenault at timely intervals, scored two runs, one more than enough to win the game. While Killilay pitched a fine game and was given excellent support, his speed counted, because the day was unusually dark. ually dark.

Most of Killilay's fanning bees are due to the very foolish babit contracted by the Portland players of standing at the plate and allowing the third strike to be called on them, and this was glaritigly apparent yesterday. Kililiay gave two bases on balls yesterday, one to Garry and the other to Casey, and the others who tried to wait him out were benched on balls that should have been offered at, at least

Bill Chenault pitched a good game and as remarkably steady at all times. He orked hard to win, and with any kind of batting support he might have done so, for Portland had runners at second and third bases frequently enough to copmost any old kind of a game. At these opportune intervals, however, the following batsmen seemed inclined to desire passes and instead were struck out. Runs cannot be scored on strikeuots, and very seldom from being forced over on walks.

In the second inning, with two men safely pickled away in the storage vat. Ostdick singled and stole second, which feat was followed by Bob Brown's clean single, on which the speedy catcher registered. Killilay filed to Murphy, and it seemed unfortunate for Portland, though the business for Scotage, that Provide the second finning, with two men free business for Spokane, that Brownie, of all the Indian sluggers, should have been the pinch hitter in that Instance. The next acc collected by Spokane was due to Buck Connors' healthy swat for two bags in the sixth. This was followed by an error by Mullin, who dropped a thrown ball, and Ostdlek's infield tap which could not be fielded in time to ston.

Casey has it on McCredie now, for the Colts are in third place, while Mac's Coasters are still coasting, having dropped to fourth place by yesterday's defeat.

Big Bill Chenault experienced another of his hard-luck defeats yesterday, for one little hit at several stages of the game would have trimmed the Indians.

Hurrali for Aberdeen. The Black Cats actually took a game from Seattle yesterday, and it was not either of their starplichers who turned the trick at that. If Eddie Siever, Comey Starkell, Heiney Pernoll and other Aberdeen pitchers will do likewise, it will be joyful news to the rest of the teams.

Phil Cooney and Pearl Casey each slapped hard-hit bounders down in the first inning yesterday, and got their men at first base by quick throws.

Jerry Sheehan seems to have lost his haiting eye, for the big fellow had two chances to score runs yesterday, and chances to struck out each time.

While Seattle played errorless ball yea-terday, Lynch's huskies secured only four hits off Most. Aberdeen nailed nine singles and pulled off three fast double
