SOCIAL GAMES RAIDED

POLICE DESCEND ON GAMBLERS FOR DRINKS.

Take 16 Men, Who Make No Denial of Practice, From Saloon in North End.

Gambling for the drinks was added to the list of offenses yesterday for which the police are to keep a particular lookout. The result of the first day of observation was the arrest of 16 offenders. They were enjoying sociable games of polo, pedro and draw poker at the Erickson place, Third and Burnside streets, when taken in tow by a quartet of policemen. All were charged with gambling. The decision as to this form of gambling was made some time ago by Municipal Judge Van Zante and taken on appeal to the Circuit Court. Judge Cleland affirmed the Municipal magistrate's finding Thursday. Although sociable games are rampant in the better class of saloons throughout the city, the police did not molest those places, going direct to the rendezvous of workmen and idlers in the North End. At Erickson's place a veritable gambling-room was found in operation. Patrolmen Harms, Post and Ackerman, acting on orders from headquarters, watched the games for a short time, saw that drinks were being purchased at the

SEATTLE PASTOR CALLED

Rev. Frank D. Findley Coming to First United Presbyterian Church.

The congregation of the First United Presbyterian Church, at a meeting held Thursday night, voted to extend a call to Rev. Frank D. Findley, of Seattle. The congregation has been without a regular pastor since the first of the year. Mr. Findley occupied the pulpit a few weeks ago, and made such a favorable impression that it was decided to invite him to become the permanent pastor. He has signified his willingness to accept the position, and will arrive in Portland next month. Mr. Findley is about 40 years old, and previous to coming to the Pacific Coast last Fall was pastor of a church in Wells-ville, O. He has been temporarily in charge of the Third United Presbyterian Church, of Seattle. Come out tomorrow in our Auto and see Gregory Heights. See ad on page 11.

CITY EMPLOYEES SUED

NEW GARNISHEE LAW MAKES BUSINESS FOR COURTS.

Measure in Effect Two Days, and Eight Actions Have Already Been Filed.

Since the new law making it possible to garnish the wages of city and county employes has gone into effect, there is every indication that a new and heavy burden has been added to the courts. For while the law went into effect only Wednesday, eight actions have already been commenced against public servants who belong to the never-pay society. In the list are two policemen, three firemen, one street-cleaner, one Deputy Assessor and one Road Supervisor. The city leads in the matter of numbers. Actions against these eight delinquent debtors have been filed with the Justice Court, six being filed yesterday. With eight cases developed in three days, the courts look forward to an unprecedented rush in the garnishee business.
