BY W. J. PETRAIN. Chief Ed Pinnance, the reliable Portland

twirler, had one had inning yesterday, or. to be exact, his support sot the wobbles in the seventh, and the Spokane team scored four runs and broke up what had been a close and exciting contest up to that period. The final score was 5 to 2 Carr. 2b in favor of the hitless Indian wonders of Le Jene of the previous day.

However, Dode Brinker, Spokane's utility player, proved himself something of a slab artist, in addition to his other atfributes, for up to the ninth inning, when three hits were secured, he had held Casey's men to two lonely bingles as their

In the first inning the Chief had bad luck, but it was not so apparent as in the seventh. Jack Clynes was the first Spokane batter to face Pinnance, and was safe at first because Cooney heaved wildly to the bag, pulling Mullin away to stop the flight of the ball. Altman forced Clynes at second on a tap to Pinnance, and Weed forced Altman in the same manner, and had Casey's relay to first been a trifle more accurate, a double would have resulted and Spokane retired Weed then scored when James hit for two bases.

pass to Bassey. Mullin's sacrifice, Garry's out and Brown's fumble of Sta-ton's bounder gave Porfland one run in the fifth, and tied up the score until the fatal seventh. Pinnance was pitching fine ball all the time, and his support worked with him until the blow-up.

Ostdick opened the seventh with a le gitimate two-sack drive to left. Brown's bunt fell in front of the plate, and Murray fried to get Ostdiek going to third, but Staton was slowing in getting the bug and muffed the throw, both men being safe

Brinker then dropped a short fly back of second, which Garry caught, but instead of throwing to Murray immediately, tess to Murray. Cooney booted Clynes grounder, and Brown went to third. Alt-man singled to left, scoring Brown. Weed hit to Cooney, who threw Clynes out at the plate, but both Weed and Altman

Portland railled in the ninth, but it was only a flash. Bassey opened with a fwo-sacker to right. Mullin's out was uneventful, but Garry beat out an inuneventful, but Garry beat out an in-field tap along the third-base line, and when Staton singled to loft, Bassey scored mother run for the home team. Adams and Murray were disposed of by Brinker, and the game was over. Rasty Wright and Vic Holm will pitch for Spokane today, while Casey will de-pend upon Howard Guyn or Tom Scaton. VANCOUVER WINS IN 13TH

Pulls Out Victory From Tacoma by

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 18 .- The VANCOUVER, B. C., May 18.—The longest game in two seasons on the Vancouver diamond, both in point of time and innings, took place today, when the locals pulled out a 2-to-1 victory in the last of the lith, after two hours and 40 minutes' play. A fumble of an easy grounder by Kippert with two out, and a daring bit of baserunning by Scharnweber, who came home from second on the play and slid under the ball, gave the winning run to Vancouver.

LYNCH IS STAR AT SEATTLE Makes Sensational Catch and Evens Up Game With Aberdeen.

SEATTLE, May 2.—Lynch's wonderful catch in center field of Streib's long drive was the enlivening feature of an otherwise uninteresting game. Lynch also celebrated the day by making two triples and two singles in as many times at bat. Seattle's infield played poor ball in the first inning and Aberdeen scored four runs. Scattle immediately got them back by luck, pure and simple. With one on base and one out. Bennett's sharp grounder bumped out of Carr's mitt. Lamelt got a legitimate single toscenter, but the ball bounded away from Lejeune and went as a triple. Capros hit under the ball and it salled over the fence, tieing the secre.

In the lith preliminary event the number of men qualified by each college was as follows:

Harvard, 16: Corocil, 14: Yals, 12: Penn-sylvania and Princeton, 9 cach: Michigan and Dartmouth, 4 sach: Syracuse, 2: Co-lumbia, 2: Williams, Brown, Swartmore, Fordham and Haverford, 1 each.

Cornell Docs Well. Corneil qualified men in every event ex-cept the high jump. Yale will be repre-sented in all snospt the furiong and the quarter-mile, while Harvard failed to get men into the half-mile event, the broad jump and the hammer throw.

Pennsylvania was strong on the track, but weak in the field. Maybew of Brown outleaped, all other competitors in the broad jump, and under the rules. If his mark of 22 foot 5 inches is not exceeded temderow, he will win the event. The same rule obtained in the hammer throw, in which Talbett of Cornell hurbed the missile 126 feet Tip inches, and in the shotput, where Kruzer of Swarthmose, who holds the record, made a distance of 44 feet Mg inches.

Contest Is Close In the last-named event, however, Lit-

in the had-marned event, however, Lat-tie of Harvard, who also qualified has at feet this year, probably will push Kruger for first place homorrow. Summary: how-and mark torned.
