DEAD BODY EXPLODES

REMAINS NOT PROPERLY EMBALMED FOR SHIPPING.

California Woman Has Distressing Experience on Journey With Casket With Dead Husband.

EL CENTRO, Cal., May 31.—Distressing was the experience of Mrs. Wallace Wilcott, whose husband died recently at Holtville, this county. Mrs. Wilcott started with her infant child and the body of her husband for their former home at Driftwood, Okla., where interment was to take place. Wilcott's body was embalmed at Imperial and prepared for the long journey.
At El Paso the trainmen discovered indications that something was wrong with the box, and as they reached Alamo Gordo, Mex., the casket exploded from the accumulation of gases due to the decomposition of the body.
The casket was taken from the train, accompanied by Mrs. Wilcott and her infant, at midnight and in a hastily made grave the body was deposited by the light of lanterns. Mrs. Wilcott was prostrated by this added shock in her bereavement, but was comforted and aided by strangers she found herself among in the little Texas city.

ROGERS WAS SECRET GIVER

Booker Washington Tells of Liberal Aid to Tuskegee Institute.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Booker T. Washington has revealed the fact that for many years H. H. Rogers aided in the support of scores of schools in the South. The Standard Oil official asked Mr. Washington to act as his almoner and insisted that his benefactions be kept secret. In giving an account of this unknown phase of Mr. Rogers' activities, Mr. Washington said:
"The first time I ever met Mr. Rogers was in this manner: About 15 years

BOY CHOKES IN DEEP MUD

Companion Falls Exhausted While Running for Help.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 31.—Elmer Carlisle, 17 years old, son of E. H. Carlisle, was choked to death in the slimy ooze and mud in the bottom of an excavation on Avenue 56 yesterday, when he dived into the pool, thinking to take a swim. One of his companions braved death in an endeavor to save the boy's life, and another boy ran for assistance to such a distance that when he reached help and gasped out his story he fell exhausted to the ground, with blood gushing from nose and mouth.
When assistance arrived, dynamite was resorted to to loosen Carlisle's body from the clinging grip of the mud into which he had sunk, but these efforts were futile, and the body was finally pulled out with pike poles.

LONG TRIP BY DOG SLED

BISHOP STRINGER'S DUTIES TAKE HIM INTO ARCTIC.

Pastoral Trip of 4000 Miles to Visit Missions Among Ice Floes of Far North.
VICTORIA, B. C., May 31.—(Special.)—Four thousand miles of travel by canoe, by dog-train and on foot is involved in the series of pastoral visitations upon which Bishop Stringer, of the Yukon diocese, has just left Whitehorse, the measure of his zeal in the work being the better appreciated when it is remembered that he was obliged to devote all the past winter to the recovery of his health at Kincairdine, Ont., where Mrs. Stringer and their children will spend the summer.
Leaving Carcross on Empire day, the Bishop started to Edmonton, from which center he will traverse the vast northland interior to Fort Macpherson, a distance of 2000 miles, visiting the isolated church missions en route. From Fort Macpherson he will continue northward 250 miles to Herschel Island in the Arctic ocean, where he, with his wife, was stationed among the Eskimos six years ago. After visiting that remote mission post he will return overland from the Arctic to Fort Yukon on the Yukon River, which point he hopes to reach in time to catch one of the late steamers up river to Dawson.
The Bishop expects to leave Edmonton by June 1 and to reach Fort Macpherson by July 10. The trip to Herschel Island and return to the mainland will consume another three or four weeks, and he will have no time to lose if he reaches Fort Yukon by the end of September.

Institute Largely Attended.
TOLEDO, O., May 31.—(Special.)—The Teachers Annual Institute for Lincoln County held a three-day session here last week. Forty-seven local

WELCOME TO TRAVELERS

Whole State of North Carolina Greets Convention.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., May 31.—Decorated as never before, this city greeted the 20th National convention of the Travelers' Protective Association, which convened here today, to be in session until Friday. Citizens have subscribed $6000 for the entertainment of the 5000 visitors expected. The convention opened this morning with a parade, led by Governor Kitchen with his staff, the First Regiment Band and the four local companies of the North Carolina National Guard. Governor Henry O. Gray, of Louisville, National president, responded. After this afternoon's business session, the first day ended with an informal reception at the Battery Park Hotel. Numerous social functions have been planned for the visitors and their families.
Thursday morning the visitors will be entertained at breakfast on the Biltmore estate by Dr. Cheek, head of the department of forestry. An old-fashioned Southern barbecue will be served at Lake Tozaway in the Sappington country, 50 miles below here, Thursday.

SIX HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Machine Runs Away in Hill-Climbing Contest.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 31.—Six men were seriously injured, one perhaps fatally, during the last event of the automobile hill-climbing contest at Sport Hill today.
A man named Etridge was driving the car of John H. Tyson, of Stamford, and the machine jumped the road, hitting a tree. Thence it ran into the crowd. Mr. Etridge was unhurt, also the mechanic.

DEAF MUTES GATHER

STATE SOCIETY IS FORMED AT VANCOUVER.

Superintendent Clarke, of State School, Anxious Work of Institution Be Better Known.
VANCOUVER, Wash., May 31.—(Special.)—The convention of the adult deaf people of Washington was opened this morning in the chapel of the State School for the Deaf. There were present 85 delegates and visitors, who will remain the guests of the institution tomorrow night. This is the first meeting of its kind ever held in Washington and the deaf people are here upon special invitation of Thomas P. Clarke, superintendent of the State School for the Deaf.
In his address of welcome this morning Superintendent Clarke called attention to the fact that the educated deaf of the state could be of great assistance to the administration in building up the state institution for the deaf. He asked for united action in creating a favorable sentiment throughout the state.
Speaking of the day school for the deaf, Mr. Clarke urged the members of the convention not to oppose it. "You know and I know," he said, "that the graduate of the day school is never so well fitted to enter the world's fight for a living as he would have been had he graduated from an institution where the instruction is continuous for 24 hours a day, seven days in the week. The day school is a good thing, the state boarding school is a better thing, the best is none too good for the deaf children."
In the afternoon a formal organization was effected and a constitution adopted. Provision was made in the constitution for the raising of funds to build and maintain a home for the aged.
The officers elected were: President, P. L. Azling, of Spokane; first vice-president, L. A. Divine, of Vancouver;

MRS. ANNIS IN VAUDEVILLE

Widow of Certain Victim Responds to Curtain Call.

NEW YORK, May 31.—The debut on the vaudeville stage of Mrs. William E. Annis, widow of the man who was slain by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., was applauded last night in a theater at Rockaway Beach. She did a piano sketch with a singing and dancing team of men and played as a request number "My Rosary," which, she announced, was the favorite of her husband. On insistent calls by her audience, Mrs. Annis appeared before the curtain and announced that the death of her husband made it necessary for her to earn a living for herself and her children and that she felt that the stage afforded her a better opportunity than anything else.
New York—A Chinese laundry in East Twenty-second street was blown up with a bomb Sunday night and the Hip Sing Tong is suspected. A minute before the explosion, a Chinaman warned away the children in the street.

This great medicine has an unequalled, unapproached record for purifying and enriching the blood. It cures scrofula, eczema, eruptions, catarrh, rheumatism, anemia, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, general debility, and builds up the whole system.
Get it today in the usual liquid form or in chocolate tablet form called Sarsatabl.

Your laundress may be a "jewel"—let us hope she is.

Nevertheless, there are some things you may not care to entrust even to her—lace handkerchiefs, for example; colored goods; or, possibly, a shirt-waist of more than ordinary beauty.
Such articles as these you will do well to wash yourself—with Ivory Soap and lukewarm water.
