PREACHER'S WIFE MAKES GUN PLAY

Pastor Sues for Salary and Trustees Mix With Him in Street Fight.

COLFAX ALL STIRRED UP

Both Minister and Wife Arrestetd Following "Rough House" After Trustees Are Refused Admittance to Church Building.

COLFAX, Wash., June 2 .- (Special.)-A gunplay by the wife of Rev. H. G. Buss, pastor of the First Baptist Church; the arrest of the clergyman and his helpmeet; the attempt of the members of the congregation and the trustees opposed to the retention of Mr. Buss to get possession of the church, and suit of the preacher for back salary, have stirred this city. The clergyman tells of an assault by the trustees at the door of the parsonage tonight, as

"County Assessor F. N. English, B. F. Sherfey, E. E. Sherfey and J. Hugh Sherfey came to the door of my parsonage and demanded entrance to the church for those of the congregation who had assembled outside, but I refused them. English then demanded that I surrender the keys to the church, but I refused unless compelled by law. English handed me a written notice from the trustees that I must vacate the parsonage within three days, cate the parsonage within three days and he then attempted to enter the par-sonage. I told him to keep out.

Pastor Is Attacked.

"E. E. Sherfey caught hold of me and pulled me through the door. Once I was outside, B. F. Sherfey attacked and choked me. I was thrown to the ground and struck and kicked, although I cannot state who were the perpetrators of the latter attack. I called to my wife and told her to get a gun. She went upstairs and returned with it, but instead of giving it to me, she ran out into the crowd in front of the church, calling for the police. My captors then allowed me to go and I returned to the house. Later I was visited by Sheriff Carter. I requested him to disperse the mob, which he refused to do."

E. Davidson, a trustee, was garthe side-to do."

E. Davidson, a trustee, was qu'the sidewalk in front of the parsonage making remarks directed at Buss. One statement Mrs. Buss could not understand and she crossed over from the opposite side of the street, where she had been waiting for the police, and struck him in the back with the gun. As he turned around, she pushed the revolver near his face and asked him to repeat what he said. He replied that he had said nothing offensive.

Mrs. Buss then entered the parsonage, Mrs. Buss then entered the parsonage, where she was disarmed by Patrolman. Hickman. The church members withdrew to the public rest room across the street and held a meeting. E. F. Sherfey swore out warrants against Buss and wife, charging them with exhibiting a deadly weapon in a crowd. Sheriff Carter arrested Buss and wife, who were later released on bond.

NATIONAL MANUFACTURERS' AS-SOCIATION GIVES VIEWS.

General Manager Bird Says It Is Working Against Anti-Injunction and Eight-Hour Laws.

SPOKANE. Wash., June 2.—(Special.)
—"We are not opposed to the American Federation of Labor, but we are working against its idea of promulgating class legislation."

This is the statement of J. Philip Bird. general manager of the National Asso-ciation of Manufacturers, who is in the city, James W. Van Cleave, ex-president of the association, will arrive tomorrow morning and remain until Saturday night. James A. Emery, general counsel of the association, will reach Spokane Friday, and conferences will be held with the manufacturers of the city.

"We are opposed to pernicious legisla-m in the states and the Nation," stated r. Bird. "We wish to check special don in the states and the Nation," stated Mr. Bird. "We wish to check special recognition of certain classes. We object to seeing this republic drifting toward the condition of a nation of 90,000,000 people with every man a law unto himself. If one class gats special legislation, others will demand it, and every one will be trying to get particular rights.

"We are working against unfair antiquencion and eight-hour less. We demand the second of t injunction and eight-hour laws. We do not believe it should be necessary for a man to join a union to gain his rights."

tion directors were carried on informally and with much bitterness. The Oregon building kept its doors closed all fore-noon, offering as an excuse that the finishing touches were being placed on ex-hibits and that the presence of visitors vould retard the work.

It was significant, however, that all other state buildings were open. At 12 o'clock Commissioners Wehrung, Rowe and Wright were summoned to the office of President Chilberg, where the Exposi-tion directors were assembled. Heated words ensued and then cooler counse words ensued and then cooler counsel prevalled, and finally an entente cordiale was reached. At 1 P. M. the announcement was made that the Oregon building would be lighted as required and that perfect harmony reigned. The doors of the Oregon building swung open again and all parties to the conference thereafter worked overtime suppressing the facts regarding the conference and the agreement.

"When we installed our exhibits we when we installed our exhibits we were guaranteed electric power and lights," said Superintendent Smith. "Nothing was said regarding the ex-terior lighting at the time, though it was doubtless assumed by the Exposition management that we were contemplating maintaining an elaborate system of lighting, inasmuch as we had done the wiring for it. We found, however, that to expend $4000 on exterior lighting would seriously cripple our exhibit within the building, so we decided to do without the lights. Then it was that Mr. Allen belights. THREE OF GANG BOUND OVER

They Are Held for Omaha Grand Jury Under $25,000 Bonds.

OMAHA, Neb., June 2.-G. W. Woods, Fred Tortenson and James Gordon were bound over today by Federal Judge Munger to the next grand jury and held under $25,000 bonds each to due him for back salary to June I. He has also begun proceedings against the trustees individually, and service of the action was made by the Sheriff this afternoon upon M. Davidson, B. F. Sherifey, Fred Schrether and John S. Aegerter. The fifth member of the board, John Patisson, who was the Democratic Gubernatorial candidate at the last election, has recently removed to Spokane, but the summons for him will be forwarded to the Spokane authorities tomorrow.

This is the beginning of the end of the most sensational church quarrel in the history of Colfax and is the culmination of 20 years of strife in the congregation.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 2 .- Prominent imanciers, politicians and Government officials must testify in the criminal libel cases of the Government against Delavan Smith and Charles R. Williams, owners of the Indianapolis News. Judge Anderson today continued till October II the hearing of the case. This was done on the Government's contention that such delay was necessary in order that the witnesses might be heard.

Those whose testimony is sought include Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican National committee; Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic National committee; George B. Prove Story Known as Fake.

The defense protested against a continuance, saying the Government should have been prepared to submit its evidence, and the court at first seemed to approve. On a statement of the Government counsel, however, as to what it was expected to prove by the new witnesses, the court decided to hear the further evidence.

District Attorney McNamara said he would prove by Messrs. Hitchcock and Mack that they had made public announcements that the Panama story offered to both of them was a fake, originated by blackmallers, wno at first hoped to get money from William Nelson Cromwell, but failed. The story was published in the New York World and the same paper on October 3 printed Mr. Cromwell's denial. Mr. McNamara said he expected to prove that the defendants had knowledge of the denial when they prepared their editorial article for the Indianapolis News.

By members of J. Pierpont Morgan's staff he said he expected to prove that the $40,000,000 the United States paid for the Fanama Canal was paid directly to the two old French companies and at once distributed to about 230,000 holders of the stock in France, and that no gobe-tween got a cent of profit.

Judge Anderson had expressed doubt as to the relevancy of further evidence, saying he himself was impressed by the fact that Mr. Cromwell had refused to tell the Senate investigating committee the names of his clients, who composed a syndicate for "Americanizing" the canal. a plan that afterward was abandoned. The public might justly infer, the court said, that there was something wrong somewhere in the transaction, in which $19.000,000 of its money was expended.

The court further said it was his personal impression that at the time of the Walker Commission's inquiry into the comparative merits of the Panama and the Nicaragua routes, "the people that knew all about canal matters had a very quick, sudden change of heart from the Nicaragua route to the Panama route."

Why Panama Was Chosen.

Watkins, who was called in to attend the woman the day of her demise, and Coroner Paul Smith permitted the funeral to be held this afternoon, as originally set. The Coroner had planned to hold an autopsy over the remains if Dr. Watkins would not issue the certificate.

When Mrs. O'Hara first became ill she did not call a physician, depending on Christian Science, which she had embraced. She had been a Catholic. On the day of her death Dr. Watkins was summoned, but he found Mrs. O'Hara unconscious and she died shortly afterward. Dr. Watkins says from the brief examination he made he is convinced Mrs. O'Hara was in the last stages of cancer or kidney trouble and that nothing could have been done to save her life.
