LA FOLLETTE IS CENTER OF STORM

Attacks Autocrats of Senate Openly.

ALDRICH BECOMES FURIOUS

He and His Cohorts Unite to Denounce "Little Bob."

INSINUATE THAT HE SHIRKS

Though Wisconsin Senator Has Exhausted Himself With Long Speech, Regulars Attack Him When Absent.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—La Follette was the center around which a storm raged in the Senate today and tonight. In the afternoon he resumed his speech in opposition to the cotton schedule, but was forced by exhaustion to suspend. When he resumed he made a violent attack on the "autocracy of the Senate," aiming his attack directly at Aldrich. He was expected to continue his speech after the dinner recess, but was not present, and the regulars made a concerted attack on him, while the insurgents and Democrats united in his defense.

La Follette's speech was a general criticism of the methods of the finance committee. He asserted that the German wage statement, contrary to a statement by Aldrich, had reached the committee before the tariff bill was reported to the Senate, and he charged the committee with general neglect in withholding information from the Senate.

Warning to Autocracy.

It was at this point that La Follette became exhausted and an effort was made to obtain permission for him to suspend and resume again tomorrow.

Aldrich took advantage of the incident to make an effort to obtain an agreement to vote on the cotton schedule at a fixed hour tomorrow. In this he was unsuccessful, and after a four-hour rest the Wisconsin Senator continued.

"A system has grown up here," said La Follette, "by which legislation is in the hands of two or three men whose authority seems to have been recognized here for many years without questions. It seems hazardous on the part of anyone who wants to know and who fails to come along when he is told, I want to announce to the autocracy of the Senate that the clock will strike presently and that there will be a new hour in the legislative business of the Senate."

La Follette once refused to yield to Aldrich for an interruption, adding: "You are going to be accorded the same kind of treatment that I have received from you."

Boast La Follette When Absent.

The atmosphere was surcharged with electricity when the tariff bill was made up at 5 o'clock in the first night's session since Congress was convened. Fifty-four Senators were present. Every Republican Senator in the city except La Follette was in his seat, and his absence was the subject of criticism. The sincerity of his attitude on the tariff bill was questioned and finally serious attacks upon him were made by conservative Republicans in charge of the bill, and a spirited defense came from the insurgents and Democrats. Another outbreak is almost sure to occur when the Wisconsin Senator again gets on the floor.

Hot Attack and Defense.

Calling attention to a recess taken in the Senate yesterday in order to give La Follette an opportunity to rest and his failure to do so, the insurgents sought to show that he had received unusual consideration.

Beveridge, in defending La Follette, asserted that no Senator would question that La Follette was ill and needed the rest.

Penrose declared that he would be able to prove that La Follette was well enough to be abroad on the streets, "consulting with the representatives of yellow journals and uplift magazines."

Prompt Defense of La Follette Came from Horah and Dooliver, Republicans, and Money, Democrat. Beveridge suggested that the Senate adjourn for a reasonable time to give La Follette an opportunity to recover and resume his speech.

Aldrich Opposed the Suggestion.

Ill feeling was apparent on every side.

Jute, Flax and Hemp Duties.

Aldrich suggested that the Senate pass over the cotton schedule temporarily and proceed to the consideration of the flax and hemp schedules. The Senate proceeded with the flax schedule and Bradley of Kentucky offered an amendment taking jute and hemp duties from the free list and assessing a duty of 1 1/2 cents a pound. The amendment was adopted. An amendment offered by Aldrich making the duty on threads made of flax or hemp yarns more than five per cent was also adopted.

Lower Rates on Some Hides.

An amendment by Aldrich placing a duty of 35 per cent ad valorem on tanned hides when mixed with other vegetable substances was adopted.

The paragraph on furs was changed so

BRYAN OUT WITH SLOGAN FOR 1912

Feeblest One Issues Defiant in Commoner.

"Be Up and Doing," He Urges "Pure and Undeveloped" Democrats.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 3.—(Special.)—William J. Bryan has so far recovered from his indisposition, which has been marked since last November, that he today emerged into the sunshines and issued defiance through the Commoner to enemies of the common people. Sounding the slogan for 1912, Mr. Bryan urges Democrats to be up and doing. He stily administered a slap at suddenly Democrats who differ with him, saying in part:

"Let those Democrats who believe in a pure and undeveloped Democracy, get together in each district and pick out a Democrat who cannot be bought or frightened. Now is the time to select candidates for Congress. In a year the campaign will be on, and upon the campaign will depend largely the hope of the party in 1912."

"The trusts have stealthily secured control of some of the Congressmen who were elected as Democrats, and they will have the support of the trusts in securing re-nomination."

LIONS EMPTY STREETS

Scatter Carnival Crowd, Bite Pony, Fight Elephant.

ST. CHARLES, Mo., June 3.—Two full grown lions running through the streets of St. Charles scattered a carnival crowd in terror and emptied the big car shops here when they were driven to bay in the shop yards. Showmen captured the lions an hour after their escape and after one of them had fatally bitten a pony and the other had attacked an elephant.

More than 2000 women and children were on the streets. Suddenly the cry of "The Lions!" Men, women and children turned and fled, none stopping long enough to see that the lions were not coming toward them, but had taken the other direction.

"Few persons were in the lions' path and these ran terror-stricken into houses and stores. In five minutes the streets were deserted and everybody behind locked doors. In the shop yards came a long combat of wits with the lions, and the showmen had it all to themselves."

FEVER SHIP ENDS VOYAGE

Three Die En Route and Captain Buries All, Including Wife.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 3.—(Special.)—Completing a voyage of 48 days from Santa Rosalia destined to be memorable on account of a desperate fight with fever, waged almost from port to port, the ship Springbank reached Royal Roads today, reporting three deaths en voyage—those of Mrs. Royal, the captain's wife; Steward Lund, and Able Seaman Johnson—all of whom were buried at sea, the grief-stricken captain reading the burial service for each.

The voyage up was made very difficult, as two-thirds of the crew of 28 men were at one time incapacitated by fever, while the others were too weak to perform their duties, save with difficulty. Two are still fever-stricken. The Springbank arrived off the Straits two weeks ago, and has ever since been endeavoring to work her way in.

HORSE MAKES WILD DASH

After Woman Is Thrown From Buggy, Animal Hits Car.

A horse driven by Mrs. E. Christensen, 1233 Greely street, became unmanageable on Third street, near Everett, last night and collided with an express wagon driven by S. Levinson, 633 Second street, throwing the woman out of the buggy. The shafts of the buggy were broken and the horse ran down Third street and collided with a streetcar at Flanders street, which proved to be the end of its flight, as the jolt knocked the animal over a hole in its side caused by a protruding bolt on the car. No one was hurt as a result of the runaway, Mrs. Christensen being only slightly shaken.

WALKING PAIR AT EUGENE

Man and Wife, Dragging Wagon, Headed for Seattle Fair.

EUGENE, Or., June 3.—(Special.)—A. Wood and wife, who are walking from Los Angeles to Seattle on a wager, passed through Eugene today hauling a little wagon which they must deliver to the California building at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. The money that they make must be earned or received for souvenirs, as they are bound not to accept anything as a gift or to draw on their resources.

GOTHAM WHEAT SENT WEST

Never Occurred Before—Scarcity of Cash Cereal the Cause.

NEW YORK, June 3.—For the first time in history, wheat has been shipped back from New York to the West for consumption. This unusual action is made possible by the great scarcity of cash wheat all through the West. No. 2 red sold higher today at $1.47, and $1.50 was asked at the close.

ASK U. S TO STOP WEDDING OF PEER

Woman and Parson Say Italian Is Fake.

VISIT STATE DEPARTMENT

Bride's Sister Wants Cable Cipher Sent to Paris.

GIRL WARNED OF FIANCE

Alleged Nobleman Said to Be Austrian and Well-Known Gotham Doctor Aged 60, Woman 20 Years Younger.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—(Special.)—The State Department has been asked by a prominent Washington clergyman and a woman well known in social circles in New York, Washington and London, to prevent, if possible, an impending international marriage between a relative of the woman, possibly her sister, and an alleged nobleman, said to be an Italian, the ceremony having been arranged to take place, it is said, in Paris this week.

The clergyman is Rev. John B. Quinn, assistant to Rev. J. Henning Neims, rector of the Church of the Ascension, and his companion Miss Frances A. Garwood, of New York and Washington. Their visit to the State Department was to get the Department to send a cipher message to the relative of Miss Garwood, who, it is said, is now in Paris, arranging for her marriage to the nobleman in the case.

The clergyman wished to use the State Department's secret code so that the message would be strictly private. It was sent to the American Embassy in Paris for delivery and the Embassy will be careful, it is said, that the nobleman does not see it.

It is stated that the message warned the young woman that the person she was about to contract a matrimonial alliance with was not over an Italian citizen and never had been. Instead, she was told, he was an Austrian by birth and had resided in New York for 30 or 35 years. Further information concerning the man was that he was a physician and surgeon of wide reputation in New York and the head of a hospital; that he was married and had a wife and son who are said to be living in New York. It is believed that the mistake about his being an Italian subject arose from the fact that the man frequented the Italian section of New York. The alleged nobleman's age is given as about 60 years, while Miss Garwood's is reported to be at least 20 years younger.

It is said Miss Garwood and Rev. J. B. Quinn also applied to the police in an endeavor to frustrate the international wedding, mentioning a hypothetical case to draw out the opinion of the peace guardians as to the legality of an attempt to prevent the wedding.

WORD "DECADENT" SAID, HE LEAVES

French Professor Resents Criticism of France.

David Starr Jordan, at Bryn Mawr, Raises Ire of Literature Teacher.

BRYN MAWR, Pa., June 3.—Resenting a statement made by President David Starr Jordan, of Leland Stanford University, in his address at the commencement exercises of Bryn Mawr College today, Professor Lucien Foulet, instructor in French literature, arose from his seat on the platform, and, exclaiming "It is not so," left the building. President Jordan's subject was "War and Mankind."

"Spain, Italy and France," said Mr. Jordan, "show the effect of their blood-stained battlefields. France by her own confession is a weak and decadent nation."

These remarks caused Professor Foulet to leave the room.

Dr. Jordan's statement was made with emphasis and he paused a moment to give it added force. The next instant Professor Foulet appeared at the front of the platform, his face scarlet.

Turning squarely in front of the speaker, the professor raised his hand and screamed: "It is not so. France is not decadent."

There was a moment of suspense and then a murmur of various expressions. Professor Foulet bowed low to Mr. Jordan and then walked down the steps of the stage with great dignity. Dr. Jordan was as surprised as was the audience and was much embarrassed. After the Frenchman had left the building he made a movement as if to retire. Then he said:

"If there are no more interrupters, I will continue."

There was silence, and the professor concluded his address. The incident had the effect of throwing a damper upon all the exercises.

WASHINGTON WILL BOOST

New Secretary of State Decides to Send Weekly Letter to Papers.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 3.—(Special.)—Weekly news letters boosting Washington are to be issued hereafter from the office of the Secretary of State for publication in state and Eastern newspapers. Secretary I. M. Howell announced today he believes this plan will accomplish much more good than his old scheme of publishing a booster book every two years. The letters will contain crop reports, data about new Washington industries and generally all information about the state that has a news and general interest.

PULLS NAIL FROM HIS EYE

Centralia Bricklayer Victim of Peculiar and Serious Mishap.

CENTRALIA, June 3.—(Special.)—W. J. Underwood, a bricklayer of this city, met with a serious accident this morning while driving a 39-penny spike. A glancing blow was struck the nail, which flew out of the wood and entered Underwood's eyeball and stuck there. He removed it with his hand. It is not yet known whether the sight has been destroyed or not. A specialist is treating him, and thinks it possible to save the sight.

"EMPIRE BUILDER" SUBPENAED IN CAR

Hill Must Be Witness in Gordon Case.

DEPUTY FINDS HIM IN DARK

Great Northern Magnate Says He Will Be on Hand.

LOUIS HILL FIRST SOUGHT

Railroader Was on Way to East When Process-Server Interrupted Journey So Grand Jury Could Quiz Him.

SPOKANE, June 3.—James J. Hill, chairman of the Great Northern board of directors, while passing through Spokane on his way East tonight, was served with a subpoena at the Northern Pacific Depot summoning him to appear before Spokane County grand jury in the case of M. J. Gordon, ex-counsel of the Great Northern against whom seven indictments for embezzlement have been brought.

Prosecuting Attorney Pugh has long been trying to get President Louis W. Hill to appear before the grand jury in the Gordon case, and failing in that he determined to seize this opportunity to get James J. Hill. It was the first time that a legal paper of this nature had been served on the magnate in such a manner.

Hill Caught in Dark.

Mr. Hill was sitting near the rear door of his private car. There was no light in the apartment when the Deputy Sheriff appeared, but the heavy form and beard of the "empire builder" were plainly discernible by the flickering light which came from the yard lights.

"Mr. Hill?" asked the Deputy Sheriff.

"Yes," was the response.

"I have a subpoena here for you, Mr. Hill."

"Oh, yes," replied the magnate, apparently unconcerned. "When is it returnable?"

"It is returnable tomorrow, June 4," was the reply.

Must Appear in Court.

If Mr. Hill refuses to obey the subpoena a bench warrant may be issued for him. Should he ignore that, he will be in contempt of court.

"Do you accept service?" inquired the officer, as Mr. Hill took the proffered subpoena.

"Yes, certainly," he responded.

"Will you be there," was the next question put by the officer.

"What time does it call for me to appear?"

"At 9 o'clock at the Courthouse."

"Yes," replied the magnate, "that will be easy for me."

Mr. Hill spent the night in his private

SUFFRAGISTS ARE PUT OUT OF HALL

They Interrupt Tuberculosis Convention Speaker.

"Votes for Women," They Yell in Whitechapel Gallery—Police Routs Them.

LONDON, June 3.—(Special.)—The strong speech of John Burns, president of the local government board, last night at the opening of the tuberculosis convention in White Chapel art gallery, was repeatedly interrupted by woman suffragists, who cried "Votes for women will make conditions of human life less baneful."

Mr. Burns finally lost his temper and demanded that his interrupters be put out immediately. A man in the audience shouted:

"Don't talk like that, John."

"Put him out too," retorted Burns.

"Things have come to a fine pass when one cannot fight the white plague without having at the same time to fight the suffragette plague."

"Votes for women," was the reply that came back from all parts of the hall. The interrupters, fighting and screaming were at length removed from the room, by the police.

Mr. Burns pronounced the exhibition the most useful he had ever known in London. "It shows," he said, "the ravages of tuberculosis and how to prevent and how to cure a disease more destructive than war."

SAY CHILD WAS KIDNAPED

Goodmans Accuse Popellos of Forcefully Detaining Girl.

STOCKTON, Cal., June 3.—(Special.)—Mrs. J. H. Goodman, whose little 12-year-old daughter, Viola, disappeared last Sunday and was missing until Tuesday, declares that the Popello family in the Falroaks as good as kidnaped her and held her prisoner. The little girl went to church Sunday and was induced by the Popellos to go home with them. She remained during the day, and on starting home was urged to remain longer.

During the evening, she asserts, she tried to leave, but found the doors locked, and she was held a prisoner until liberated on a search warrant sworn out by her parents and served by Deputy Sheriff Hackett.

The mother says that she is not acquainted with the Popello family. Just what action will follow the Goodmans have not decided upon.

AUTO FLIES FROM BRIDGE

One Man Killed and Two Hurt in Accident at Seattle.

SEATTLE, June 3.—Henry Haines, a garage employe, was killed this afternoon when an automobile in which he and his friends were riding jumped off the fourth-avenue South bridge at Holgate street. George Knox, who was driving the machine, and J. C. Cushman, the other member of the party, escaped death only by jumping as the automobile went off the trestle. Haines did not jump, but stuck to the running-board as the car crashed through the railing. Knox and Cushman were slightly injured.

Knox is being held by the police pending an investigation by the coroner. It is charged that the accident was due to fast driving. Knox says that the car was not running very fast, but that he lost control of it and was unable to round a sharp curve in the trestle.

OIL FOUND IN ARIZONA

Stampedé to Tacnac Follows Discovery in Old Mine.

YUMA, Ariz., June 3.—Locators of oil lands who have returned to Yuma from the scene of the discoveries near Tacnac report immense excitement in that district. The original find was made by Henry Laudensilk, who, cleaning out the shaft of an abandoned mine a few days ago, found on the 110-foot level a fluid he believed to be oil.

His discovery was confirmed by others and the news of the find spread rapidly. Every foot of land in the vicinity has been filed upon. An oil expert will visit the district and report upon its value.

USED OLD STAMP, FREED

U. S. District Judge Grills Inspector for Arrest of Woman.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 3.—Judge A. B. Anderson of the United States District Court, Indiana, because Mrs. Ida Holt, of Scottsburg, had been brought before him on the charge of using a canceled 2-cent postage stamp, released the woman today. He also severely rebuked the inspector who had caused the arrest. The prisoner explained that she had left a consumptive husband and a baby at home.

QUAKE LASTS TWO HOURS

Manila Seismograph Indicates Big Tremor About 1860 Miles Away.

MANILA, June 4.—Beginning at 2:46 o'clock and continuing until 5:02 o'clock this morning, the seismographs at the observatory here registered an intense seismic disturbance. It is estimated that the earthquake was 200 to 300 kilometers distant. The record corresponds closely to that obtained in February, 1900, during the earthquake in Java and Sumatra.

MOUNTAIN SNOWS FILL BIG RIVERS

Flood Conditions Prevail in Northwest.

SNAKE RIVER IS NEAR RECORD

Stream Within .2 Foot of Highest Stage Known.

RAILROADS SUFFER LOSSES

Bridges Carried Out and Hundreds of Feet of Roadbed Washed Away—Canada Suffers Much Damage.

LEWISTON, Idaho, June 3.—(Special.)—Lewiston is experiencing the highest water since 15 years ago today, when practically one-half of the business district and much of the residence section was submerged. The Snake River at that time registered about 15 feet, and the reading this evening is 17.8 feet, with every indication of a further rise tomorrow. The city is in no danger of flood damage at this time, because of the high railroad dykes which afford ample protection on both river fronts.

The Clearwater River has been rising rapidly for the past several days and reports received tonight from Kamiah, 50 miles above Lewiston, stated all of the falsework and one of the cement piers for the new wagon bridge being constructed there have been carried away.

Old-timers who have experienced several of the most severe floods believe the highest water has been reached unless warm rains prevail within the next two days. The snow has disappeared from the Blue Mountain from the Lewiston view, and in past years this has been regarded as indicative of an early subsiding of the waters.

Up to this time no severe damage has been reported from any section.
