SHIPPING TRADE LESSENS

Last Lot of California Berries for the Season Is Received-Strong Demand for Hop Contracts.

Grain Trade Dull.

The local strawberry season is now on in earnest. The home crop is ripening fast. Offerings at the public market on the fast Offerings at the public market on the East Side yesterday morning were fairly large and today will be heavy. With the opening up of the farmers' market, the strawberry trade of Front street will deciline and after this week but little business will be done in this line by jobbers. There are shipping points in the Valley, however, that have no other outlet than Portland, and these will continue to ship to the commission men.

The last California strawberries of the season were received restorday. Their quality was uneven and they sold at from 50 cents to $1.25 per crate.

At the market Lovetts brought $2.75 and Clark Seedlings $3.25. On the street some poor stock was offered at $1.75, but most of the business was around $3. Springbrooks at $2.75@2, and Clackamas County Clark Seedlings at $3.50. A price of $3.75 was set on Hood Rivers, but some sold at

Strawborries will be cheaper next week, but it is not likely that prices will be low at any time, as the crop in near-by sections

HOPS NOT HELPED VERY MUCH. Late Rains Were of Some Benefit, but Less Thun Expected.

Hopdesiers who have inspected the Oregon yards since the recent rains express much disappointment at the showing made. There of course, been come improvement, but etent authority entimates that the yards that are in good normal condition do not mount to over 5 per cent of the whole, while unds of acres that will not oduce over half a crop. Under the ofcometances there is naturally a strong disposition to make contracts, and 13 cents is being freely offered for the new crop, but with small success. A sale of 73 bales of 1908s at D cents is reported and there is also some demand for olds

Further confirmation of the grubbing up of hops in Europe is furnished by Adolf Heller, who writes from Prague, Bohemia, as fol-heps from sale.

Manger & Henley, London-There is no change to report in our market. The demand is still very restricted. Values un-nitured.

J. H. Moredith & Co., Worcester—Trade remains very quiet, and only six pockets of growers hope passed the public scales last week. Inquiry is mostly for healthy medium qualities which exist previous values, prices for other descriptions being quite nomina. In the plantations tring is now in full swing, but it is feared that the frostynights and cold winds will be prejudicial to healthy growth.

Excited Speculation in Stock Market.

CAUSES ARE A MYSTERY

Six-Point Jumps in Southern Pacific and United States Steel. Entire List Is Affected.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The securities market in New York today was repiete with sensations and the causes lying back of the various fluctuations in the price movements were kept velled from public knowledge.

That such causes exteed and were of substantial nature was taken for granted on account of the convincing evidence presented by the tape itself. It will be difficult to conceive of suy such reckless and on account of the convincing evidence presented by the tape itself. It will be difficult to conceive of first such reckless and prodigal lavishing of resources as would be involved in a purely manipulative movement in Southern Pacific, such as its upward rush of more than six points on dealings in 5000 shares.

These features of the movement prompted the inforence that buying came from persons informed of some forthcoming planiavolving the finances or organization of the company.

some informed of some forthooming plan involving the finances or organization of the company.

The senior company, the Union Pacific was tardy in responding to the excited advance in Southern Pacific and, at one time, sold off to a lower price than it closed last night. Later in the day it came into the movement more fully.

Before the Southern Pacific movement became fully effective in its sympathetic influence on the general list, some degree of apprehension existed over the market conditions presented by the syndicate plan for introducing United States Steel on the Paris Hourse.

It was feared that the continued ries in United States Steel might thus hurt the general market. Each of detailed information on the scope of the Paris operation in United States Steel left room for wide surmises.

Confident assumptions were indulged in that an early increase in the rate of divident disbursements might be interred for the Steel shares, since the principal banking interest in the property was lending itself to the flotation of the steek in the market at a price requiring a birther dividend than now paid. The remarkable six-point jump in United States Steel preferred had no other explanation than the increase in the security of the return growing out of the expansion in carnings.

The whole market became very active and summated before the close of the day, but the indusnees ruling in all radiated from the impressive operations in the Harriman stocks and in United States Steel.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $10,073,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Weakness of Leading Grain Markets of Europe - Drouth Reports From Argentina Ignored-Record Markets in Corn Pit.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The feature of trading in the wheat pit was the selling of a large line of the July delivery and the purchasing of liberal quantities of the December option by a prominent commission house. The July delivery was subjected to heavy selling pressure the greater part of the day. The principal weakening influences uses the continued favorable weather in this country and the moderate weakness of several leading grain markets of Europe. Fresh reports from Argentina claimed that the drouth still continued and this and other bullish advices were seemingly famored. During the day July ranged between $1.18% and $1.20. Closing quotations on July were $1.18% @1.18%, and September, $1.10%.

The high-record marks for the season were established in the corn market when July sold at 780 and September at 69%c. Sentiment was deededly bullish all day. The range in July was between 70272%c and 73c. The close was strong with prices up %c to 1871%c, at the high point of the season.
