TO SELL CHURCH SOUVENIR

Ladies' Aid Society of Sunnyside Church Plans Campaign.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church of Sunnyside has arranged one of the most unique and up-to-date affairs yet. The society made a request of the City Council some weeks ago for the purpose of having one day during the Rose Festival in which to sell to Portland visitors from all over the state a beautiful souvenir of the handsome stone church which the congregation is erecting at the corner of Yamhill and Thirty-fifth streets.

The request was granted and now the women are all astir making the final arrangements. They have invited into the work and to share the proceeds all the aid societies in their own denomination in the city. Some have responded. The representation of the new church

WANTS $5100 FOR SHIP.

John Anderson sued James Wilson for $500 damages because Anderson caught his foot in Wilson's sidewalk, and falling, sustained a broken wrist. Circuit Judge Cleland decided yesterday that Anderson is not entitled to anything. Wilson, who lives at 163 East Sixteenth street, said he hired a man named Johnson to haul 11 loads of gravel into his yard, and that in doing so Johnson broke the wooden sidewalk.
