MAYOR SAYS NAY

He Deems $3000 Exorbitant for Park Acres.

CHEAP, ASSERTS BOARD

Land Situated in Hazelfern Tract, Controlled by Ladd—Executive Refuses to Sign Letter Tendering Coin—Site Appraised.

Mayor Lane does not believe that certain land in the Hazel Fern tract, owned and controlled by the Ladd estate, is worth $3000 an acre, and he so stated to the members of the Park Board, at a meeting yesterday morning. In this view, however, he stood alone, for all of the Commissioners declared themselves as of the opinion that the price stated is very reasonable. The rate was fixed by a board of appraisers, named by authority of the City Council. The Mayor appears to feel that the money to secure this tract might be spent better elsewhere, probably for smaller tracts, to be used as playgrounds.

WAKE UP PORTLAND FOLK!

Are you eating the ice-car cold storage meats—both beef and mutton—which the Beef Trust is bringing to our city from other states? Or are you eating Smith's absolutely fresh city dressed meats? You'll have to admit that during these warm days you want your family to eat the cleanest and freshest food obtainable—and the only place where you are sure of getting absolutely fresh meat is at a Smith market. When you come to Alder street, be sure to pass up the Beef Trust markets and their ice-car cold storage meats. No Beef Trust market will admit it is selling such meats. No, no, but here is absolute proof.

CARNIVAL SALE.

Everybody should "dress up" for the Rose Show. Today we offer extra special bargains in the Ladies' Suit Department in sample suits, waists, silk Petticoats and house dresses. McAllen-McDonnell, popular dry goods store, corner Third and Morrison.
