PLANS FOR NEW POSTOFFICE.— That plans for a Postoffice building for Portland to cost $2,50,000 are being prepared by the supervising architect of the Postoffice Department at Washington, was the information contained in a letter received yesterday from Senator Bourne by Postmaster Young. Senator Bourne expressed the view that the matter of a new Postoffice building is no longer a mere probability. The plans in question will be taken by Senator Bourne before the Senate committee on Postoffices and from this committee will come the recommendation to Congress as to the kind of building required by this city. Postmaster Young has been forwarding to Washington every argument for the new building.

THIRTY-FIVE DENTALS QUIZZED,-Only 35 out of 60 applicants appeared before the State Board of Dental Examiners yes-terday, and of the 30 graduates of the North Pacific Dental College, only 12 chose to take their examinations for licenses. To give the applicants an op-portunity to enjoy the Bose Festival the beginning of the examinations. beginning of the examinations was post-post-poned from yesterday afternoon until this morning. One woman applicant ap-peared before the quizzers. Others were practitioners from the East. The 18 graduates from the North Pacific Dental College who did not register for examination are supposed to have gone to other states. It is reported that 79 applied for examination in Washington. RECOUNTS ARMENIAN OUTRAGES.-Rev.

RECOUNTS ARMENIAN OUTRAGES.—Rev. M. B. Parounagian, a native Armenian and pastor of the Gresham Methodist Church read a paper at the Portland Ministerial Association yesterday, on the Armenian persecutions. He gave a graphic account of the outrages that have been committed upon the Christians in that region. Mr. Parounagian closed in that region. in that region. Mr. Parounagian closed his paper with an appeal to Americans not to stand by indifferently as the European nations have done. The nominating committee, Pastors Sharp, Mc-Dougal and Monroe, was appointed to select officers to be named at the Fall meeting of the association.

DEATH OF J. M. LABERTEANS. J. M. Laberteans died Sunday, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. I. D. Peters, at the age of 7 years. Mr. Laberteane was the age of 77 years. Mr. Labertsane was bern in Cayuga County, New York, later moving to Marshall, Mich., where for many years he was a prominent business man. He was married in 1851, to Miss Eunice E. AID DAY JUNE 12-The beautiful sour o be sold by the ladles of Sunny-on Ald day, is worthy of the at-on of anyone interested in the futention of anyone interested in the fu-ture of Portland. It will make a very nice article to send to friends in the East whom you desire to get interested in the upbuilding of Portland. The ladies will aim to sell to all outside parties as well as to Portland. This will help very much in the permanent upbuilding of Portland. The ladies are to be com-mended for their zeal and energy in this work.

FIGHT OVER POLITICS.—Because FIGHT OVER FOLITICS—Hecause one abused the other's political affiliations, both Thomas Boyd and Dan Mattiss must appear in the Municipal Court on the charge of being disorderly by fighting. Bystanders say there can be no question about the guilt of the two men, as pugilistic art was portrayed in many of its aspects about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at Fourth and Jefferson streets. blackened eyes and bloody noses were the principal injuries.

COLUMBIA RIVER SCENIC EXCURSION. — Daily (except Thursday) on steamer Bailey Gatzert, leaving Alder-street dock, at 9 A. M. returning at 5:30 P. M. East-ern visitors to Portland should not fall to make this renowned trip. See the Co-humbla at a flood, stage and the moun-tains in all their grandeur. Excellent service and fine meals. GETS FACTS FOR LECTURE.-I. N. Mount, a prominent business man of New York, is spending a few days in Portland making observations and collecting data making observations and collecting data with which to furnish material for a lecture. Mr. Mount and other rich men of the Eastern metropolis are carrying out a plan of education, the principal object of which is to inform residents of the great city where they live of the resources and attractions of various parts of the country. They undertake this work at their own personal expense, believing that those who do not have the opportunity to travel should be informed concerning the vasitiess of the country. Mr. Mount, accompanied by Tom Richardson of the Commercial Club, made a tour of the city yesterday and will secure views of different points of interest and business districts which will be used to illustrate the lecture.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Will Commence Giving Free Cooking

START ON PAVEMENT.— The Hassam Paving Company has succeeded in getting some crushed rock and yesterday began covering the west side of Grand avenue southward from Belmont street. Even at this late day every effort will be put forth to get the west side paved so it can be used next Friday night by the children's parade.

PULLED BRINGE DOWN.—The old elevated roadway across Stephens Slough, on Grand avenue, has been pulled down preparatory to filling the slough, and the timbers are being pulled out of the way. A track has been laid in along the west side of Grand avenue on the sawdust embankment on which the dump cars will be run.

Lessons Wednesday.

Mrs. T. B. Wheelock, of St. Paul, lecturer on cooking and domestic economy, and so well known throughout the country for her advanced knowledge in this line, will commence her work of giving free cooking lessons Wednesday.

New Bills Open at the Vaudeville Houses

THERE is a thrilling moment for any-BY ARTHUR A. GREENE. one who has a thrill left in his system at the Orpheum. There are many interesting moments, but one holds a real sensation. The spectacle of three thoroughbreds racing across the stage in a driving finish at the close of Edmund Day's little one-act drama, "The Futur-The race is worked out similarly to the famous charlot race in similarly to the famous charlot race in "Ben Hur." but the effect secured is even more realistic. No matter how busy you may be, drop into the Orpheum long enough this week to see that great horse-race. It will make the cold chiffs of enthusiasm course up and down your spine. The programme is another one of those "knockouts" which the management has been giving us lately and is good, even in the light of comparison with last week's remarkably fine offering. James Thornton, a well-known monologist and composer of popular songs, among them "She May Have Seen Better Days," "My Sweetheart's the Man in the Moon," distributes a quality of humorous talk that interest of the Irrigation Congress which is to meet in Spokane for five days beginning August 9. A large sum has been pledged for the entertainment of visitors and for decoration of the city.

OUTING CLASS PLANS TRIE.—The outing class for women, under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Chapman Cady, who is giving the lecture course in nature study for the Congress of Mothers, at the Unitarian Chapel, will leave on the 8:55 o'clock train, on Wednesday morning, from the Salem Electric depot, at the foot of Jefferson street, for Capitol Hill. Those interested in nature study are invited to join the class.

Grand.

A NIECE of the late lamented martyr President in the person of Mabel McKinley, herself a song writer of note. and one of the most pleasing of mezzo sopranos now before the public dominates the present bill at the Grand. Miss Mc-Kinley offers a number of catchy song numbers, in some of them accompanying herself on the plano. Her pleasing personality and the purity and sweetness of her tones capitvate the audience at the outset and hold the attention throughout. One might wish that Miss McKinley would some day lose her Ohlo accent, but aside from this objection there is no room

A quartet consisting of Borden, Zeno and Hayden brothers give a 15-minute turn called "Bits of Vaudeville" that is calculated to make the passe vaudeville patron renew his interest in things.

"The Story of the Rose" is a sentimental little playlet, most appropriate to mental little playlet, most appropriate to the Rose Festival scason. It serves to awaken real heart interest and in the hands of Robert H. Bertram and com-pany is one of the best features of the current bill.

Next is a female impersonator calling himself "The Great Le Roy." That is quite enough. Nothing can be said for the serves.
