

RIVAL BALLOONS EACH GAIN HONOR

University City Wins Prize for Distance, Indiana for Endurance.

SOAR 14,000 FEET IN AIR

One Winner Covers 375 Miles in
25 1-2 Hours, Other Air Craft Is
Up 16 Hours, but Only
Travels 230 Miles.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 8.—Cal G. Fisher, of Indianapolis, pilot of the balloon Indiana in the National balloon race, has won the trophy which he offered to the balloon staying longest in the air.

Mr. Fisher said tonight over the telephone from Nashville that he had landed last night about 7 miles from Tennessee City, Tenn. According to this information the balloon had been in the air 46 hours.

The balloon University City has apparently won the distance contest, having traveled about 375 miles, while the Indiana traveled only 230 miles.

ST. LOUIS, June 8.—Confident that he is the winner of the National balloon race, which began at Indianapolis Saturday, John Berry, pilot of the balloon University City, arrived home tonight, accompanied by his wife, P. J. McCullough. The balloon landed on Freestone Peak of Lookout Mountain at 7 o'clock Sunday evening. Berry was in the air 56 hours and 35 minutes, and he figured that he had covered 375 miles.

The University City passed over Chattanooga, Tenn., at 2:30 o'clock Sunday, and gained an altitude of 10,000 feet Sunday evening. The balloon could not find favorable currents to the South, and after they discovered they were beginning to go northward they made a quick descent. Mr. Berry said they could have landed in the air 36 hours longer if the wind had been favorable.

The exact time made by the University City is not yet known. The distance record is 363 miles, made in 1907 by the German balloon Pommern, starting at St. Louis and landing at Asbury Park, N. J.

Carl Fisher, pilot of the Indiana, says the weather was delightful until they came near Nashville, when they struck a current of air which carried them to an altitude of 14,000 feet, and they had to resort to overcaution. Mr. Fisher said he did not understand the story that the balloon had landed near Goodlettsville Sunday. The Indiana was in the air 48 1/2 hours.

BALLOON GRAZES STEAMSHIP

Passengers on Potsdam Expect Collision, but Are Disappointed.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Passengers on the steamer Potsdam, which arrived today from Rotterdam and Boulogne, witnessed a unique maneuver by a balloon off the Belgian coast. The balloon appeared to be descending so rapidly that preparations were made to launch a boat and rescue the occupants. The balloon swept down towards the steamer.

As it was about to graze the mast a snagging was made, and the balloon rose slightly and gradually moving toward the Belgian coast was lost sight of. There were two men in the car, who made no intelligible response to efforts made to communicate with them.

OLD INDIANS TO MARRY

Buck Aged 80 to Take Squaw Whose Age is Only 50.

CHEHALIS, Wash., June 8.—(Special.)—An aged Indian named Atson Stockman, and a squaw named Mary Spohr are applicants through a friend here for a marriage license. Stockman is 80 years old, and his bride is 50. Justice Mehl, of Toledo, wrote County Auditor Swafford that the couple had been living together for a long while and it was generally supposed they were married. Recently, however, it developed they were not, although they had even given deeds for certain property. When the Toledo Justice made the startling discovery that Indians had never been legally married, he arranged for their wedding, and just as soon as possible transferred the deed for property hereafter transferred to which was clouded by the discovery that no marriage had ever been previously celebrated.

NEW MASSACRE IN TURKEY

Executions Provoke Fanatics to Denounce Sultan as Infidel.

BERLIN, June 8.—The Taghabatt's Aleppo correspondent states that the Turkish authorities last week executed 12 of the leaders, including six Armenians, concerned in the Adana massacres. The energetic course of the government, the correspondent adds, caused the populace in the region between Alexandretta and the mountains to begin a new massacre, in which about 100 persons were slain. The Young Turk committee did everything possible to prevent the disorders, but needs reinforcements, however. The situation occasions great anxiety among the agitators denouncing the Sultan as an infidel, who has sold himself.

WHITNEY NOT GUILTY

SUPREME COURT REVERSES LOWER COURT.

Insane Woman Allowed to Keep Her Land—Other Decisions of Higher Tribunal.

SALEM, Or., June 8.—(Special.)—The Supreme Court, in an opinion written by Justice Eakin, today reversed the action of the lower court, which found Dr. G. B. Whitney, of Forest Grove, guilty of the death of Mabel Wirtz. The case was tried before Judge J. B. Cleland in Multnomah County and the doctor found guilty of manslaughter. The Appellate Court finds the indictment was insufficient, inasmuch as it "does not charge involuntary manslaughter under section 1745, E. & C. Comp."

The complaint against the three clerks of Kiesel was dismissed today. The details will not be made public until after ratification by the Pennsylvania court that appointed George D. Earle, Jr., receiver of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company. If such ratification is not made, the case will have to be retried.

WILL TRY TO PLEASE ALL

Great Northern Official Talks of Spokane Tangle from His Side.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 8.—(Special.)—"The thing is badly mixed up and the difficulties which confront us in our endeavor to satisfactorily arrange the tariff seem to multiply as we proceed."

This was the confession made today by a high official of the Great Northern, in speaking of the Spokane rates, which will be discussed at a hearing of the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington today.

Continuing, the same official stated that the principal object of the hearing was to afford Western shippers a chance to be heard before the new tariff prepared by the railroads goes into effect. Referring to the tariffs prepared by the railroads concerned, which make some reduction in 200 commodity rates to Spokane, in place of the heavy reduction in 22 rates ordered by the Commission, he said the tariff which the roads desire to substitute for that ordered by the Commission is the practical and logical tariff.

"There are so many interests involved, we cannot hope to please everybody," he continued. "Railroads will put in what they believe to be a fair tariff and will stand by it."

He added he hoped the problem would be solved at the coming hearing, but was not at all sure of it.

Jules M. Hannaford, vice-president and general traffic manager of the Northern Pacific, will represent the Hill line at today's hearing, and I. B. Miller, general freight agent of the O. R. & N., the Harriman lines.

SHE'S MRS. GUGGENHEIM

Christian and he was afraid his family would not give its consent.

They lived at the Hotel Manhattan, New York, until December 31, 1900, when Mr. Guggenheim, she says, told her that he had decided to leave her, as his family was unalterably opposed to their marriage. The defendant then went to Europe. After many efforts to get Mr. Guggenheim to return to her, the complainant stated, she finally consented to sue for a divorce on the advice of Daniel Guggenheim, one of the defendant's brothers. It was suggested that she go to South Dakota for four months and file suit there, but she refused. It was finally decided that the suit should be filed in Chicago.

After the decree was obtained, the complainant says, she returned to New York and soon afterwards married Mr. Wahl.

When she obtained an annulment of their marriage, she believed herself free to marry again. On consulting her attorney, she was advised that the Chicago divorce was void and that she was still Guggenheim's wife.
