After playing the regulation nine innings of a ball game yesterday, the Portland Sacramento teams topped the performance with nine more innings, and after Portland missed a chance to win out in the 18th, Umpire McGreevy called things off with the score tied at one run cach.

Loose playing by the Portlanders gave Sacramento the first run of the game in the 18th, but Ote Johnson got the homerun habit once more and his terrific drive over the right garden wall tied the proposition up in a bowknot and the gallant athletes struggled along four more innings until the ump, interfered.

Jack Graney, the Portland southpaw, occupled the hilltop and pitched a remarkable game. In the first eight innings Sacramento found him for 11 hits, but the smiling wrong-sider succeeded in retiring the Senators runless until the 14th.

the Senators runless until the 14th.

In this inning Jimmy Shinn was the first uum up. He hit a bounder to Olson, who heaved high and wide of Ort, putting Shinn on the paths. Doyle sacrificed neatly and a passed ball by Fisher advanced Shinn to third station. "Steamer" Flangagan pulled off the bit and you have the paths. neatly and a passed ball by Fisher advanced Shinn to third station. "Steamer" Flanagan pulled off the hit-and-run play, scoring Shinn, and as Graney made a believed to be the saven double plays in the game nipped Flanagan as well as Jimmy Byrnes. Still, that one run looked as big as a house to the fans, and some of them missed the glorious sequel by leaving the grounds. Jack Fitzgerald was on the mound for Sacramento and the clever right-hander pitched fine ball. Still he might have come our victor with that one run had he not missed fire on Ote Johnson. Captain Ote was the first Portlander up in the lith, and he was determined to hit the ball. His success was not realized for a moment, and when the bugs saw that ball sailing higher and higher over the right garden wall, and Flanagan looking sky ward expectantly, only to turn aside discusted? skyward expectantly, only to turn aside disgustedly as it salled away, the crowd slimply went wild. The fans were not half as buggy as were the Portland players, who rushed Ote and escorted him triumphantly to the home plate after he had rounded third. Ote had two more chances to win the game, but Fitzgerald settled down and disposed of the Portland capitain easily.

When it began to grow dark, about the 18th. Umpire MGreevy decided it was time to quit, and called the game. Garrett and Brown will be the opposing pitchers today. The official score of yesterday's game is as follows:

Big Eddle Kinsella came through with a shutout against Tacoma yesterday, and Portland pounded Baker for II binglets.

Jack Graney pitched on of the best games of the season yesterday, despite the numerous hits collected by the Sena-tors. Jack was there in the pinches.

Sacramento showed what can be done with that bit-and-run game, for they registered their only run on such a play. Kennedy tried to do the same thing for Portland in the 18th, but he popped Portland in a fly to Byrnes.

George Ort again played a swell game at first base. The more one sees this lad play that bag, the more admiration is felt for his work. Dick Breen and Olson handled a number of difficult chances around that joystone station. The two were kept quite busy at all times

Charley Graham was the hitting kid yesterday, for he connected for enough bingles to last him a couple of weeks. However, none of them counted, as two were out whenever he came to bat. Jimmy Wiggs seems to be the hard-luck pitcher of the Oakland squad. He has pitched a number of good games but lost them by one run. Yesterday's 24-inning affair is the hardest kind of luck.

BOSTON. June 8.—Speaker's single similar to that of a Welbach gas mantle, which surrounds the mre and is heated to incandescence thereby.

TACOMA, Wash., June 8.—(Special.)—Behind the classy pitching of Kinsella Casey's Colfs today gave an exhibition of big league fielding, and this is the reason Tacoma got nothing but goose-way with only ordinary support, for whenever a run threstened he tightened up and struck out the best batters on the Tiger staff, but at least one run would have clattered over the pan had it not been for Bassey's perfect throw from left, which nipped the batter at the plate when he tried to score from second on Kippert's single. A great spring and catch by Adams robbed Kelackey of what looked like a certain three-bagger.

Porfland won the game in the first inning when with two down Bassey and Adams doubled in succession. Just to make it doubly secure they added two more in the sixth. Staton got a life on an error, took second on Fournier's infield hit and Kinsella's line drive over second, scored him. Cassey bunted and beat it out, Cooney's infield bounder forced Fournier at the plate, then Baker lost control and walked Bassey, forcing in a run. Adams struck out.

In practically every inning the Colts got on bases and it was only by clever fielding they were prevented from running up the score. The number of Portlanders left on bases or cut down at the plate was remarkable. Casey's fielding was a feature. Tacowa
