

FEAST OF ROSES REACHES CLIMAX

New Wonders Shown in Great Parades.

CROWDS ARE LARGEST OF WEEK

Gaily Decorated Horses and Vehicles in Day Pageant.

FLOATS AT NIGHT DAZZLE

Story of Oregon Told in Allegory in Unique Creations That Pass Along Streets Walled With People.

TODAY'S PROGRAMME AND LIST OF EVENTS FOR TOMORROW.
 7:45 A. M.—Arrival of M. Jussard and French Ambassador.
 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.—Open house and general welcome by all business firms of Portland.
 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.—Loan exhibit of paintings at Museum of Art, Fifth and Taylor streets, free.
 9 A. M.—Scottish Rite Masons' reunion.
 1:30 P. M.—Reunion Oregon Pioneer Association.
 2 P. M.—Riverdale Driving Club races at Country Club track.
 2 to 3 P. M.—Japanese daylight fireworks, East Portland.
 8:19 P. M.—Palm's fireworks and special programme at Oaks Park.
Saturday.
 Annual meeting of the Hunt Club; Scottish Rite Masons; racing events at Country Club; automobile road races; electrical parade repeated at night in farewell of the Festival King.

In this week of festive events, when the metropolis of a great domain is parading and displaying the symbols of its wondrous wealth and beauty, it was thought the heights of magnificence had been attained in the floral pageants and displays of the early week. But the fullest expression of Portland's splendor came with the horse and vehicle procession of yesterday afternoon; the full wealth of the Oregon domain was told in dazzling allegory by the illuminated pageant of last night.

Such regal splendor has never before been assembled into a single day in Portland, possibly in no other of the favored points of the earth. Such immense assemblages have never before been seen on the streets of the city.

Record Crowds at Night.
 While the decorated horse and vehicle procession must take its place as the bright particular event in this week of big things, the imposing and spectacular night parade will long be recalled as the occasion of Portland's largest and most enthusiastic crowds.

It's hard to say how many people were abroad last night. They were massed along miles of streets. Surely the number can't be far from 300,000. Not only was the whole city abroad, young and old, but the suburban points were depopulated and the cities within traveling distance were decimated. Necessarily smaller in dimensions were the throngs of the afternoon, for the business of the city could not be stopped altogether and thousands of workmen had to remain at their posts. However, it is conservatively estimated that no fewer than 125,000 saw the superb line.

Line Perfect in Detail.
 It was the consummation of the effort to express Portland's floral beauty and gay spirit. The line was perfect in its every appointment. Roses in hundreds of thousands and of every tint, were utilized in the panorama of exquisite floral designs. Spirited horses, decked in garlanded harness and drawing vehicles replete with roses, superb horsemasters and horse women, gaily clad, sumptuous floats surfaced in flowers, stirring bands, separated by judicious intervals, and a score of attractive special features were assembled in a compact line that extended over three miles of streets.

In its organization, the column was perfect. There was no confusion and no delay. A grasp of detail was apparent which may be taken as a lagging tribute to those who planned and directed the column. Then 2 o'clock came, Henry L. Pittock, grand marshal, gave rein to his blooded mount and the line was off. It is a remarkable thing in itself that there were no stragglers.

Cheered All Along Route.
 Spontaneous enthusiasm marked the appearance of the line and the cheering never waned while the column was passing over the five miles of its course. A squad of mounted police forced a narrow channel for the procession. This channel was broadened by a platoon of police, behind which rode Grand Marshal Pittock, who was roundly applauded all along the route.

One hundred policemen, in dress uniform, and formed in three battalions, headed by the police band, followed the grand marshal and his aides. The police were in command of Senior Captain John P. Moore.

Girls in Flower Drills.
 Thereafter the regal column unrolled

EVERY WINDOW A MINT TO LATHER

HE MAKES GRANDSTAND OF BUILDING UNDER WAY.

Taxed All Who Entered, Including the Owner—Festival May Get the Coin.

Vantage points from which to review last night's Rose Festival street parade were sought eagerly. It was due perhaps to this general demand for desirable view points which attracted the attention of C. K. Henry to the fact that the windows of each of the five floors of his uncompleted office building at Fourth and Oak streets were filled with interested spectators. Concerned as to the safety of the building from the possible careless depositing of discarded cigarettes or cigars, and at the same time wondering how so many trespassers had gained access to the building, Mr. Henry concluded to investigate. Approaching the entrance, he found at the door one of the boss lathers, employed in the construction of the building, who insisted on an admission charge. To this Mr. Henry demurred and, upon disclosing his identity, was permitted to pass the gauntlet. Commencing with those who had been granted access to the building, the owner of the building learned that the interested spectators had been required to pay from 10 cents to 50 cents to gain admission to view the demonstration.

This was a surprise to Mr. Henry, who will today advise the enterprising lather that unless he immediately turns over to the management of the Rose Festival Association every cent he collected last night at the expense of the owner of the building, he may at once become equally industrious in seeking employment elsewhere.

WOMAN CRUSHED BY AUTO

Machine Runs Into Sidewalk; Driver Scoots Without Aiding Victim.

A big red touring car, directed by an unknown chauffeur, ran into the corner of the sidewalk at Washington and West Park streets yesterday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock and pinned Mrs. L. M. Bowman, 168 Chapman street, to a telephone post located on the edge of the sidewalk. Mrs. Bowman was crushed against the post severely and aside from bruises and perhaps internal injuries, her right arm was crushed below the elbow.

The victim of the unmanageable machine became unconscious and was carried into the Eilers Piano House, on the opposite corner, and was afterward taken to her home, where her injuries were attended by Dr. Sanford Loebl.

The car was backed off the sidewalk and went out Washington street, without the driver making any inquiry as to the condition of Mrs. Bowman, say bystanders.

JUDGE M'GINN MARRIED

Quiet Courthouse Ceremony Makes Mrs. Louise Summers His Wife.

Judge Henry E. McGinn and Mrs. Louise Summers were married quietly late yesterday afternoon by Judge Bronnough. The ceremony was performed in the latter's chambers at the Courthouse. Although it had been rumored that Judge McGinn was to be married, his engagement was known to but few and news of the nuptials will come as a surprise to many of his friends.

Judge and Mrs. McGinn left on the 6 o'clock train for Astoria and beach points and will return to Portland next week. Soon after their return they will leave for an extended tour East.

MURDERED BY BLACK HAND

Dismembered Body Wrapped in Bundles Bearing Deadly Sign.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The dismembered body of a man with the head missing was found by the police here tonight neatly done up in two bundles of brown paper and black oiled cloth. The bundles had been left in the charge of a small boy by a stranger, who had promised him 5 cents to watch them till he came back.

On the wrappings of the bundles was written in letters of red three inches high, "Black Hand." There were four stab wounds in the chest, two of which must have been immediately fatal.

N. P. STARTS SECOND TRACK

Construction Crew From Vancouver Begins Double-Tracking Line.

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 10.—(Special.)—The work of double-tracking the Northern Pacific between Vancouver and Tacoma will begin at once. A construction crew has been ordered out from this city and the first piece of the line to be double-tracked will be between here and Kelso. The grading for two tracks is already completed between Vancouver and Kalama, the work having been done when the Northern Pacific last year straightened and regraded the Vancouver-Kalama line.

BOY KILLS HIS TEACHER

Accidentally Fires Fatal Shot at Sunday School Leader.

TRINIDAD, Colo., June 10.—B. C. Briggs, building contractor and superintendent of a Sunday school, was accidentally shot and killed today by Walter Harris, 11 years old. Briggs had taken the children of his Sunday school to the mountains for an outing. The boy aimed a rifle at Briggs. It was discharged, the bullet entering Briggs' head.

SUICIDE CLOSES MRS. RUZ' CAREER

Deserted by Alfred Vanderbilt in London.

WAS CAUSE OF HIS DIVORCE

Cast Off by Cuban Diplomat When Intrigue Began.

WAS DAUGHTER OF FARMER

Well-Kept Secret Leaks Out and Explains Scandal Which Culminated in Divorce of Alfred Vanderbilt.

LONDON, June 10.—(Special.)—It was learned positively for the first time today that Mary Agnes Ruiz, whose name was repeatedly and conspicuously mentioned in connection with the divorce case of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, killed herself in her home in Grosvenor street, Mayfair, on May 16 last.

There was an inquest on May 19, but no mention of it reached the public. A careful investigation brought fruit today in the first authentic story of the woman's suicide. It was learned that early in May Alfred Vanderbilt's visits to the Grosvenor-street house ceased entirely. Mrs. Ruiz grew morose, and left off her many London acquaintances from communication with her. She was seen out only with Miss Caney, her American companion, who was obviously making every effort to keep her cheerful.

When Mrs. Ruiz's horse was brought to the door, according to the usual routine, on Sunday, May 16, Miss Caney heard a shot in Mrs. Ruiz's bedroom, and ran upstairs. Miss Caney found Mrs. Ruiz lying on the floor. She had shot herself through the breast with a revolver. She was hurried to Fitzroy Square Hospital, where she died late on the night of May 16.

At the inquest the woman was recorded as Mary Agnes Ruiz, the daughter of a Missouri farmer, and divorced a year ago from Antonio M. Ruiz, a former member of the Cuban Legation at Washington.

The Corneys were going from their chateau at Vilgenia, in the vicinity of Paris, to luncheon at the German Embassy, when about three miles out the automobile became unmanageable and the three occupants were thrown out. Mr. Corey sustained a few cuts and his wife slight bruises. Their friend, whose name is Bonnerol, was the most hurt and serious internal injuries are feared.

Assistance was rendered by peasants of a nearby village, who provided a conveyance to return to the chateau. Mr. Bonnerol was taken back on a stretcher.

HARRIMAN'S THUMB ON PUBLIC PULSE

GETS REPORT ON OPINION OF HIMSELF AND HIS ROADS.

Synopsis of Press Comment Sent to Kruttschnitt Twice a Month by Managers.

CHICAGO, June 10.—(Special.)—Edward H. Harriman, who is absolute master of over 54,000 miles of rail and water transportation, has decided to keep in constant touch with public opinion regarding himself, his railroads and railroads generally, provided it is possible to do so through things which are printed about them.

Twice each month each general manager telegraphs Mr. Kruttschnitt a brief synopsis of public sentiment as reflected by the press. His report also shows the number of publications which were examined, the percentage favorable, the percentage unfavorable and the percentage which is neutral. He quotes also from criticisms, complaints, expressions of opinion and from special articles as well as giving the trend of opinion as voiced in political and commercial centers. Mr. Harriman regards the reports as a valuable aid in detecting causes of friction between his railroads and the public and in applying corrective measures.

PASTOR'S HOUSE IS LOOTED

Jewelry Worth $100 Taken From Dr. Wilson's Home.

Burglars ransacked the house of Dr. Clarence True Wilson, pastor of Centenary Methodist Episcopal church, at 644 East Ankeny street, last night, securing jewelry valued at $100. Dr. and Mrs. Wilson, who had been watching the Rose Festival parade, returned in time to frighten away the intruders, but not until the house had been thoroughly ransacked.

About 7:30 o'clock Dr. and Mrs. Wilson left home for prayer meeting, and later out to the West Side. On their return home, about 10 o'clock, they noticed a light in their house while they were about a block away. By the time they reached the house, the light was extinguished and they caught no glimpse of the burglars, who had entered by using a skeleton key.

They found the house in disorder and several rings and stockings missing. The most valuable article stolen was a gold watch belonging to a domestic.

COREYS IN AUTO SMASH

French Guest Seriously Injured, They Are Slightly Hurt.

PARIS, June 10.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. William E. Corey were in an automobile accident today. Neither was much hurt, but a friend with them sustained grievous injuries.

The Corneys were going from their chateau at Vilgenia, in the vicinity of Paris, to luncheon at the German Embassy, when about three miles out the automobile became unmanageable and the three occupants were thrown out. Mr. Corey sustained a few cuts and his wife slight bruises. Their friend, whose name is Bonnerol, was the most hurt and serious internal injuries are feared.

Assistance was rendered by peasants of a nearby village, who provided a conveyance to return to the chateau. Mr. Bonnerol was taken back on a stretcher.

COMBINE FORCES FOR INCOME TAX

Democrats and Progressives Allied.

ADD TAX ON CORPORATIONS

May Be Referred to Committee With Instructions.

WOOL TARIFF UNCHANGED

Dolliver Leads Many Attacks of Progressives, but Aldrich Wins Every Time—Gleam of Humor in Debate.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Encouraged by what they interpret to be a weakening of the opposition to an income tax amendment, another move to form a coalition between the progressive Republicans and Democrats was begun in the Senate tonight.

The programme is that Bailey shall present his amendment and a motion to amend is to be made by Cummins to reduce the proposed tax from three to two per cent and to include a provision for a tax upon the income of corporations. It is said Bailey will accept both changes and that all who favor an income tax will unite on the amended measure.

The outcome is uncertain, but the indications point, it is said, to the reference of the whole subject to the judiciary committee with instructions to report at the next session.

NO CHANGE IN WOOL TARIFF

Aldrich Withstands Every Assault Made by Progressives.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Time and time again today Dolliver and others of the so-called progressive Republicans went down to defeat in their efforts to break the ranks of the Aldrich forces on the wool schedule of the tariff bill. Dolliver offered numerous amendments looking to the reduction of the finance committee's rates, but in each instance the amendment was voted down and the committee sustained.

The first of Dolliver's suggestions had for its object the confining of the duty on mixed cloths to the wool in them, which amendment was defeated by a vote of 31 to 45.

Speaks Word for Consumer.

Warren contended that the object of this provision was to prevent the importation of cheap cloths, but Dolliver argued that there might be some persons who would be benefited by having cheap clothing brought in from abroad.

On this vote, Dolliver was supported by Beveridge, Bristow, Brown, Clapp, Cummins, LaFollette and Nelson, while McEnery, of Louisiana, was the only Democrat.

WEDDING DELAYS EXHIBIT AT FAIR

IDAHO SCHOOLMA'AM, WHO IS IN CHARGE, CHANGES PLANS.

Meets Man of Her Heart in Seattle, and Leaves for Honeymoon Instead of Placing Display.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 10.—(Special.)—"Miss Pearl Gelsler, Stuart Hotel, Seattle, Wash.—Return at once. Boise High School exhibit for A-Y-P Exposition must be arranged. R. S. Meeks, Superintendent of Schools."

"R. S. Meeks, Boise, Idaho—Will not return. Have just been married. Leave for Eastern trip tonight. Mrs. Z. R. Cheney."

Because two visitors to Seattle's big fair, who had met but twice, yesterday decided to launch a matrimonial venture, the A-Y-P Exposition for some days will be deprived of the high school exhibit from Boise, Idaho, which Miss Pearl Gelsler, in her official capacity as secretary to R. S. Meeks, Superintendent of the Boise public schools, was instructed by wire to arrange. The above telegrams tell the story.

About a week ago Miss Gelsler was granted leave of absence for a few days, so she could visit the Exposition. While here she met for the second time Z. R. Cheney, a prominent attorney and referee in bankruptcy, of Juneau, Alaska.

"The wedding is a surprise to both of us," said Mr. Cheney yesterday. "I have met my wife but a few times. My wife was to have returned to her duties in Boise Tuesday night, but owing to her watch having stopped, also mine—which, by the way, was really accidental—she missed her train. That evening we dined together with some friends, and, while we were alone for a moment, I dropped the vital question and was accepted."

SHOT FROM BURNING HOUSE

Mystery in Attempt to Kill Road Supervisor Near Walla Walla.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 10.—(Special.)—Attempted assassination of R. J. Hilton, Road Supervisor and wealthy rancher of Columbia County, followed by the burning of his fine country house, occurred last Tuesday night, according to word received here tonight from Dayton. Hilton and his son arrived in Dayton yesterday and reported the affair, which is now under investigation by the authorities.

Hilton and his son drove to the ranch, where he unhesitatingly arrived in the morning. Opening the front door of the house, a gun was discharged from within. The shot passed over Hilton's head, narrowly missing him. He closed the door and, summoning his son, the two a second time opened the door, to be met by a blinding rush of flames and smoke. They found the interior of the house in flames, and it was in ashes 15 minutes later.

INDEX OF TODAY'S NEWS

The Weather.
 YESTERDAY'S—Maximum temperature, 90.1 degrees; minimum, 64.1 degrees. TODAY'S—Fair, northerly winds.
Foreign.
 Mrs. Ruiz committed suicide in London when deserted by her husband, Howard Gould, who took the stand today in her suit for a separation from her husband, Howard Gould, than the public remembered, and her loss in weight was becoming. She seemed nervous at times under the strain of cross-examination and when the questions led her to the early days of her married life she showed visible emotion, but, so far as the evidence of her husband was concerned, she seemed not to know he was in the same room.
Two Sides of Case.
 The long-delayed hearing before Justice Dowling is the culmination of a case that began in May, 1907, and had been marked by many sensational accusations of misconduct and attempted subornation of witnesses. Mrs. Gould alleges that her husband deserted her without just cause July 16, 1907. Howard Gould answers that his justification was the habits of the plaintiff, that since he left her he has made her an allowance of $35,000 a year, but that she is extravagant, intemperate and has been guilty of misconduct. The wife denies the charges and asks for an allowance of $10,000 a year.
Retinue of Servants.
 "During the years that you were living at Castle Gould," asked Clarence Shearn, Mrs. Gould's counsel, "how large an establishment did you have?"
 "From 15 to 18 servants in the house, from 10 to 12 around the estate and 18 or 20 gardeners," answered Mrs. Gould.

BLOWN UP BY DYNAMITE

German Steamer Destroyed by Explosion at Algiers.

ALGIERS, June 10.—The German steamer Awa, from Hamburg, blew up last night about 10 miles off Pantalarie Island. Fire broke out in the steamer during the night, and, as dynamite formed a large part of its cargo, the crew lost no time in making its escape in boats. A few minutes later the dynamite exploded with terrific force, tearing the steamer to pieces. All the crew was picked up by the steamer East Gale and landed here tonight.

TAFT AGREES TO SPEAK

Will Address Conference on Uniform Legislation Next January.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—President Taft, after a conference today with John Mitchell, Samuel Gompers, John Hays Hammond, Professor J. W. Jenks and R. M. Easterly, representing various interests, accepted the invitation to address the National conference to be held here in January to aid uniform legislation by the states on pure food, child labor, railway regulation, divorce, taxation and other subjects.

TRAIN RACES WATERSPOUT

Union Pacific Fast Mail Barely Misses Destruction.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 10.—Union Pacific westbound train No. 3, the China and Japan fast mail, raced for four miles with a waterspout today near Paxton, Neb., and narrowly escaped destruction. The train barely missed the course of the deluge, which tore out a section of track a few seconds after the train had passed over it.
