

THREE ASSASSINS FLEE FROM LAW

Lima's Father and Brother and Another Wanted at Columbus.

MARFISI LETTER - CARRIER

Missives From Black Hand Gang Demanding Money Sent Through Him—Scare About Rescue of Prisoners.

COLUMBUS, O., June 10.—Federal warrants for three more members of the Ohio Black Hand band of Italians were issued today and three members of Sam Lima's gang who are sought have fled.

Two of the three are Sam Lima's father, Antonio, and his brother, Stephano. The identity of the third is withheld by the authorities.

Marfisi gave the Federal authorities a scare today. A mob of Italians, it was reported, was preparing to storm the jail and rescue the prisoners. Deputies were ordered sworn in to guard the structure. They were kept on duty until today, when Marfisi was taken to Canton to be arraigned.

After an all-night conference between Postmaster O'Connell, Postmaster Krumm and Secret Service agents, who made a careful examination of mysterious letters taken from the trunks of Sam Lima at Marion, Inspectors Tate and Beresford were sent to the Springfield district with instructions to run down two Italians whose names were learned by a perusal of the alleged Black Hand correspondence taken in the Marion raid.

HOW GANG WAS DISCOVERED

Inspectors Spied on Meeting of Assassins in Adjoining Room.

CINCINNATI, June 10.—Government Secret Service and Postoffice inspectors, now that they have caught many of the ringleaders in the Society of the Banana, commonly known as the "Black Hand," are today sending out a number of methods pursued by the officers of the organization of extortionists. The information was given by a recent member.

Postoffice inspectors were in Marion a week before the day set for the meeting, and laid the foundation for what took place. The officers secured a room in the building adjoining the fruit store of Sam Lima, the alleged ringleader of the gang. In the room in the rear of the store the plotters assembled today.

When Lima was arrested and the papers in his headquarters were confiscated, the evidence was found. The officers assert, incriminating a number of those who attended the conference, where the business affairs of the "Society of the Banana" and the new Mafia organization, were discussed.

WOOD FAMINE THREATENED

Aberdeen Mills Will Sell Stock on Hand, but Take No New Orders.

ABERDEEN, Wash., June 10.—(Special.)—Such slabwood and lumber as the mills may have in stock will be sold to consumers, the embargo that was into effect when the mills decided to suspend operations being lifted today. This action was taken at a meeting of the millowners held this morning at Elk's Hall.

No special orders of lumber will, of course, be cut, and the mill men will sell only that stock that may be on hand. Lumber will be sold at the yards, but no deliveries will be made. Stocks of both lumber and wood are low.

cratic Senator who voted with the Republicans against the provision.

Quotes Aldrich Against Aldrich.

Many of Dolliver's amendments were along the same lines as the first and on the entire series the vote was practically the same. In no instance did any of the Republican Senators change. One of Dolliver's amendments was identical in terms with a provision suggested by Aldrich as a part of the McKinley tariff bill of 1888, but the Rhode Island Senator refused to accept it, saying the conditions were entirely different now from what they were in those days.

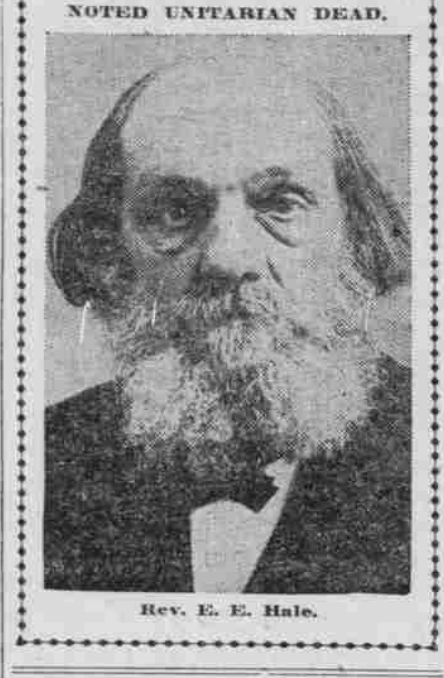

In the course of a discussion between Aldrich and Owen on the duty on blankets, the fact was brought out that blankets paid at the rate of 18 per cent ad valorem. In this connection, the chairman of the finance committee was given an opportunity to accept a general provision prohibiting any rates in the schedule above 10 per cent, but he declined to do so, because, as he said, it might let in foreign woolen manufacturers.

Dolliver Provokes Mirth. The debate throughout the day was good-natured and Dolliver seemed to have real feeling over the possible tears in the eyes of the Irish potato.

"Home, Sweet Home" and "Welcome" mottoes, he said, were subject to pay duty under the wool schedule. Corn planters when made of wool were obliged to pay tribute to the wool schedule under a decision that had declared them to be "wearing apparel."

SAYS INSPECTION FARCE

GOVERNMENT MEAT INSPECTOR RESIGNS IN DISGUST.

Demanding Inquiry Into System Which Passes Lard That Was Spilled on Floor.

ST. LOUIS, June 10.—After 15 months' service as a United States meat inspector in East St. Louis packing houses, J. E. F. Harris has resigned, and has written a letter to Secretary of Agriculture Wilson demanding an investigation of the meat inspection system at the National stockyards.

"The inspection at the National stockyards is costing the people approximately $100,000 a year, and it is not actually worth $1 to them," writes Mr. Harris. "I have seen from 1200 to 1500 pounds of lard spilled on the floor, and which ran down into an open sewer in the floor, the sewer outlet being quickly blocked and said lard taken up from the floor and put of the sewer, both of which were unclean and unsanitary from walking over it and the spume and filth which naturally finds its way into any sewer."

SUICIDE HAS UNIQUE PLAN

DALLAS, Or., June 10.—(Special.)—E. Kimball, a farmer, living about three miles from Dallas, committed suicide last night by shooting himself. There is every indication that the suicide was planned deliberately.

NEW LAW UP TO OFFICIAL

Seattle Police Will Go to Headquarters for Instructions in Code.

SEATTLE, June 10.—(Special.)—Anticipating considerable technical trouble in the matter of enforcing the salient features of the new criminal code, Chief of Police Ward stated tonight that he will make it a rule of his department to refer all cases to the prosecuting attorney direct, instead of to the police.

State Sells 5000 Acres.

WEISER, Idaho, June 10.—(Special.)—The most spirited land sale ever held in the state took place in this city today, when about 5000 acres of state land were sold by the State Land Board to the highest bidder. The sale averaged about $20 per acre. Every piece sold went for a price about double the appraised value. The highest price paid was $75 per acre for one piece, sold to A. G. Butterfield of this city. Most of the land is in the vicinity of this city and is above the ditch, but has a possibility of water in a year or two.

E. E. HALE IS DEAD

Chaplain of Senate and Famous Author Dies.

BRIEF ILLNESS ENDS LIFE

Thousands Mourn Passing of Head of "Lend-a-Hand" Society—Career Long and Varied, and Devoted to Progress.

BOSTON, June 10.—The morning light was breaking as the venerable Rev. Edward Everett Hale, D. D., chaplain of the United States Senate, Unitarian divine, author, journalist and lover of peace, breathed his last today in his home in Roxbury.

At the bedside were his wife, and his daughter, Miss Ellen D. Hale, and his son, Philip L. Hale, the artist. Two other sons, Arthur Hale, of Washington, and Professor Edward Everett Hale, Jr., of Union College, returned home this evening. It is expected that martial arrangements for the funeral will be made for Monday in the South Congregational Church, of which Dr. Hale was the pastor emeritus, will be announced tomorrow.

Whole Country Mourns Him.

On his return from Washington a few weeks ago it was reported that Dr. Hale was not in good health, but he soon regained his activity and until Tuesday attended meetings and received friends. It seems as though the whole country joined in mourning the loss of Dr. Hale. Messages expressing sorrow and esteem poured into the Hale household, one of the first being from President and Mrs. Taft.

As an author Dr. Hale's fame rests on his short stories, such as "The Man Without a Country." An investigator of social uplift, the work of two great organizations, the Lend-a-Hand Club and the King's Daughters, will always add to his renown. As a minister and pastor his half-century in the pulpit of the South Congregational Church and his preaching in many other churches was prolific of wise spiritual inspiration. As a historian his writings have become authorities.

DIES AS HIS CHIEF PASSES

Hale's Former Assistant, Dr. Rich, Dead in Oakland.

OAKLAND, Cal., June 10.—Coincidentally with the death of Dr. Edward Everett Hale today, Dr. Charles Ephraim Rich, who was assistant pastor under Dr. Hale in the latter's first pastorate, died in this city within a few minutes of the time when his former leader breathed his last. Dr. Rich died at his home at Roxbury at 3 o'clock this morning and Dr. Rich passed away in his Oakland home at midnight. Allowing for the three hours' difference in time between Boston and Oakland, the time of death was identical.

Dr. Rich was born in Boston 75 years ago. His first work on entering the ministry was in the church of Dr. Hale. In 1862 Dr. Hale sent him to San Francisco to carry on the work of the church in that city under Thomas Starr King, the famous divine, and 46 years ago he entered the Methodist Church, coming to Oakland and forming the First Methodist Episcopal Church of this city.

Dr. Rich was a member of the vigilantes of San Francisco in early days, when the city was purified of its immoral element by that organization.

FRUITVALE, Cal., June 10.—Henry Sinclair Greeley, cousin of Horace Greeley, in dead here, aged 71 years. He was known to tourists all over the world.

Greeley started the Occidental Hotel in San Francisco many years ago. He owned at different times hotels in Hongkong, Honolulu, Salt Lake City, Santa Barbara, and other places. Greeley leaves a nephew and niece in Iowa.

F. H. Goddard, Powder Agent.

ST. LOUIS, June 10.—A telegram received here today told of the death in Daytona, Fla., of Frank E. Goddard, who for years had been selling explosives in Central and South American countries. Much of the powder used in Latin-American wars is said to have been sold by him.

Vancouver Delegates Named.

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 10.—(Special.)—Mayor Kiggins has appointed Councillman Floyd Swain as delegates from this city to the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, which meets at Denver, Colo., August 11.

FAMILY REUNITED AT FAIR

Six Children of Edson Gilman Meet for First Time in 49 Years.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 10.—Reunited for the first time since the death of their father, 49 years ago, the six children of Edson Gilman, now grown and married, met at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition this week and enjoyed a jollification such as probably no other family has had here since the exposition opened. It was in 1860, just after the death of their father, that the Gilman children kissed each other and their mother good-bye, and went into different sections of the United States, two of the children in each party, and from that time until this week, they had not all assembled together.

Anti-Cigarette Law Active.

SEATTLE, June 10.—A provision of the new anti-cigarette law which went into effect at midnight this morning is that "every person who shall manufacture, sell, give away or have in his possession any cigarettes, cigarette papers or cigarette wrappers shall be guilty of misdemeanor." It is the opinion of the Attorney General's office that the law means that the cigarettes are banished under the new law and any person who has them in his possession is subject to a fine and imprisonment.

Two More Teachers for Eugene.

EUGENE, Or., June 10.—(Special.)—The Board of Education has chosen two additional teachers to the list selected by them at their last regular meeting. Miss Laura Stillman, as a grade teacher, and Miss Josephine Stringham, as teacher of music. The Board set September 20 as the date of opening the Fall term of school. An April vacation will be given the schools next year.

Would You Think of Eating Salt Pork Every Day? Lard is hog fat—so is salt pork. Both are indigestible and often unhealthy. Until Cottolene was placed on the market, people had to use lard for all frying and shortening purposes—they had no recourse. But now there is no excuse for eating lard-soaked pastry and jeopardizing your digestion with lard-soaked food. Cottolene is a vegetable product—pure, healthful, digestible. It contains no hog fat. Even a dyspeptic can eat and enjoy Cottolene food without the after-pangs of indigestion. Once give Cottolene a fair trial and you'll banish lard from your kitchen forever. COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.
