

GRANT MADE IDOL BY CONFEDERATES

Grizzled Soldiers in Gray Rush to Shake Hand of Son of Commander.

GENERAL BLESSES THEM

Demonstration Marks Parade at Close of Reunion—Grant Sheds Tears, Shaken With Emotion.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 10.—A frenzied demonstration of welcome by the men in gray for the son of the man who defeated them marked the final scene of the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans today. It took place during the parade.

On the reviewing stand stood General Frederick Dent Grant, of the U. S. A. A cavalry division approached and the commanding officer, old and grizzled, peered steadily at General Grant a moment. Then he turned in his saddle and yelled: "Come on, you kids, here's General Grant come to live again in his son."

Rush to Shake Grant's Hand.

With one of the old-time rebel yells, the division charged upon the stand and jostled one another for an opportunity to shake the hand of the son of their old-time enemy. From that moment, every gray-clad veteran who could reach the stand rushed up to shake hands with General Grant. The stocky army officer's gray eyes glittered with tears, and his shoulders shook with emotion as he murmured: "God bless you all, boys. God bless you."

Clad in rough gray homespun, such as they wore in the '60s, and carrying their ancient rifles, 10,000 Confederate veterans took part in the parade, which will probably be their last. The heat was intense and the line of march was out down to one mile. Commanders of the divisions and brigades directed that the older and feeble members of their commands should drop out, but officers reported that they could not do so, although feeble enough to take advantage of the indulgence.

The parade was led by Major General John McDowell, grand marshal, and the veterans, marching by the divisions in which they served, followed behind. At the head of each division rode the sponsors and maids of honor, southern girls wearing the huge crimson shoulder knots that told of their position. Following the regular divisions came the survivors of Forrest's famous cavalry corps. The sons of Confederate Veterans, several thousand strong, closed the parade.

FUGITIVE WAS BURGLAR

CAPTAIN BATY THROWS LIGHT ON EAST SIDE SHOT.

Man Chased by Crowd a House-breaker in Residence of M. Abst.

Investigation by the police yesterday morning revealed the fact that the mysterious shooting which occurred during a man chase Wednesday night at East Twenty-eighth and East Ash streets followed a burglary which had been committed at the house of M. Abst, a jeweler, employed by Butterfield Bros., whose store is on the street which lives at 63 East Third-street. Captain of Detectives Baty conducted the investigation personally. Eleven dollars in money and jewelry valued at about $75 were stolen from the Abst home.

GIRL INJURED IN RUNAWAY

Float Frightens Horse and Buggy Is Overturned.

Miss Maude Laffaw, a young woman residing with her parents at 41 Twenty-third street North, was painfully injured last night just after the parade was over by a runaway accident near Sixth and Washington streets, and is now in the Good Samaritan Hospital with a broken collarbone. Miss Laffaw had accompanied two young men in a buggy to watch the parade. On their way home the horse became frightened at the near approach of one of the floats and the animal began to prance.

MRS. GOULD LIVED HIGH

In answer to questions she related the amounts her husband had allowed her, given by the month. They average about $5,000. She kept two bank accounts, one "Mrs. Howard Gould" account and one "Katherine Gould" account.

Superintendent for Paving Company Also Painfully Injured Trying to Save Wife From Death.

Leaky Gaspipe Cause.

Her clothes and hair afire and the entire upper part of her body seared by the flames, Mrs. M. L. Dowling, of 288 Broadway, had a narrow escape from death by burning last night. She now lies in a critical condition in St. Vincent's Hospital as a result of a gas explosion which occurred in the Dowling home last night about 8 o'clock. That she was not burned to death was due to the prompt action of her husband, a civil engineer who is employed as superintendent by the Montague-O'Reilly Paving Company.

TAFT FOR TOLERATION

NO DISTINCTIONS OF RELIGION IN ELECTIONS.

Speaks to Catholic Missionary Congress on Benefits of Church Separation.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—That "complete church separation" is a good thing and that there should be in this country no "invidious distinctions in elections because of religious belief" were the keynote of the address made tonight by President Taft before the congress of Roman Catholic missionaries in session in this city.

MAYOR-ELECT SIMON REPLIES TO MAYOR LANE.

Senator Joseph Simon, Mayor-elect of Portland, yesterday replied to the letter of congratulation from Mayor Lane as follows: "Honorable Harry Lane, Mayor of Portland: My Dear Sir—I thank you to read me your letter of congratulation, and for your tender of such information as you can give and such assistance as you are able to render me in connection with the duties of the office of Mayor. I greatly appreciate your courtesy and kindness. With assurances of my personal regard and best wishes for your future success, I am, very sincerely yours, 'JOSEPH SIMON.'" cause of religious belief" were the keynotes of the address made tonight by President Taft before the congress of Roman Catholic missionaries in session in this city.

Mr. Taft spoke of the work of settling in the Philippines the difficulties caused by the close relationship there of the church and government. He expressed the opinion that in the end the church would be strengthened by the change there, "as freedom and toleration and the state have strengthened the church in this country."

Referring to his visit to Pope Leo XIII and the subsequent settlement of the church problems in the Philippines, he declared that few extremists in this country had found any exception thereto.

"I venture to say," added the President, "that if this visit to Rome had occurred 40 years ago it would have sunk any administration responsible for it, which only goes to show that this country is broad enough for all denominations to work together for the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man and for all of us to live here as American citizens, and that we should make no invidious distinctions in elections because of religious beliefs."

THE COLUMBIA RIVER VALLEY

The Fruit Basket of the World

A poor man has a small chance of ever becoming wealthy in the Far Eastern States. Even in the Middle West the openings are becoming scarce and many energetic men see that they can better themselves by coming to the Northwest. Some who have come West find they have not sufficient knowledge of the country to be able to locate at once in a business which will pay them well. If you are of this number, why not investigate the district which has more openings and opportunities for men of small or large capital than any other section of the Northwest? The Columbia River Valley cannot be surpassed as a desirable place to live when you consider the many lines of business that are still needed, the large population which will surely settle here, and the vast increase which will follow any small investment made at this time. It will pay you to look into the conditions in this land of opportunity. Kenwick and Pasco are already the important commercial centers of the district. For information concerning these openings in all lines of business address: KENNEWICK COMMERCIAL CLUB KENNEWICK, WASH. or PASCO COMMERCIAL CLUB PASCO, WASH.
