PITTSBURG, June 15.—Jim Jeffries, who meets his sparring partner. Sam Berger, tonight in a six-round exhibition performance, grew wrathful when discussing Jack Johnson and announced his intention of seriously injuring the colored man if possible in their coming contest. He said:

"I want to say in all sincerity that I want to meet that fellow worse than I ever wanted to fight any living man. He has had no business with that title. I have always been afraid of my own strength in the ring, for fear I would kill a man, but I will have no fear when I get into the ring with this fellow. For the first time in my life I will hit with all the force that is in me. I want to see how far I can knock him." PITTSBURG, June 15 .- Jim Jeffries

Afternoon and Night at Baker. The famous Burns-Johnson fight pictures will be the attraction at the Baker Theater, Third and Yambill streets, every aftermoon and night this week. The afternoon show begins at 3 o'clock and the evening at 8:50. These are the only original pictures taken at the ringside in Australia last December and are some of the most accurate ever shown of the "manly art."

Music Festival at the Oaks. Signor Donatolli has arranged a special programme, which represents the different schools, for sach night. After a stremuous week of Rose Festival events a few hours of the Oaks with Donatelli's Italian band offers a pleasant rest.

Star Theater's Good Bill. The public will be delighted to know that at the Star Theater matinee this afternoon another one of the great Pathe pictures will be on exhibition, untited, "The Reckoning." These French producers, at great expense, engaged Mons. Krause, one of the foremost dramatic actors on the French stage, to pose as the leading man in this picture.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS.

Three Leightons at Orpheum. A one-night stand in minstrelsy is a lit-tle stunt with which the Three Leightons are entertaining the patrons of the Orgheum this week, and they are proving very pop-ular. This act is very original, consisting of bright patter, some very excellent singing and grotesque dancing. Their very catchy little song, "You Done Me Wrong," will be remembered.

Grand's Bill Pleases Anyone who cannot find enjoyment at the Grand this week is hard to suit in vaude-ville. It is a bill which positively contains no weak acts. Mann and Franks, with their songs, score a triumph and are one of the many big features on the bill. The Makerenko troupe of singing and dancing Russians have the headline place.

Unsurpassed Vaudeville—Pantages.

For fully five minutes during the second performance at the Pantages Theater last night the sudience cheered, stamped and clapped, and the uproar continued until the famous Four Bard Brothers came out and bowed their acknowledgement. The Bards perform many stunts that are absolutely new and original.

BRAIN BUILDING

How to Feed Nervous Cases.

Hysteria sometimes leads to insanity and should be treated through feeding the brains and nerves upon scientifical-ly selected food that restores the lost delicate gray matter. Proof of the power of the brain food, Grape-Nuts, is remarkably strong.

"About eight years ago when work-ing very hard as court stenographer I collapsed physically, then nervously, and was taken to the State Hospital for the Insane at Lincoln, Neb., a raving and was taken to the State Hospital for the Insane at Lincoln, Neb., a raving maniac.

"They had to keep me in a straight-jacket and I was kept in the worst ward for three months. I was finally dismissed in the following May but did no brain work for years; until last Fall when I was persuaded to take the testimony in two cases.

"One of these was a murder case and the strain upon my nervous system was so great that I would have broken down again except for the strength I had built up by the use of Grape-Nuts. When I began to feel the pressure of the work on my brain and nerves I simply increased the amount of Grape-Nuts and used the food more regularly.

"I now feel like my old self again and am healthy and happy. I am sure that If I had known of Grape-Nuts when I had my trouble $ years ago I would never have collapsed, and this dark experience in my life would never have happened.

"The power of Grape-Nuts as a brain food is simply wonderful and I do not believe any stomach is so weak that it cannot digest this wonderful food."
