ALDRICH SHOVES 'LITTLE BOB' ASIDE

Accepts Amendment From Bulkeley, Which La Follette Had Offered.

BURKETT'S ANGRY PROTEST

Declares Action Justifies Vote of Lack of Confidence in Committee—Limit on Island Tobacco Is Stricter.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Vigorously denouncing the committee on finance because of its change of front over night on the subject of tobacco importations from the Philippines, Burkett of Nebraska, in the Senate characterized this action as "an effort to hang the Senator from Wisconsin up in the air," and finally declared that this even "afforded Senators a good opportunity to vote a lack of confidence in the committee."

This followed Aldrich's statement that the committee would accept the amendment proposed by Bulkeley to reduce the number of cigars to be admitted free of duty from the Philippine Islands from 150,000,000 to 70,000,000 and the quality of filler tobacco from 1,500,000 to 1,000,000 pounds, together with a provision that the wrapper and filler tobacco should be instemmed when receiving this concession.

Aldrich Wins, as Usual.

Aldrich, replying, said the committee's action involved no mystery or petty politics, but that it proposed in the future to change a schedule when convinced that a mistake had been made. He expressed the opinion that the actual importations from the Philippines would not equal the amount named in the amendments the committee had accepted.

Encouraged by the committee's action, La Follette proposed another amendment to reduce the free importation of cigars to 60,000,000 annually, but this was defeated, 38 to 27.

Borah for Philippine Independence.

An interesting feature was a declaration by Borah that he proposed to vote for loosening the bond which tied the Philippines to the United States. He declared himself in favor of giving the islands an independent government and said his convictions would force him to differ from his party and perhaps from the President, as he did not believe a colonial policy consistent with the constitution.

Aldrich Reduces Glass Rates.

Aldrich this evening presented the finance committee's amendment to the schedule. Aldrich proposed changes reducing the rates even below those provided in the House bill. He also presented amendments reducing the rate on osier and willow for basket-making, changing the rates upon electrodes, and restoring the House rates on barytes. In response to the request of Scott, action on the window glass schedule was postponed until tomorrow, but the other recommendations were adopted without division. At 7 o'clock the Senate adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Bulkeley Starts Trouble.

Declaring tobacco grown in the Philippine Islands unfitted for the American market because of its inferior quality, Bulkeley opposed the Philippine amendment, and insisted that its enactment into law would do the Filipinos no good.

"Teach them," he said, "that their way to make a market for their tobacco, or anything else, is to produce a superior quality, and there will be a natural demand for them."

Bulkeley Starts Trouble.

Bulkeley then offered the amendment referred to above relating to Philippine tobacco, and Penrose, Jones and Fletcher approved the amendment, and expressed their satisfaction to the tobacco interests of their states. Aldrich promptly, on behalf of the finance committee, accepted this amendment. This provoked Burkett to make his assault on the committee, charging that it was playing a game of petty politics against La Follette. He said the original amendment had been brought into the Senate as approved by the committee, but in face of that fact the committee had brought in this amendment for a reduction of 5,000,000 cigars below that called for by the La Follette amendment.

Dick Gallinger and Depew defended the committee.

Better Give Them Money.

Estimating the loss of revenue that would result from the free entry of cigars from the Philippines to the United States at $3,500,000 annually, and the loss from free sugar at $10,000,000, Newlands declared that it would be better to make a direct appropriation for the benefit of the Filipinos. He declared the tariff concessions would benefit the great Philippine tobacco trust chiefly.

Root appealed for the passage of the amendment as first proposed by the President as a mere act of justice.

Replying to a question of Newlands, the New York Senator said he believed the Philippine people eventually would be able to assume independence in their government such as now exists in Cuba.

Root's vote was then taken on the La Follette amendment reducing the number of free Philippine cigars from 70,000,000 to 60,000,000, and it was rejected, 38 to 27. The Republicans voting in favor of the amendment were Borah, Bristol, Brown, Burkett, Clapp, Cummins, Dooliver and La Follette.

Compromise on Wood Pulp.

Wood pulp and print paper were considered today by Republican members of the finance committee. No vote was taken. The duty on paper will be fixed at $4 a ton, which is a compromise between the House rate of $2 and the $6 rate of the present law.

INVENTOR HAS LUCKY DROP

Amateur Aviator Falls 3500 Feet, and Is Uninjured.

BERWYN, Neb., June 15.—A local inventor dropped 3500 feet in a crippled aeroplane here today. He was not seriously injured. The amateur was U. Sorenson, a blacksmith. Sorenson, in view of several hundred fellow townsmen, made the ascent in an airplane he had constructed. The rudder worked loose and Sorenson was unable to guide the machine. It began to descend at a terrific speed, turning over and over as it dropped. The inventor clung tenaciously to the craft, and when it struck the ground he was in a sitting posture and not badly hurt.

SUGAR STOCK DECLINES $8

Fear of Further Government Inquiry Causes Big Slump.

NEW YORK, June 15.—There was an abrupt decline of $8 a share in American Sugar Refining stock during the first hour of trading on the Stock Exchange today. The drop in the price was attributed to the indication of the company recently and to fears of a rigorous government inquiry into its affairs. At one time the stock fell from 127 to 123 on one sale, but later there was a rally of 4½. The break in this stock affected the entire list and the whole market declined.

The failure of the stock market to rally from the influence of the break in American Sugar prompted the organization of a bear party in the speculation. The party operated boldly and effectively during the day, and forced declines throughout the list.

New York—Each of the 350 employees of Smith & Son's carpet factory at Yonkers received $1000 in cash Monday. They were beneficiaries under the will of the late Mrs. Eva Smith Cochrane, who was the principal owner of the factory.

INJUSTICE TO ALL

Crime to Send Sick to Colorado, Says Doctor.

NONE REALLY BENEFITED

State Suffers Tremendous Financial Drain and Invalids Not Greatly Aided, Conference Is Told.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 15.—Notable among the speakers at the National Conference of Charities and Corrections, which is being held in this city, was Dr. W. B. Friedman, president of the Colorado State Board of Charities, who opened today's session with a paper on "The Great Wrong of Sending Advanced Consumptives away from Home."

Dr. Friedman gave startling figures as to the financial burden that charitable societies in his state carried annually and showed how Colorado had become a veritable dumping-ground for the sick from all parts of the Nation—to the tremendous drain of the state funds, and to but slight gain to the sick.

"Colorado or any other health resort as a last chance is a lost chance for advanced consumptives. Every humanitarian impulse urges such patients to remain at home. It is an injustice and an irreparable injury to the sufferers to send them away. The sudden change from sea level to a highland, rarified atmosphere, the sweltering hardships of travel, aggravate complications and hasten death. Besides, 'incurables' wield a dangerous influence over 'curables.' To place these ill-starred victims of the valley and the shadow of death in hourly contact with those whose hearts beat high with hope is a pitiable attempt at performing service. The constant effect of depressing mental suggestion is fatal to recovery. It often results in turning the 'curable' into an 'incurable.'"

As part of a symposium on "what constitutes right publicity in philanthropic work," John A. Kingsbury, assistant secretary of the New York State Charities Aid Association, suggested that the relation of public health work to right publicity differs in only one respect from proper and effective commercial advertising.

"It must tell the truth—must be moral," said the speaker. "The advertisement that sells is good; the advertisement that does not sell is bad. Unlike commercial advertising, our publicity campaign has a humanitarian purpose, and to accomplish it we should learn the thousand principles involved in commercial advertising, and within the single limit of truth and morality, I would almost say that no means of securing publicity is undignified or unrefined."
