Russian Police Probe Sect in Perm That Worships Big, Blood-Stained Idol.

SECRET GRAVE IS FOUND

Region Where Fanatics Live Is Noted for Wildness and Is Said to Be Home of Many Violent Religions.

ST. PETERSBURG. June 15.—Dispatches from Perm. European Russia, say the local police have begun an investigation into the sect of the Crimson God, the members of which are accused of human sacrifices and other horrible practices.

Repeated disappearances of persons in the district where the sect dwells throw suspicion on the organization, which worships a red wooden idol, colored, it is said, with human blood. The police have located a secret grave containing the mu-tilated body of a man supposed to have been sacrificed, and they expect to find

The rural region, of which Perm is the center, is a breeding ground for many fanatical cults. It is a meeting place for the pagan tribes of Asia, as well as of persons who fee from Russia on account of religious persecution. Refugees of this type have lived for centuries in the dense forcets of the district of the di cents of the district, and their beliefs have developed along the most fanatical

THREE AUTOS PASS TIPTON

Two Fords and Shawmut Cars in Close Race to Seattle.

SALT LAKE, June 15.—Three of the New York-to-Scattle racing automobiles passed Tipton, Wyo,, today. The rail-road operator who sends the report says that the first car reached Tipton at 4:20 P. M. and the second and third passed at 5:30 P. M. He was unable to give the names of the cars, but if they are in the relative positions in which they left Rawlina, 58 miles eastward, the Ford No. 2 was leading and the Shawmut and Ford No. 1 following.

Tipton is 107 miles from Granger, where the autos take the cut-off to Pocatello, Idaho. At a late hour tonight, none of the cars had reached Bitter Creek, the first night office west of Tipton.

KANSAS CITY, June 15.-The Italian car in the New York-to-Seattle automo-lble race arrived here this morning and proceeded west during the afternoon.

COLLINS' LAST HOPE GONE

California Bigamist Must Begin Sentence in Prison Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15 .- George D. SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—George D. Collins, the San Francisco lawyer convicted of perfury arising out of his trial for bigamy, who has spent nearly five years in the County Jall while fighting his case from the Superior Court of this state through all the tribunals up to the United States Supreme Court, probably will be taken to San Quentin tomorrow to commence serving his sentence of 14 years. The order of the Supreme Court denying his application for a writ of habeas corpus was received from Washington today. His commitment will be ready tomorrow. Collins' only recourse now appears to be a petition to Governor Gillett for a pardon.

Collins was tried for bigamy, the jury disagreed and, when his second trial heared, he fied to British College.

disagreed and, when his second trial neared, he fied to British Columbia and fought extradition for weeks, carrying his case to the highest court in Canada.

CONCERT AT ST. HELENS

JUDGE BEAN HONORED

LAW ALUMNI, U. OF O., DINES NEW FEDERAL JURIST.

Ex-Senator Mulkey as Toastmaster at Commercial Club Banquet. Congratulations Showered.

A banquet to Judge R. S. Bean, recently appointed by President Taft to the Federal bench was tendered at the Portland Commercial Club last night by the law alumni of the University of Oregon. Dr. H. I. Keeney introduced ex-Senator Mulkey, the toastmaster, who extended to Judge Bean a hearty welcome, remarking that the university, as well as its friends, congratulates Judge Bean on his well-earned appointment.

In his response Judge Bean remarked

In his response Judge Bean remarked that although he was a member of the first graduating class of the university, and therefore the first member of the family, he was not put to the trouble of setting an example for the others, as all graduates are well able to care for themselves. He expressed pride in the fact that many members of the institution have attained distinction in public office. Attorney Charles J. Mrs. Cleveland Denies Husband Wrote Article.

BRANDENBURG ON TRIAL

Widow of ex-President Declares Articles Furnished to Times Not Written by Him-Sold to Paper as Cleveland's.

NEW YORK, June 15.-The signature, purporting to be that of Grover Cleveland, which was attached to an article furnished to the New York Times by Broughton Brandenburg and represented as the work of Mr. Cleveland, was repudlated as forged today by Mrs. Cleveland. She was the first witness at the Court on a charge of grand larceny.
With Mrs. Frances Folsom Cleveland, widow of the late Grover Cleveland, wildow of the late Grover Cleveland, called as a witness, the trial of Broughton Brandenburg, the magazine writer, on a charge of grand larceny, began in the Supreme Court today. The charge grew out of the sale of a newspaper article which Brandenburg is alleged to have disposed of to a newspaper on the representation, that are President Cleve-
