TOWN IN ROW OVER M'LOUGHLIN HOME

Residents Object to Removal of Historic Building to Park Block.

OREGON CITY IS STIRRED

After Portland People Aid in Raising $1000 for Preservation of 60-Year-Old Home, Injunction Is Sought.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 18.-(Special.) -Developments are expected here tomorrow in the hurrah that has been stirred up over the attempt of the Mc Loughlin Memorial Association to move the historic home of Dr. John McLoughlin the historic home of Dr. John McLoughin from a temporary site on Main street below Third street to the City Park block at the head of Singer Hill. It is regarded as probable that Dr. M. C. Strickland, M. D. Phillips, Walter Little, D. C. Baker and others who have made themselves prominent in the movement to prevent the restoration of the home of the founder of Oregon City, will seek founder of Oregon City, will seek to obtain an injunction on the bread ground that their property on the hill near the park will suffer if the Mc-Loughlin home is placed there. Attorney John F. Clark will be retained in the

John F. Clark will be retained in the case.

The proposition to give the home of Dr. McLoughlin a permanent place, where it would be restored and become an ornament to the city has been antagonized from the first. Nearly $1000 has been guaranteed in Portiand and Oregon by the friends of the movement, and last week the contract for the moving and renovation of the building was let to Fred S. Baker, who went quietly to work with men and teams to move the structure. He commenced yesterday at noon and tonight has the building moved down Main street to Tenth, and it rests between Main and Railroad avenue. It is his intention to start the building up Singer Hill tomorrow morning, and within two or three days place it on the park block, permission having been granted by the City Council. It is remarkable that the spot where it is proposed to place the structure was given to the city by Dr. McLoughlin himself, when the original dedication was made.

This morning in the office of City Recorder Dimick there was filed an initiative petition for the enactment of an ordinance preventing anyone from placing any oid building on the park block. The dinance preventing anyone from placing any old building on the park block. The petition is signed by 202 names and has been in circulation several weeks. Recorder Dimick will place the matter before the Council at the next meeting, and if that body declines to pass the ordinance, which is regarded as certain, the whole proposition will be proposition. nance, which is regarded as certain, the whole proposition will be put up to the voters at the general election in December. However, before action can be taken on the proposed ordinance, the building will be in place, and the measure does not provide for its destruction or regardal.

building to the City Park block springs from the fact that the structure is in a displated condition and that it will be unsightly in such a prominent position. It is the intention of the officers of the McLoughlin Memorial Association however, and has always been, to place the historic home of McLoughlin in the same condition as it was when he lived there, ters and proceedings in court, were referred to in the Palouse Baptist Association, which was in session at Oakesdale three days this week, and a committee was appointed to investigate. The report of the committee follows:

"We made a thorough investigation of the evidence as submitted by the church against the pastor, H. G. Buss, and found that Buss had been excluded from another Baptist church and his ordination credentials annulled and his license revoked upon just and sufficient charges, and that he imposed himself upon the Colfax church by false credentials, and that the Colfax church is not responsible in the least for the notoriety given by the secular press, and that the action of the Colfax Baptist Church in annuiling ordination papers, revoking license and excluding him from the church was just and done in regular form."

The Colfax Baptist Church and parsonage at present are under quarantine. The 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Buss has scarlet fever and Mrs. Buss is gaining strength after a nervous collapse following her trial and her trouble with the

When the Warren Construction Company was awarded the contract in this city it was understood that the company should employ local labor, and the importation of the Greeks is considered by the council as a violation of the contract. As yet nothing has terminated from the importation, but developments are looked for soon such as will compel the company to employ local labor or cancel the contract. Since local labor or cancel the contract. Since the Greek riot in this county several years ago the citizens have little re-spect for their kind and their hasty exit from the city is predicted.

HOSPITAL HOLDS OUTLAW

Refuses to Yield Man Shot While Attempting to Hold Up Streetcar.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 18 .- (Special.) -Though directed by the Prosecuting Attorney's office to be taken to the County Jail. Theodore Adams, shot through the head last Winter while attempting to hold up a Cannon Hill street-car, is still at the Deaconess Hospital.

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Don Kizer yesterday afternoon requested the police to send the patrol wagon to convey Adams to the jail. When the officers called at the hospital the attending nurses requested that the patient be not moved, as he might die on the way to the jail. It was stated also that he had a rich sister in Montans who would pay his expenses if allowed to remain at the hospital.
