

PARTY LEADERS DINE WITH TAFT

Corporation Tax Is Topic of Talk at White House Dinner.

PROPOSED PLAN FAVORED

Exemption on Earnings Under $5000 Is Likely—President and Senators in Harmony in Support of Measure.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—President Taft entertained at dinner tonight the Republican members of the Senate Finance Committee and Senator Root, and there followed a conference on the proposed corporation tax on the net earnings of corporations. On account of the absence of Secretary Knox and Attorney-General Wickham, little was accomplished beyond a general discussion. This left no doubt that the President and the Senate leaders are in absolute harmony in support of the corporation tax.

Small Concerns Exempt.

It can be stated authoritatively that the amendment will apply to all corporations without regard to their capital stock. It is likely, however, that the tax will apply only to earnings in excess of $5000 a year.

This will remove the burden from small corporations without subjecting the measure to constitutional objections by reason of the exemptions. This has been worked out by the members of the finance committee and was explained to President Taft. The latter recognized the wisdom of the suggestion and said that if it strikes the Attorney-General and Secretary of State favorably, the amendment should be drawn accordingly.

Another important feature related to the interest of bonds of corporations. The consensus of opinion was that the tax should not apply to such interest for the reason that in many cases it would amount to double taxation. Particularly would this be true in the case of savings banks, which hold the bonds of corporations.

Tax on Bonds Unlikely.

At the same time the Senators told President Taft that it would be necessary to find some way to prevent corporations from so manipulating their stocks and bonds as to evade their tax. Mr. Taft's answer, according to Mr. Root, was a 2-per-cent tax on the earnings of corporations would produce about $40,000,000 annually. What would be lost by the tax on about $200,000,000 of $5000 for each corporation could not be stated. It has been the thought of the administration to have enacted a measure that would raise about $200,000,000 a year, and Mr. Aldrich believed this would be the result if the exemptions were made.

Several Senators also attended the dinner stated tonight that the administration plan for a tax on the earnings of corporations and submitting to the states the question of adopting the constitution so as to authorize an income tax would be adopted.

without having the funeral from here in front of a gaping crowd," he said. "My wife and I have aged ten years in the last week. This should be a lesson to young girls not to mix with other than their own people."

Sordid Romance Uncarried.

There is evidence to indicate that Elsie Sigel was the victim of a sordid romance involving the jealousy of two Chinamen, both of whom she professed to love and each of whom thought he was her only lover. Leon was one of the men. The other was Chu Gain, proprietor of the Admiral Arthur Restaurant at No. 9 Mot Street, Gain is in the Tombs, held as an important witness.

Could Spend Money on Girl.

Leon could offer the girl but the tawdiest, cheapest sort of a "good time," while Gain, when he wished, could spend money liberally to create an effect. That he did use his money lavishly in this way, entertaining white women on whom his fancy had fallen, is well known to the denizens of Chinatown.

LETTER FOUND AT WASHINGTON

Addressed to "Wm. Leon," but Has Not Been Opened.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Supplementing scores of clues bearing upon the appearance in this city of Leon Ling, alias William Leon, the Chinaman suspected of the murder of Elsie Sigel, and the events that transpired during the two or three days he is supposed to have remained here, about the time of the murder, was the discovery today that on June 12 a special delivery letter addressed "William Leon, care of G. F. Schutt, National Hotel, Washington, D. C.," was received from New York. The reverse side of the envelope bore the name "Mr. Sam Wink, 85 Bayard street, New York."
