BY W. J. PETRAIN. Those frisky Scals were as pigmies in the hands of "Little Giant" Jesse Garrett, yesterday, and Portland won the decision in the final game of the series, making an even break on the six games. The final score was 5 to 1, and had not Garrett been poorly supported in one inning, he would have registered a shut-out. As it was, San Francisco made only one hit and that Francisco made only one hit and that was a healthy single by Tennant in the ninth.

the ninth.

Portland registered the first ace in the thind inning. Speas opened on Henley with a single to Left. Garrett sacrificed neatly, and Williams allowed Speas to take third by a careless toss to Henley. Iver Olson came through with the required bingle and Portland had one stowed away.

In the fourth, Garrett's shut-out game went glimmering. He walked Kid Mohler and followed this by messing Tennant's sacrifice bunt long enough for both runners to reach safety. Bodie sacrificed, and Melchior fanned. Lewis hit sharply to Olson, who booted and Mohler accred.

In Portland's balf of this inches

In Portland's half of this inning, the home team had revenge in large doses. McCredie pickled one of Henley's choicest for a single to center. Johnson passed up the bunting game and followed suit. Ort then advanced both runners with a well-executed sacrifice, and Fisher's pass filled the sacks. Speas singled, scoring McCredie, and the bases were still populated. Garrett hit a slow bounder to Zeider, which registered Johnson, but Jasse was caught at first. Olson caught Zeider napping and his infield hit scored Fisher. A single by Olson, his steal of second and Ryan's two-bagger gave the fifth run to Portland in the seventh. McArdle was canned by McGreevy for disputing a decision in the seventh, and it looked as if the victory was won. They were doomed to disapointment, however, when Captain Summers came to bat. Summers clouted the ball for a single, Coleman struck out and Stone was hit by a pitched ball. Howard swatted a swift grounder to Cox, who muffed the ball, Summers registering. Pembrooke's fly, which was misjudged, scored Howard. Stone, the pitcher of the Apostles, struck out ten men. Four fast double plays were made. Score by innings:

McArdle was canned by McGreevy for disputing a decision in the fourth and the Apostles followed this up in the fifth with a second run. The Albinas added another tally in the seventh, and it looked as if the victory was won. They were doomed to disapointment, however, when Captain Summers couted the ball. Howard swatted a swift grounder to Cox, who muffed the ball, Summers registering. Pembrooke's fly, which was misjudged, scored Howard.

Stone, the pitcher of the Apostles, fly, which was misjudged, scored Howard.

Portland Boy to Manage Baseball at University of Oregon.

EUGENE, Or., June 2.—(Special.)—At the meeting of the athletic council yesterday, Harper Jameson, of Portland, was chosen manager of baseball; Cecil Jefferson Espy, of Oysterville, Wash., was elected to the managership of track athletics, and Morgan Watson, of Eugene, was chosen assistant football manager. Their terms of office begin next September.

Harper Jameson is vice-president of the student body and is finishing his junior year. He is a good student and is very popular.

year. He is a good student and is very popular.

Cecil Espy is a sophomore, and is recognized as having able business ability.

Morgan Watson has had practical experience in business and in all probability will be elected manager of football next year. At this meeting it was also definitely decided that "Chuck" Taylor, the freshman star halfback of 1907, can play on the Oregon eleven next Fall, if he comes back, as he did not compete in athletics when at Cornell last year, and therefore would not be violating the one-year rule.

The retention of Thomas Kelly as coach of baseball for next season was con-firmed by the council.

Ambush Vans Conveying Horses. Crowd Wild When Racers Fail to Appear-Officers' Horses Pelted With Stones.

PARIS, June 20.-Occurrences unprevented the running of the grand steeple chase of Paris today at the Au Teuil course. The meeting was disorganized by a serious riot, several persons being by a serious riot, several persons being injured. Many arrests were made. Inspired and aided, it is said, by Pataud and other revolutionary leaders, 40 militant members of the Stable Boys' Union, armed with revolvers, ambushed the vans convoying the horses from Maison's Laoite, their running quarters. Among the victims were Several Americans cued the racers. It seemed at first as though the meet-It seemed at first as though the meeting would have to be abandoned, and President Failleres, who always is present on the occasion of the grand steeple chase, was advised by telephone not to come. Eventually, however, the call was given for the first race. This was more than two hours after the scheduled time, and the crowds became violent when a single horse presented was more than two hours after the scheduled time, and the crowds became violent when a single horse presented itself for a walkover in the first race. Jockey and horse were forced to beat a hasty retreat to the paddock, as the crowd swarmed on the track and refused to permit the jockey to take his mount over the course.

The second event was for officers riding their own horses. The crowds became frenzied when several horses cantered in. The first was pelted with missiles and two were severely injured. The barriers guarding the course were broken down, and hundreds of men invaded the track, several of them being ridden down and injured by the wildly-excited animals. About the same time the booths and hedges were set on fire, but reinforcements of police, troops and firemen extinguished the flames.

Watch your laundress! Let her use ordinary soap for ordinary purposes.

But, for the finer things-for lawns, dimities, colored goods and everything else that requires special care in laundering-she should use Ivory Soap; and none other.

Why Ivory Soap? Because it is pure soap and nothing else. No "free" alkali in it; no coloring matter; no chemicals.

Ivory Soap 99 44 100 Per Cent. Pure.
