SIMON TAKES HIS OATH

SLIPS QUIETLY INTO CITY HALL AND QUALIFIES. Official Duties Will Begin July 1 and Mayor-elect is Prepared to Step Into New Office. Joseph Simon went to the City Hall at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and took the oath of office as Mayor of Portland, although his term will not commence until midnight one week from tomorrow. So quietly did the ex-United States Senator and widely-known lawyer-politician go about this highly important matter that scarcely any one in the big building or elsewhere knew of his being there. He was sworn by City Auditor Barbur personally. While Mayor Lane was presiding at a meeting of the Water Board, on the third floor of the City Hall building, Mr. Simon entered the office of Auditor Barbur, on the second floor, and announced that he wished to take the oath of office as Mayor of Portland.

FISH POACHERS CAPTURED

Four Fishing-Boats and Crews Arrested by Deputy Warden Mack. ASTORIA, Or., June 21.—(Special.)—On Sunday afternoon, Deputy Fish Warden Mack captured four fishing boats on charges of illegal fishing and confiscated about a ton of salmon which he found in them. Two of the boats were fishing for the Sanborn-Cutting Company, one for the Columbia River Packers' Association and one for S. Schmidt & Co., and they are alleged to have made drifts about 8:30 Sunday morning at the mouth of the river. They were captured later in the day at the jetty sands, and there must have been a fair run of fish in that section of the river, as one boat had 37 salmon in it. The confiscated fish were sold to a local cold storage plant, and the men were released on bonds to appear for trial on complaints that are to be filed later.

War Vessels at Newport.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The flotilla from Hampton Roads steamed up the bay yesterday, passing through East River into Long Island Sound, then sped on to Newport without stopping. The warships are to take part in the summer maneuvers of the Atlantic battleship fleet.
