ARREST SUSPECT ON TRAIN-

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 21 .-- A answering the discription of Leon Ling, supposed murderer of Edsie Sigel, was taken from a west-Canadian Pacific train at Revelstoke, B. C., today.

NEW YORK, June 21 .- After a bit of police flurry today and an hour or two of unverified reports and telephoning between cities, the murder of Elsie Sigel resolved itself into an unsolved crime again tonight

Chung Sin, who formerly occupied a room adjoining that where the girl's hody was found, is held by the police at the little upstate village of Amsterdam, N. Y., but what has been learned from him has cleared up the case but

At Schenectady, the Chinese arrested today as Leon Ling or William H. Leon. who is sought as the girl's murderer, pretty well established that he is an unoffending Celestial, whose arrest was brought about through his striking resemblance to Leon Ling.

Chung Knows but Little.

The disappearance of Chung Sin about the time the murder was discovared made the police eager for his apprehension, but the interview with him at Amsterdam seems to have brought out nothing of value to the authorities He maintains that he rarely associated with Leon, and knows nothing of the

While the authorities up-state were putting the two Chinese through an inquisition, Sun Leong, keeper of the restaurant above which the body was found, was being questioned at police hendquarters. Sun Leong, who disappeared on the night the body was found, quietly surrendered himself early today. His voluntary surrender is taken to mean that he is not implicated in the crime.

Chinamen to Raise Fund.

A meeting of the Chinese who have been converted to Christianity was held this afternoon to discuss plans for rais-ing a fund to be offered as a reward for the capture of Elsie's slayer. A committee will go through Chinatown soliciting subscriptions. Rev. Mr. Fungymow, who acted as chairman, said Leon Ling had never been connected with the mission in any way, and as far as he knew had never at tended any missions in Chinatown that Miss Sigel had taught. In support of the belief that Elsie was killed through Jealousy, Mrs. Florence Todd said:

"I knew Chu Gain very well. He is one of the few Chinese whom I would trust with my life. Mrs. Sigel also knew him for many years. Within the last year despite her love for Chu Gain, Elsie became apparently infatuated with Lear Ling. But I think it was only a flirta-

'He, I know, asked her to marry him. but she refused. In fact she told me san refused him, Her mother knew all about it."

Despite her statement, Mrs. Todd said she was not inclined to believe that Leon committed the murder, and she went on to relate that she had had a dream that Elsie Sigel had committed Chu Had Dream.

Chu Gain, she said, came to her after the murder is supposed to have been committed and told her that he had also had a dream. In this dream Chu Gain, according to Mrs. Todd, had seen the form of the girl appear before him, cry-

This seemed to worry the Chinese greatly, because Elsie was missing at WASHINGTON. June 21.-Orders washington, June 21.—Orders were issued by the Chinese legation here today to Chinese Consuls throughout the United iSates to do all in their power to assist in the apprehension of the murderers of Eisie Sigel. Those in New York and San Francisco were ordered to average surveillance. dered to exercise surveillance.

LOVING LETTERS FROM ELSIE

Both Chinamen Got Them and Jealousy Drove Leon to Murder.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Wedged into an old trunk of Leon Ling, the police found a score or more of letters which the girl had addressed to him. They were endearing in tone and indicated a friendship more than platonic. In the raid of the private rooms of Chu clain, the detectives found about 200 letters which had been addressed to him by Elsie Sigel. These letters were even more endearing in tone than those found in Leon Ling's room. In these she addressed him as "my own dearest beloved," "my own dear Chu," and she frequently signed herself, "ever your loving Elsie."

The Chu Gain letters gave the first loving Elsis.

The Chu Gain letters gave the first information as to the motive for the murder. Miss Sigel told Chu Gain in some of these letters of her conduct with Leon Ling, told him not to be jealous and explained her object in maintaining her friendship for Ling. The police will not give out the full contents of these letters.

It is now supposed that Leon Ling decided to end tragically the romance of the girl and his rival. Her affection for Chu Gain was known, as is shown by the letters received by Chu Gain, in which he and the girl are threatened with death unless their relations ceased. The murder apparently was the execution of that threat. The Chinatown mission, popularly known as the "Girls" Recreation Rooms," was closed last night for the first time since it was opened eight years ago. In these rooms Miss Sigel first undertook missionary work in Chinatown, and it was here that she was brought in contact with many of the residents of that section. The young girl missionaries use these rooms to meet the unfortunate wemen of Chinatown and talk religion with them. On stated occasions Chinese were invited to the rooms and there they met the young girls. In that manner many Chinese were induced to attend Christian Sunday schools, and from these first meetings many romances have developed Chinese marriages with white women.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 21. SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 21.—A Chinaman, at first supposed to be William H. Leon, suspected of having murdered Elsie Sigel in New York, was arrested here today in a Chinese restaurant in South Center street. In every way the prisoner answered the description sent out by the New York police. He denies that he murdered Miss Sigel. At police headquarters he answered all of the questions put to him in the coolest manner.

WITH LEON IN WASHINGTON

Elsie Sigel Left Boarding-House With Two Chinamen Thursday.

WASHINGTON, June 21 .- Leon Ling,

WASHINGTON. June 21.—Leon Ling, the Chinese convert now being sought as the alleged slayer of Elsie Sigel, is reported to have been in Washington last Wednesday and Thursday, in company with his roommate, Chung Sing, and a white woman whose identity is not known. The woman, it is said, lodged two nights with a family in C street, northwest, near Third street, and left there last Thursday night in company with two Chinese.

Members of the family identified photographs of Leon Ling and Chung Sing as likenesses of the men who called for her. Occupants of the house declared yesterday that the woman had said she was a trained nurse and was soing to Baltimore to attend a patient. She remained at the house from Wednesday until the two Chinese called for her Thursday without giving any reason for not hurrying to the patient. The landlady who rented the room declared the visitor, was pale and much excited.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21 .- At the request of attorneys for Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, whose first trial ended yesterday in a disagreement of the jury, one of the remaining indictments against him was set for trial for next Monday, June 28. The indictment selected was one alleging offer of a bribe to former Supervisor John J. Furey, and is similar to the one upon which Abraham Ruef was sentenced to 14 years

The defense alleged that Judge William P. Lawlor was not qualified to sit in another case against Calhoun on the ground that he had shown prejudice in the trial just concluded, and that funds were being furnished for the prosecution of Rudolph Spreckels, a private citizen.
