WEDDING MOST NOTABLE

MISS FRANCES LEWIS MARRIES HENRY FAIRBANKS.
Bride of Prominent Portland Family and Groom From New York, Where Couple Will Live.

One of the most prominent weddings in years was that of Miss Frances Lewis, the youngest daughter of Mrs. C. H. Lewis, to Henry Fairbanks, of New York, which took place yesterday at 4 P. M. at Trinity Church.

The Lewis family is one of the oldest and most prominent in the state and has been identified with Portland since its inception. The bride is an exceptionally popular girl and numbers friends by the legion.

The ceremony, which occurred at Trinity Church, was confined to the relatives, which number over 100. Mrs. C. H. Lewis is a daughter of the late Captain and Mrs. Couch, and a sister of Mrs. R. E. Wilson, Mrs. Rodney Gilman, Sr., and Miss Minnie Couch, who is now in Paris.

At the ceremony were the children and grandchildren of this extensive family. The ceremony was performed by Dr. A. A. Morrison with the officiation pronounced by Bishop Scadding.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of ivory white cut on severe lines, with a filmy veil which fell to her knees and held her. She carried a prayer book and an enormous bouquet of bride roses and orchids.

The bride appeared from the baptistry entrance on the arm of her mother, Mrs. C. H. Lewis, who was distinguished in a gown of handsome black lace. Mrs. Sherman Hall, of Kansas City, who was formerly Miss Clementine Lewis, acted as matron of honor and made a striking appearance in a gown of white mousseline de soie cut empire and worn with a large picture hat of white covered with willow plumes of a mauve shade.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Fairbanks, of New York, and the ushers were David C. Lewis and Hunt Lewis. The decorations for the church were simple, the altar alone being banked with bride roses and woodland ferns.

Following the ceremony a reception for over 500 guests was given at the handsome Lewis residence on Nineteenth and Gilman streets. The grounds were enclosed in canvas and the interior of the residence was transformed into a bower of roses.

The Portland Hotel orchestra furnished the music. The reception lasted from 4:30 until 6 P. M., during which the attractively gowned guests offered their congratulations.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. John E. Bingham, John Lewis, Mrs. Sherman Hall, of Kansas City, Mrs. George Goodie, Mrs. Sally Lewis, Mrs. A. L. Mills, Hunt Lewis, Robert W. Lewis and David C. Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks left last night for their future home in New York City.

The Women's Missionary League of the Oregon conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held its annual meeting yesterday at the Taylor-Street Church, Third and Taylor streets.

The morning session was a business meeting and the afternoon period was given over to addresses and reports of the presidents of the various missionary leagues represented.

In the morning's business session various changes were made in the constitution of the league. It was reported that $1200 had been raised and that $865.65 of this amount had been raised by the Taylor-Street Missionary League alone.

A rapid growth in the membership of the league was also reported. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President, Mrs. F. B. Holbrook; first vice-president, Mrs. D. L. Rader; second vice-president, Mrs. L. C. Dickey; third vice-president, Mrs. M. T. Akers; recording secretary, Mrs. A. E. Holbrook; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. M. Pierson; treasurer, Mrs. E. B. Gottfield; auditor, Mrs. Alexander; nitebox secretary, Mrs. P. S. Allen; supply secretary, Mrs. F. W. Brook.

The presidents' reports in the afternoon showed a rapid growth in their respective leagues. Mrs. F. B. Holbrook, president of the State League, spoke of the following ideals which the members should keep in mind: Loyalty to the church; a Sunday school in every community; every pastor a living support.

Following a solo by Mrs. J. S. Hamilton, Bishop Smith gave the main address of the session on the topic, 'Sociological Needs in Oregon.' T. S. McDaniel in an address compared the work of the missionary societies with the work of the laymen of the church.

A feature of the session was a solo by William Lai, a Chinese tenor, in singing 'Face to Face' he showed exceptional talent and brought forth long-continued applause. Mrs. Anna Sleeth, president of the W. C. T. U. gave the closing address on the subject, 'The Kind of Work Needed at Home.'
